If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the Chair, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if it be not sustained, then he shall be permitted to go on. Every such decision from the Chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House, but no discussion of a question of order shall be allowed, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Chair.

42. If any member be called to order for offensive words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall report the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table; and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to censure of the House, for language used in debate, if any member has spoken or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them shall have been taken.

45. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except during roll call. The Clerk shall enter on the Journal the name of any member moving an adjournment, also the hour at which the motion was made and adjournment taken.

When a motion is made and seconded to adjourn, it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any member to state any fact to the House relating to the condition of the business of the House which would seem to render it improper to adjourn at that time. Such statement, however, shall not be debatable, and such statement or statements shall not, in any case, occupy more than two minutes.

Concurrent resolutions for adjournment sine die shall in all cases, whether originating in the House or coming from the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. That committee shall report upon any such concurrent resolution not later than the next legislative day, and with regard to the status of the general appropriation bill and tax levy.

A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence over a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to the objection. A dilatory motion shall not be considered intervening business within the meaning of parliamentary usage.

Previous Question.

47. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" And its effect, when sustained by a majority of the members present, shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a vote on the question or questions before it.

51. Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither a motion to add to nor a motion to strike out and insert.

Notice of Reconsideration.

60. On the day succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill or resolution has been taken, said vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member; provided, notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given on the day on which such final vote was taken, by a member voting with the majority; and it shall not be in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the day on which such final vote was taken. Said motion of reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn. No notice of reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session. No motion to reconsider shall be adopted, except upon a roll call, and it shall require forty-one votes to adopt the motion.

In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the members present may order a call of the House and compel the attendance of absentees in the manner above provided. No recess can be taken during a call of the House.

Suspending and Changing Rules.

68. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without a vote of two thirds of the members of the Assembly, and one day's notice being given of the motion therefor; provided, that the Committee on Rules and Regulations may at any time, except during a roll call, report a temporary rule providing for the consideration of any bill on the files of the House belonging to either of the following classes:

A rule of order may be suspended temporarily by a vote of two thirds of the members present, except that portion of Rule 6 relating to third reading of bills. A motion or resolution proposing to increase or diminish a standing committee shall not be adopted until the same has been referred to the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

The Committee on Rules and Regulations may also, at any time, report a temporary rule or regulation. When such temporary rule or regulation shall have been adopted by a two-thirds vote of the House it shall have the effect, for the time being, of a standing rule, and if such temporary rule shall be in conflict with a standing rule it shall supersede said standing rule for the time being, and shall be enforced by the Speaker.

FIRST BIENNIAL MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF CALIFORNIA, January 6, 1913.

To the Senate and Assembly:

In accordance with custom and the requirement of the Constitution, it becomes my duty to communicate with you by message.

INTRODUCTORY—POLICY.

You have assembled, at an exceptionally important time in the history of the State, to carry further forward the works of political and economic betterment so well begun by your immediate predecessors. The past two years have marked a new era in the governmental history of California. Obeying the mandate of the people, under which they were chosen, the present administration and the Legislature of 1911 came into office committed to the definite policy that effective political power should be lodged with the people themselves, that the allegiance of public servants to the people should be undivided, and that the legislative and administrative policies should be directed to the benefit of the people. The record of the past two years is the record of the fulfillment of that promise in the political reconstruction of the State, and of the greatest possible measure of progress in legislative and economic reforms. Your task is to see to it that nothing is lost of what has been achieved, to carry forward as well as possible what remains incomplete, and to do what in your wisdom you deem yet essential.

After only two years it is difficult to realize that we are so short a time removed from a system which had grown up by many years of acquiescence. The system of the domination of the public service by special interests was so all-pervasive and so familiar that it was accepted even by many excellent men as part of an unchangeable order of things. Yet it was a system which was of course fatal to true popular government and to administrative efficiency, and which offered constant temptation and opportunity to worse than inefficiency. An incident in the government of the water front of the city of San Francisco vividly illustrates how far this system of private dominance of public service extended. The Harbor Commission of San Francisco are required by law to fix the rentals to be paid to those who occupy space belonging to the State. The schedule of rentals just prior to the present administration was really fixed by the very corporation which was the principal tenant of the State at the harbor, and was adopted only after consent of that company. This is perhaps a minor example of a condition which was then regarded as a matter of course, but which has now become, let us hope forever, impossible.

In the effort to eliminate that sort of influence, and to require of every public servant and governmental agency an undivided allegiance to the people, of course there was resistance to be overcome in almost every direction. The service of the State was filled with men many of whom had been accustomed to look, as the source of their power, to a particular outside agency, rather than to the government and the people of the State. But after two years of continuous effort, and with the tremendous aid rendered by the last Legislature, without which it could not have been accomplished, it may be to-day asserted that the public service of California is maintained solely for the public benefit, and that the allegiance of every official is now wholly to the State of California. It is not asserted that all the needed administrative reforms are yet complete; it is not claimed that every public institution in this State is as well managed as ultimately it may be; but it is confidently insisted that the management of almost every public institution in this State to-day has improved in method and efficiency, and that in none to-day is permitted fealty or allegiance to any other power than the power of the people of the State.

The platform to which a majority of you subscribed at the recent legislative convention, and I quote it as a concise statement and not in partisan spirit, contained the following summary of the accomplishments of the past two years, the majority of which, it may be added, were due to the enactments of your immediate predecessors in the Legislature, and to the favorable vote of the people on propositions submitted to them:

"A new spirit has entered the public life of the State. In two years, California has made greater progress in legislation and government than was ever before made in a like period by an American state, and has set a new standard for other States and the Nation. Political power has been taken from the political bureau of a private corporation and restored to the people; boss rule has been made permanently impossible by direct nominations, direct legislation and the recall. The suffrage has been extended to women. The ballot has been made shorter and less partisan, and judicial nominations have been made nonpartisan. Public servants have been appointed and retained for efficiency and faithfulness; the business administration of the State Department has been reformed through the activities of the State Board of Control, corruption and favoritism have been eliminated, and economy and efficiency enforced. The Railroad Commission is for the first time exercising the powers over railroads intended to be conferred upon it when it was established in 1879, and has extended a like control to other public service corporations. The laws of criminal procedure have been simplified, a reformatory for first offenders is assured by the purchase of a site therefor, the prisons have been made self-supporting and prisoners are being taught useful trades without injurious competition with free labor. Much beneficial legislation for social and industrial justice has been passed, including a workmen's compensation act and an eight-hour day for woman, a full crew and sixteen-hour trainmen's bill, bills against the pay-check evil, and repealing the sailors' enticement law, prohibiting night work for minors under eighteen years, and protecting electrical workers. Laws for the better conservation of the natural resources of the State were passed and an inventory of these resources is being made by the Conservation Commission as a basis for the intelligent enactment of needed additional legislation. Counties have been given a larger measure of local self-government and a local option law has been passed. A state system of good roads has been inaugurated. Race track gambling has been effectively suppressed. These and many other beneficial measures are the achievements of the administration and the Legislature of California in the past two years."

This is the record, made by your predecessors and approved by yourselves, which it is now yours to emulate, and to supplement and complete.

The general policy that has characterized the present state government is one that has not been partisan in character, and to which men of all political predilections, and particularly those of different parties in the Legislature, have contributed. The policy of the state government in the future will be the same as for the past two years; and in upholding that policy the present administration asks the aid of all the representatives of the people; and if the policy shall meet with success and approval it may well be considered the policy of all those who believe in popular rule and in constancy and fidelity in the execution of a trust regardless wholly of partisan lines.

Of course the establishment of a new system and the destruction of the old have engendered some bitter animosities from which you and your predecessors and this administration have not been exempt. These animosities manifest themselves sometimes in one form and sometimes in another. When they consist of mere personal vituperation they may be simply disregarded. Occasionally they take the form of an exaggerated and distorted attack upon some public institution which may not have yet reached the state of efficiency that is all that could be desired. Sometimes, inspired by those who contend they are actuated only by desire for the public's good, they are insidiously inserted, by apparently legitimate argument, in the utterance of some public body or medium of publicity. Sometimes they are the concerted activity of the paid representatives and subsidized organs of publicity of the former beneficiaries of the old system, as is evidenced by the sudden concert of attack just now being made upon the greatest constructive agency for good in the State of California—the Railroad Commission. It is not to be expected that these attacks will cease or grow less, but those charged with the public service of California will not be diverted by them from the fixed policy which has so far been followed and which will be maintained unswervingly to the end.

California is a State to inspire the enthusiasm and the devotion of all who are privileged to live in it or called to serve it. Its resources are without limit. The imagination of our generation cannot even picture the possibilities of its development. In the past decade its growth in population and industrial progress has been marvelous. The next decade will far exceed the last. Materially our destiny and our rank among the states of the world are assured. In the more subtle influence of environment, our State stands alone. Nowhere else is there so much charm of climate and natural beauty, so much of the realization of possibilities not yet unfolded. Standing at the very foreground, not merely of a nation, but of a race, the last station of the westward march of occidental civilization, and the final frontier between the two halves of the world, we occupy a unique place which lays upon us a unique responsibility. The impending opening of the Panama Canal now doubles that responsibility. Henceforward we shall face the Atlantic as well as the Pacific, Europe as well as Asia. New problems press upon us, in which, with the eyes of the world looking on, we must not fail.

To the material responsibilities we shall rise. It is your task to see to it that we rise to the governmental responsibilities also—to afford this people the agencies of self-government with which to fulfill its destiny, and, as the representatives of the people, to do in their interest their sovereign will. The experience of your immediate predecessors demonstrates that this is no impossible aspiration, and I look with confidence to see you carry even further forward the work they so well began.

EXECUTION OF RECENT LEGISLATION AND CONSUMMATION OF NEW POLICIES.

The Legislature of 1911, and the people of our State in the constitutional amendment election of that year, entered upon certain new governmental policies. In passing it may be mentioned that the election of October, 1911, called by the regular session of the Legislature of that year, was probably the first election held where only amendments to the Constitution were voted upon. In itself this election was a test of popular rule. The interest in the constitutional amendments and the discrimination displayed by the people fully demonstrated the efficacy of direct legislation and the ability of the people to govern themselves. Some of the amendments submitted were complex in character and dealt wholly with abstract problems. The people then determined that they, as well as the administration, wished the lodgment of power with themselves, and it has since been lodged with our people. Immediately after the election the various constitutional amendments were put into effect, and, of course, in good faith carried out. In detail it is impossible to refer to the execution of all of the legislation passed in 1911, or that determined upon by our people, but a few of the important policies that have been entered upon in the last two years are mentioned.

I.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION.

In January, 1911, the Railroad Commission consisted of three elective members. In that year the well known Stetson-Eshleman railroad bill was passed by the Legislature, giving to the Railroad Commission powers as extensive as the Constitution would permit. At the election of October, 1911, the people passed two constitutional amendments relating to the Railroad Commission, by which the Commission was enlarged to five and made appointive instead of elective, and the most plenary powers were conferred upon it. At the extra session of the Legislature of 1911, the Public Utilities bill was passed. Since that time the Commission has done a wonderful work. In the thirty-two years previous to June, 1911, there was less work done by the Railroad Commission of the State of California than has been done by the present Railroad Commission in any one month of its existence. Probably during the thirty-two years of the existence of the Railroad Commission prior to 1911, approximately one hundred complaints were presented to that Commission, and in less than two years, to the new Commission, approximately two thousand complaints have been presented. The Commission has acted with such justice, fairness and ability, that it has won the respect and regard of nearly all of those whose interests have come within its jurisdiction. It is impossible even to recapitulate the accomplishment of this Commission. It has investigated express rates, readjusted railroad rates to accord with the long and short haul clause, reduced freight rates into and out of the San Joaquin Valley, between Los Angeles and San Pedro, Los Angeles and Imperial Valley, between Bakersfield and the oil fields, reduced Pullman seat fare between San Francisco and Los Angeles, reduced demurrage, restored lower telephone rates in one hundred and two towns, reduced many thousand passenger, freight and express rates upon informal complaints, improved train service, reduced rates on raisins and dried fruits from San Joaquin and from Sonoma and Mendocino counties, given all children the benefit of half fare on all street railways, previously extended only to school children; required the erection of new depots, examined and authorized stock and bond issues approximating thirty millions of dollars, and at last has become the arbiter between the people on the one hand and the great public service corporations upon the other, dealing justly with each, but with firmness insisting upon the performance of the duties of each.

It may be said that the Public Utilities Act of the State of California compares favorably with any similar act in the Union, and it may be said of this Commission, now as well as a Public Utilities Commission, that its record, as demonstrated by its accomplishments, is second to no similar commission in all this Nation. There are older commissions in some of the states, dealing with these subjects—commissions that in the past have been suggested as models—but to-day, throughout the United States, the Railroad Commission or Public Utilities Commission of the State of California is recognized as among the foremost, and in the amount of work and efficiency, I doubt if any compare with it. The object of one of the constitutional amendments adopted in 1911 by the people, was, as stated during the campaign, to maintain for the longest possible time the present attitude of the State toward the railroad and public service corporations, and to give ample opportunity for the demonstration of a system of regulation, of just, speedy and summary determination, where individuals were concerned on the one hand and great corporations on the other. When the amendment to the Constitution was submitted only a little over a year ago, it was thought doubtful if all that was contemplated as the work of the Railroad Commission could be so far advanced in the brief term of one executive as to have demonstrated to the people the efficacy of such a Commission, and its necessity for the protection of the people. Happily the personnel of the Commission has been such, its industry has been so indefatigable and its ability so pronounced, that in the very brief period that has elapsed the people probably already fully understand not only its value to them, but its absolute necessity.

I feel that I need not bespeak for this Commission your co-operation.

II.

BOARD OF CONTROL—CENTRALIZATION OF SUPERVISION.

Best results are obtained governmentally when the head held responsible is in closest touch with all that transpires. After a careful survey, it was determined at the last session of the Legislature that there should be some centralized authority in constant touch with the various institutions of the State and their business policy, and which should be one of the arms of the executive head of the State. Accordingly, was created the Board of Control. It was hoped that through this Board immediately at hand would be available all information concerning the business management of the various state institutions. The Board was designed to exercise a supervisory control and management over the fiscal affairs of public institutions and to install a uniform system for the management of the State's business. The Board of Control was duly appointed, and entered upon its duties. It has more than justified itself. In a brief period it has modernized and immensely improved the business management of all of the institutions. It has acquired an experience now invaluable to the State which will enable it to go forward with its duties in the future with even greater precision than in the past. It has enabled the government of the State to be in immediate touch with the business management of each particular institution. It has saved the State hundreds of thousands of dollars, has put in operation, where possible, uniform systems of accounts, and to-day the business of the State in its public institutions, for the first time in the history of the State, is being conducted on a business basis, exactly as would be desired by any private enterprise. When you recall that the accounts of our state hospitals had not been audited in fourteen years until the installation of the Board of Control, the laxity of former methods will be apparent. The accounts of all of these institutions have now been audited, a uniform system of accounting has been installed in four, and in the others will be at the earliest possible moment. It is no exaggeration to say that where there was one bidder for the State's business in the past, there are at least six times as many to-day. This has arisen through the efforts of the Board of Control and their success in making the business of the State the most desired and the most sought after, and by the elimination of all favoritism. There is now real competition in bidding upon the business of the State, and this competition has been brought about simply by pursuing business methods and granting to all equal opportunity. One of the evidences of the value of this sort of work is that in the state hospitals the cost of maintenance in the past year was decreased $150,000, notwithstanding that the cost of living is greater, and notwithstanding that better supplies are furnished and that the food supplies for the hospitals are fixed wholly by the State Medical Superintendent and the superintendents of the various state hospitals. The Pure Food and Drug Laboratory at the University of California is now the judge of the quality of foods submitted to the state institutions.

The textbook fund of the State was found mortgaged to favored contractors when the Board began investigating this subject. There was $14,000 in the State Textbook Fund and $70,000 of claims against it. The fund now has $162,000 and there are practically no bills against it, and, in addition, there are some $30,000 worth of finished books in the state warehouse. If the Board of Control had done nothing else than expose the shocking conditions existing at the State Printing Office by which the school children of the State were made to pay for a favoritism that had grown up under the old system, it would be entitled to the lasting gratitude of every citizen of California. The Board has fulfilled the function long needed and has fulfilled it well.

I commend to you such legislation as shall be suggested by this Board.

Just as the State's business methods have been modernized and improved, it has seemed that the same sort of supervision of administration might bring a like improvement there. If it were possible for the executive head of the State to have as one arm the Board of Control, with its supervisory power over the fiscal affairs of the various state institutions, and as the other arm a centralized body with an equal power over the administrative affairs of the various state institutions, there could never be any excuse for those things that sometimes occur under existing circumstances, no matter what may be the efforts of administrative heads. For instance, there are in California five insane asylums, Mendocino, Napa, Stockton, Agnews, and Patton, and one Home for the Feeble-Minded at Glen Ellen. These are governed by local boards, just as the reform schools and the normal schools are. The local boards in most instances are composed of men of unimpeachable character, who are engrossed in their own affairs, but who unselfishly devote what time they deem essential to the management of the affairs of the particular institution that they represent. It happens necessarily that these boards derive their information almost wholly from the various superintendents. The members have not the time, and cannot, because they serve without compensation, devote the time necessary completely to investigate everything pertaining to their institution. That these boards have rendered good service; that they will render good service in the future, and that they deserve all praise for their unselfishness and patriotism in doing a public work, without compensation, is, of course, conceded, but our experience with the Board of Control in fiscal management has convinced us that a similar board with like power in the administrative affairs of the state institutions could accomplish like results. Just as the Board of Control has supplied the deficiency existing in the business management of our institutions, just so could a centralized body, devoting itself exclusively to the work, supply any deficiencies that might exist in the administrative work of the institutions.

I would suggest to you that you consider the elimination of local boards and the creation in their place of one centralized body to be located at the city of Sacramento, which shall devote itself exclusively to the administrative care of state institutions, and which shall receive a fair compensation. The fiscal management of the various institutions should be with the Board of Control; the management otherwise, with the central authority suggested. Both of these bodies thus would be arms of the government, enabling that close touch in every respect with the state institutions essential to obtain economical management and the highest degree of efficiency.

Under the constitutional amendment providing for free textbooks adopted at the last general election, it will be necessary for you to remodel the State Board of Education. In framing the new law, if you saw fit, the idea of centralized authority could be carried into successful execution so far as the normal schools of the State are concerned.

The suggestion has been made, too, that the same rule apply in all health conservation matters, and Dr. W. F. Snow, the very efficient Secretary of the State Board of Health, has been working upon a plan of consolidation. I am not prepared to present this matter in detail, but will reserve it for a future occasion if deemed essential.

III.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT BOARD.

The policy adopted by the State two years ago that the burden of accident should not fall wholly upon him who is least able to bear it, but should be wisely distributed, has come now to be the policy in many states of the Union, and the Federal Government itself. Neither the desirability nor the righteousness of this policy is longer questioned, and while, in specific instances, it is difficult thoroughly to work out the purpose and design of such acts, they are now accepted by every modern and humane state.

One of the chief difficulties that has arisen in California has been because of the rapacity of insurance companies. The rates of insurance seem to have been extortionate, and in many instances, prohibitive. In this sort of greed, however, insurance companies have over-reached themselves because, if we are to continue the policy that we have adopted in respect to industrial accidents, it will be necessary for the State itself to provide the necessary insurance. The Industrial Accident Board reports to me that the Washington scheme of insurance is not approved by them, but that they do approve the creation of a state insurance fund, in order that the State may furnish insurance to those who desire it for their protection. I strongly urge upon you, if the industrial accident law is to continue to be a part of the policy of the State of California, that you take the necessary means for providing for a state insurance fund.

Complaints have been numerous in relation to the law, and mainly from one source—the farmers. It has been argued by the farmers that they ought not to be within the purview of the law because, first, the very nature of their work renders it impossible for them to discriminate in employing individuals, and the very nature of those who engage in their work renders discrimination impossible. Farmers think, therefore, inasmuch as they must have labor at a particular time, hastily, that they should not be subject to liability for accident; and again they insist that they cannot distribute the cost of protection, insurance, etc., in their business, because they do not, and can not fix the price of their commodities, the price being fixed in other markets and, therefore, that the theory by which the burden of the accident shall be cast upon the business and ultimately upon the community is untenable as applied to them. I find, however, that this latter argument may be made in favor of some other business as well. Thoroughly do we believe in the policy of this law, and rather than sacrifice that policy, we would be willing to eliminate the farmers from its provisions. Nevertheless, I cannot but believe that this elimination will be a step backward, and particularly do I think this will be so if the State furnishes cheap insurance.

IV.

CONSERVATION COMMISSION.

The Conservation and the Water Power commissions have practically concluded their work, and have presented a most valuable report of their investigations within the past two years. Their recommendations are embodied in certain bills which will be presented to you. The data which has been supplied to the State by the conservation commissions will be of great and lasting value. The bill relating to water and water power presented by the conservation commissions is a measure of very great importance concerning which, in the future, if deemed advisable, I shall again communicate with you.

V.

IMMIGRATION COMMISSION.

With the opening of the Panama Canal, now so near at hand, new problems will confront us. If the expectations of the transportation companies and of those familiar with the subject are realized, much of the immigration which now wholly finds itself upon the Atlantic shore will be distributed to the Pacific coast, and there will be brought to the State of California an extraordinary increase in population, presenting new and difficult questions. It has ever been the boast of our State that we have not within it any real, pressing want. We have never had the awful problems presented to us that the congested centers of the East have there presented. A wise forethought would endeavor to prevent such conditions in the West, and the experience of to-day of the congested centers of the East should be sufficient warning to all who are charged with the duty of providing for the future. With those of us who have dealt at all with the subject, our hope and our dream are that we may prevent in California the human congestion that has occurred in the populous centers of the East, and that by the adoption of those measures which experience and wisdom shall dictate, we may be relieved of the dread and the misery of the problem of the East. Accordingly, in August of this year, I appointed what we termed an Immigration Commission, composed of members who had had experience with the subject and who had devoted many years of thought to the solution. This Commission, of course, serves wholly gratuitously, and has presented certain bills as a result of its labors. If we can distribute our immigration, and if we can, forewarned, prevent the congestion within our State, of a population which seems certain to come to us within the next few years, and if we can forbid that problem which is ever increasing in intensity with our eastern brethren, we will have accomplished a great and lasting benefit for California.

VI.

FREE TEXTBOOKS.

The people adopted a constitutional amendment providing for free textbooks at the last general election. I am advised that we may put the scheme in operation by the appropriation of $300,000. We are enabled to do this because of the investigations of the Board of Control, and the revolutionizing of the methods that have been in vogue in the State Printing Office. As has been suggested elsewhere, because of the efficient business management of the State Printing Office to-day the Textbook Fund has on hand about $162,000, and there are $30,000 worth of finished books in the State warehouse. It is because of this extra sum on hand that we may put into operation, at the figure we have named, the new constitutional amendment. Legislative action, however, is necessary, and this legislative action should look to economy in the matter of school books. The books should not become the property of the pupil, but should be, of course, returned at the conclusion of their use, for future use, if necessary. If this can be impressed sufficiently upon school managers, teachers and pupils, the cost of furnishing free textbooks ought to decrease yearly until it will be an inconsiderable figure in our biennial appropriations.

VII.

RIVER FLOOD CONTROL.

No matter is of more immediate importance to California than flood control of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers. Of the two the Sacramento presents the greater problem and the graver menace. Its sources and tributaries, if in flood together, pour into the river a quantity of water six times as great as the channel's extreme capacity.

The San Joaquin has its own problems, but has vital concern as well in the control of the Sacramento, first, because the present narrow mouth of the Sacramento prevents discharge of the floods of the San Joaquin; second, because any break in the east levees of the Sacramento, below Sacramento city, pours the water in a southeasterly direction across the San Joaquin River and over the richest portion of San Joaquin County.

North of the San Joaquin River and below the present flood plane of the Sacramento are 1,000,000 acres of rich land, a large portion of it reclaimed, the cities of Sacramento and Marysville, and many small communities. The old system of independent reclamation in small units had steadily raised the flood plane, so that, a year ago, it was evident that further leveeing on this system could not insure permanent safety, but must result in enormous waste of money with temporary safety for a few at the expense of destruction of many.

Included in the call for the special legislative session of 1911, was this subject, and as a result, an act was passed adopting, on behalf of the State, the plan of flood control recommended by the California Débris Commission and approved by the War Department, and creating a State Reclamation Board with authority to force private reclamation along the Sacramento River and in the basins adjacent thereto to conform to the general plan. The San Joaquin was not placed under jurisdiction of the Board because there was at the time neither report from the Federal Engineers nor survey upon which a plan for that river could be formulated. Surveys for the purpose are now being made.

The flood control plan provides for retaining within the river channel all waters up to a fixed plane, so that scouring will result in increased capacity and improved navigation; for carrying flood waters over weirs and by by-passes through the Sutter and Yolo basins to tide water; for enlarging the mouth of the river from Rio Vista to Collinsville; and for incidental levee building and stream dredging. The estimated cost is $33,000,000.

The result of this legislative action and of the policy adopted by the Reclamation Board has been surprisingly gratifying. Private capital, when it realized that State and Federal authorities were harmoniously coöperating, and with authority to enforce compliance with a comprehensive and safe flood control plan, showed an eagerness to undertake, at its own expense, much of the levee and by-pass work included within the Government's estimates.

I call your attention to the report of the Reclamation Board, and to its request for appropriation.

VIII.

BLUE SKY LAW.

Hon. Max Thelen, one of the members of the Railroad Commission, recently investigated the Blue Sky law of Kansas, and the efforts being made in various states for similar enactments. His report has been filed with the Railroad Commission in which he says:

"The Blue Sky law of Kansas is a law designed to put out of business in Kansas, the promoters whose promises were as limitless as the blue sky. Under this law, with certain exceptions, no corporation may sell stocks, bonds or other securities in Kansas without having first secured a certificate stating that the provisions of the law have been complied with and granting permission to do business in the State."

The object of the law, of course, is to prevent wild-catting, and to protect the gullible part of our public from investing in those stocks or bonds which have no real foundation, but which hold out to the investor the hope of impossible returns. In conversation with Governor Stubbs of Kansas not long since, he stated that the law had been of inestimable value to his state and had saved many hundreds of thousands of dollars, and had saved it, too, to those who most needed the saving. I recommend to you a similar law for California, the administration of which, however, shall be placed under the Railroad Commission.

IX.

BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS.

This Bureau was established in 1883, but, until a recent date, was of little or no service. It is now in reality a bureau for labor. Working men and working women seek and obtain now advice and assistance there. The laws relating to children and to women, and to conditions surrounding toilers generally, are rigidly enforced. Those without funds to pay can obtain, through this Bureau, the wages due them, and the wage collection agencies have been practically driven out of existence by the Bureau. The Bureau, during the past year, has compelled the payment of sums from sixty cents to three hundred dollars, in the aggregate, $25,000. It has compelled employment agencies to refund in the aggregate $1,500 to those who were treated unjustly by such agencies. The child labor laws have received the strictest attention, and children have been practically eliminated from the factory, workshop and store, and school attendance, as a consequence, increased. During the past year more than thirty-three thousand complaints were filed with the Bureau, investigated and acted upon.

Some agitation has been indulged in in relation to a State Employment Bureau. If you should establish such a Bureau, it should be, in my opinion, under the jurisdiction of the Labor Commission.

X.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.

The Legislature of 1911 provided for the appointment of three additional members of the Advisory Board, for the purpose of expending the eighteen millions of dollars voted for good roads in this State. So far as was possible these three additional members were constituted a Highway Commission, and they have had practically the sole charge of the construction of roads under the bond issue. The task, of course, is a very great one, and so extraordinary care was taken in the selection of the members of the Commission and of the Engineer. An organization, perhaps the most efficient ever created in this State by public or private enterprise, has been formed by the Highway Commission, and is actively engaged in the present work. The experts who examined this organization stated that it was the most efficient organization, with less overhead cost, of any organization they had ever before examined. The first duty of the Highway Commission, of course, was to determine the exact routes of the proposed new roads. This rendered innumerable hearings necessary, and occasionally a determination, as between particular localities. Decisions in particular instances were made after the most careful investigations and consideration and the exercise of the most conscientious judgment. With these decisions, of course, the Advisory Board, of which the Governor is the chairman, has not interfered. Appeals in some instances have been made, and some of the appeals have been quite persuasive, but in order that the highest degree of efficiency should be maintained, I have been compelled to adhere to the almost inflexible rule, that where commissions composed of men of high repute, in matters within their jurisdiction, after careful deliberation, have reached a conclusion, that conclusion should be final, and should not be interfered with by the Executive of the State, save in the most exceptional cases. Any other course would destroy the independence and initiative of Commissioners and would be substituting the judgment of the Executive for that of the Commissioners. The highest interests of the State have required that I should acquiesce, even though I should not hold the same view, in the determination of any commission entrusted with a specific duty who in the solution of that duty give painstaking and conscientious care and judgment. The Commissioners have proceeded therefore in the selection of routes and in the determination of matters relating to our highways, and have surveyed more than one thousand miles of road. They have let contracts for about one hundred and forty-eight miles in thirteen different counties, of various types of construction, and they are proceeding with their work in a manner which I think is satisfactory and highly commendable.

There is no provision in the particular act for the maintenance of the roads that shall be constructed, and, of course, maintenance of these roads in good repair is quite as important as the original building. The Highway Commission hopes to obtain a revenue sufficient to maintain the roads of the State from a Motor Vehicle Act. With the policy of thus obtaining the requisite funds, I am in accord. The particular act has not been submitted, and therefore I do not recommend it as to detail.

REVENUE AND TAXATION.

One of the grave problems that confronts us concerns the revenue of the State. In 1910, section 14 of article XIII of the Constitution was amended by the people and a new tax scheme separating state and local taxation was adopted. Whatever opinion we may have held respecting this particular amendment when once it was adopted by the people, it was entitled, and is yet entitled, to the most earnest endeavor of all the officials of the State to render it successful. Two years ago, because of the uncertainty concerning the amount of revenue which might be forthcoming under the amendment, the various branches of the state government practiced the most rigid economy. The special appropriations of the last Legislature, notwithstanding the marvelous increase in the needs of the State, were kept below the special appropriations of the Legislature immediately preceding and the increase in general appropriations was of a percentage less than had occurred in any biennial period for many years.

As illustrative of the economy practiced by the last Legislature, the following table of increase in percentages of appropriations is instructive:

Increase 1903 over 1901-----	18.42 per cent
Increase 1905 over 1903-----	32.53 per cent
Increase 1907 over 1905-----	13.90 per cent
Increase 1909 over 1907-----	18.12 per cent
Increase 1911 over 1909-----	8.28 per cent

During the past two years the percentage of increase in our public institutions has been infinitely greater than during any other biennial period. For instance, the increase in the number of insane in our hospitals was over 15 per cent; the increase in the number of pupils in our normal schools was over 30 per cent; and with these increases so great in percentage, the State has been maintained and its various departments operated with an increase of but 8.28 per cent in appropriations. Economy has probably been stretched to the limit in the past two years in the management of our public institutions, as these figures demonstrate. To attempt economy beyond this will mean that sort of parsimoniousness that can only result disastrously.

When the Legislature met in special session in December, 1911, the importunities were many to include generally in the call the subject of taxation. The friends and advocates of the new system, however, insisted that sufficient time had not elapsed to determine with certainty the results to be attained under the new system of taxation and they expressed their entire confidence that the new constitutional amendment would, if given a fair trial, realize an ever increasing revenue commensurate with the increasing needs of the State. At the time of the passage of the amendment, the arguments advanced by its advocates and by the representatives of the various public service corporations in its behalf were alluring and persuasive; and generally our people understood that the revenue required for the State would be produced wholly by the corporations.

The facts at this time appear to be:

1. That the new tax system will not provide, for the years 1913 and 1914, the revenue essential for the maintenance of the state government.

2. That small corporations are paying a greater proportion of the taxes than they should and larger corporations are paying a smaller proportion of the taxes than they should.

3. That the small householder proportionately is paying a greater amount of taxes than the great public service corporation.

I call your attention to the report of Controller Nye in which he estimates the excess of expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, at $630,000, and the deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, to be $1,101,000. These estimates, in my opinion, are much less than the true amounts will be found to be for the periods mentioned. They are made with a confidence in the future revenue-producing possibilities of the new method of taxation possessed now by but few; and they are based upon estimates of the necessary expenses of the State which are far below what those necessary expenses should be. It is possible that, as in 1911, this Legislature may keep the appropriations of the State at an extremely low figure, even as low as the Controller estimates those expenditures in his report, but to maintain the expenditures at such an amount will probably be done at the expense of the progress and advancement of the State, and to the detriment of those the duty of caring for whom devolves upon the State.

I take it, of course, that if it can be shown to the Legislature that the small householder is paying a larger percentage of taxes proportionately than the public service corporations, there will be no hesitancy in doing what may be just in the premises. If due investigation shall convince you that many of the public service corporations under the new system are not paying their just proportion of taxes, it will follow, of course, that the rates charged these corporations should be increased. Investigations of the justice or injustice of the present rates are now being conducted by the State Board of Equalization. These investigations, the Controller informs me, will, within a few days, be concluded, and will then, at once, be transmitted to you.

The question has arisen whether a legislative act increasing taxes can take effect at once or must await the period prescribed by the referendum requirements. This matter I have submitted to the Attorney General of the State, and he holds that an act increasing the rates would come within the exceptions stated in the referendum constitutional provision and could take effect at once. The concluding portion of the Attorney General's opinion is as follows:

"For the foregoing reasons I am of the opinion that any act passed by the coming session of the Legislature changing, in accordance with their authority, the percentages designated in section 14 of article XIII of the Constitution would not be subject to the referendum clause of section 1 of article IV of said Constitution, but could be made effective the day of its adoption."

It is suggested to you, therefore, that you begin at once your investigations respecting the rates of taxation now fixed, and if, after due investigation, you find the situation to be as indicated herein, forthwith the rates now fixed be increased so that the corporations of the State will be required to pay their just share of taxes.

I have carefully refrained from suggesting any particular increase in rates or from even giving you the opinion we may have as to the increase in rates which should immediately be made. The reason I do not make to you a distinct recommendation of increase, specifically indicating the corporations and the amount of increase applicable to each, is because the Attorney General advises me that it is your duty to fix these rates only after due investigation and deliberation and has suggested that increases in rates should be left to your adjudication without specific recommendation by me.

CORPORATION LICENSE TAX.

The recent decision of the Supreme Court of our State in Mulford vs. Curry very seriously interferes with the revenue heretofore derived from the corporation license tax by the State. The point involved in the particular case was whether or not as to foreign corporations the exaction of the corporation license tax was constitutional. The decision, however, apparently goes very much beyond the one point that seems involved in the particular action. The court, doubtless, felt constrained to hold under recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court, that our law in the instance referred to was unconstitutional. Contemporaneously with this decision the Supreme Court of Massachusetts in a similar case took the contrary view. The matter, however, presents itself from two angles: first, the necessity for the reformation of a law declared by our highest court invalid; and, secondly, and, from the more serious point, of the impairment of the revenue of the State.

I invite your attention to this particular subject in the hope that in some fashion, just to all, the amount denied to us by the decision may be supplied.

INHERITANCE TAX.

The Controller strongly presents the difficulties encountered in the administration of the law relating to the tax upon inheritances. He concludes his report on this subject thus:

"And finally, it cannot be emphasized too strongly, that the real problem of inheritance tax laws is one of administration and not one of rates. Until the administration is made so efficient that the taxes legally due can be collected, to increase the rates would tend to reduce the revenues rather than increase them."

I suggest such legislation as will remedy the faults of administration suggested by the Controller, but I suggest in addition that the rates be increased in such proportion as you may determine to be just. The present tax has not been found to be onerous and it has fallen not upon the heavy laden and those least able to bear taxation, but upon those who can bear it without injury or real loss.

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

It is not my purpose under the head of "State Institutions" to present to you statistics. These I find ably reported by the State Board of Charities and Corrections, by the Controller and by the various institutions and commissions, themselves. It is my purpose under this caption briefly to make to you a few recommendations that the experience of the past two years has suggested.

INSANE ASYLUMS.

Patton.—The marvelous growth of the southern part of our State has led to the overcrowding of the only insane asylum situated there. South of Tehachapi one third of the population of California resides, and practically all of the insane committed from that territory are sent to the hospital at Patton in San Bernardino County. In the other two thirds of the State, there are four hospitals for the insane, and one for the feeble-minded. The conditions that now exist at Patton have taxed to the utmost the resourcefulness and the ability of the management there and I cannot commend too highly those at present in charge of the Patton hospital for their efforts, and successful efforts under very adverse circumstances. The patients at Patton sleep in the corridors and hallways and in places where it was never designed they should sleep. New quarters must be provided in the south, and I think the only rational thing to do is to erect a new state hospital at some point climatically appropriate. It is suggested in various reports submitted to me that this hospital be under the existing management at Patton, at least for the first few years, and I think the suggestion excellent. At any rate, the means must be provided for housing the insane of southern California and should at once be provided. I ask your earnest attention to this subject and your immediate action. All the authorities agree that the state hospital should never have been located at Patton; that it is not the site for an institution of this character; and in the interest of the wards of the State I would suggest to you that the site of a new institution—if one shall be erected—shall be in some other locality in the southern part of the State.

Napa.—This asylum is also overcrowded, and the congestion must be relieved. I find upon investigation, too, that the attendants in these insane asylums are too few, fewer than in most other states of the Union. The medical staff also is not sufficient in number. To a layman it seems utterly impossible that physicians can give anything like adequate attention where each physician has under his control several hundred insane. Napa was found at the first attempted investigation to be in shocking condition. The superintendent resigned and the Board of Managers selected a new superintendent. Conditions at Napa have improved, and greatly improved, but they are by no means to-day all that we would wish them to be. The managers are doing all in their power in this behalf, and it is confidently expected that within a very brief period Napa will have reached the condition toward which we are striving with all our public institutions. More attendants and more physicians are required at both Napa and Patton.

Of the other state hospitals, Stockton is full to its capacity, but these other three hospitals, we think, are in excellent condition. Of course, where buildings, such as some of those at Stockton, were constructed more than forty years ago, it is obvious that such do not enable the accommodations to be wholly modern, but notwithstanding drawbacks arising from sources of this character, we may feel that these hospitals are rendering efficient service. Stockton requires and should have additional attendants and physicians.

Generally, concerning the insane asylums of the State, I quote Dr. F. W. Hatch, who for many years past has been the State Superintendent of Hospitals:

"During the biennial period ending this year, radical changes have been made in the business methods through the policy of the State Board of Control, that tend to a considerable reduction in the cost of maintaining the hospitals without in any way hampering their usefulness. More supplies are bought by contract and much more competition obtained in the purchase of non-contract supplies. The actual average per capita cost of the six state hospitals has been reduced from $206.57 in the sixty-second fiscal year to $187.57 in the sixty-third fiscal year."

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

I quote to you from the report made to me by the Superintendent of Banks, October 31, 1912:

"It is the more gratifying to me to report this state of affairs particularly in view of the burden of responsibility which fell to this department to break down the system of special privilege and dangerous discrimination which had fastened itself upon the State Banking Department of California to the destruction of right administration and of sound supervision. It is my prerogative to inform you that special privilege extended by the State Banking Department to favored banking institutions in California is dead.

"The evils of it have not yet fully disappeared. The manifestations of it are still apparent in violations of law which in some instances have resisted every suggested cure except that of drastic action which I regret to say I have in some cases been forced to take. While the root of special privilege has been destroyed the result of its growth has demanded from this Department an unremitting vigilance and an uncompromising insistence that the law must be obeyed."

At various times complaints have been made to me concerning rulings made by the Superintendent of Banks, but in every instance where investigation has been made, that his ruling has been in accordance with the law, has not been questioned. Of course, it is apparent that if a drastic law like the Bank Act be vigilantly and vigorously enforced, constant difficulties may arise, but the Superintendent of Banks has taken the position that what the law demands must be done and that he is without power and without right to relax the law as it has been adopted by the Legislature of the State. The banking department is for two purposes, one of which by some of our banker friends is overlooked. It is for the purpose of aiding banks themselves and it is beyond that for the purpose of protecting depositors and the public at large. A banking department that would be administered only as certain bankers might desire, would be of little value to the State, and an efficient administration of a banking department must insist upon bankers obeying all the laws just as others are required to obey all the laws. I am prepared to admit that there are certain parts of the Bank Act which are onerous and which perhaps may be modified or repealed, but so long as those provisions remain, just so long it is the duty of the Superintendent of Banks to enforce them, however distasteful the enforcement may be to those immediately interested. The Bank Act, however, requires many amendments, some of which will be submitted to you by the Superintendent of Banks and some by the legislative committee of the Bankers' Association. But let me repeat, if there is irritation or hostility by bankers because of the enforcement of the law, the law itself must be changed, not the attitude of the Superintendent of Banks toward that law. It is all well enough to talk as some bankers have talked to me about elasticity of provisions, and about relaxing certain requirements and about forgetting other provisions, but to relax or forget for one set of bankers and to enforce for another, is a system which cannot be tolerated. Beyond all that, it is assumed that the law is designed for the protection of the public at large and, of course, relaxation or forgetfulness of any part of such law is an offense against the public at large.

I commend to you the amendments of the act which have been submitted and prepared by the Superintendent of Banks.

STATE PRISONS—REFORM SCHOOLS.

We have two state prisons and two reform schools. The two reform schools in the past have been kindergartens for the penitentiaries. It has happened too often that the inmate of the reform school has graduated from that institution only to finish in one of our state prisons. Fundamentally, it seemed to me, the management of these reform schools was erroneous, and that if they could serve no other purpose than to educate young men into crime, and to graduate them ultimately into the state prison, they ought to be abolished. The theory on which reform schools was conducted in the past was that the children in those schools should be governed by fear and by force. The utter inutility of this method I believed to have been demonstrated, and it was resolved, therefore, that we would make an effort in a different direction with our erring young, and by treatment of these children as children, by eliminating as far as possible force and violence and fear, by teaching initiative and independence, and generally by regarding the inmates of these schools as human beings, not unlike the rest of us, they might be reclaimed and made useful members of society. In Ione and Preston, therefore, we have started upon the latter course, and there is every indication that the results desired will be attained. A recent inspection of Whittier showed the utter lack of facilities at that school and these facilities should measurably be provided if we expect good results. In the past two classes of children have been sent to our reform schools: delinquents and dependents. Dependents are those who have no home. Delinquents embrace the bad, the vicious, the incorrigible. The infamy of sending a child merely because orphaned to a reform school for continuous association with those actually convicted of crime is too obvious to require comment. Legislative action should render impossible the continuance of this wrong.

Within the past couple of years, there has been a nation wide awakening and agitation concerning those convicted of crime and conditions of prisons. As often happens with such an agitation, sometimes extremes are advocated, and the difficult problem in prison management now is to avoid the brutality of former years and the harsh treatment accorded in the past, and the mawkish sentimentality which would raze all prison walls. That men in prison should be humanely treated, that they should be afforded activity for hand and brain alike, that consistent with safety and discipline they should be given as much latitude as possible, and that honest effort should be made to fit them, after the period of expiation, for citizenship, will now readily be conceded, and it is with this effort that the administration, at least, has endeavored to act. That our prison conditions are infinitely better than at any time within the history of the State of California, can not be denied. Better quarters are being provided, segregation into classes is being attempted, and trades are sought to be taught. The parole laws are administered with a liberality far exceeding that of the past, and within the recent year there have been fifty per cent more paroles granted than ever before in a like period. In San Quentin, at present, clothing and shoes and furniture, and matting, hats and caps and similar articles are being manufactured, and while the quoted statement contained in the commencement of this message that the prisons are self-supporting is erroneous, profit from the manufacture of these articles has been quite considerable. No appropriation for maintenance beyond salaries at San Quentin is this year asked. This does not arise solely, however, from the institutional manufacturing. The profits of the manufacturing department have aggregated about $35,000, but this, it is expected, will be largely increased as the organization of the department is perfected. I desire that a similar manufacturing department be established at Folsom, and I ask that the request of the warden at Folsom, in this respect, be granted. The design of these manufacturing plants is not alone to make money for the prisons and the State and to render these prisons ultimately self-supporting, but, more important still, to give employment to the men confined and to enable them to learn useful trades which, if they desire, will furnish them employment upon their discharge.

UNIVERSITY.

The modern idea of a state university is that not only should it be the avenue of higher education and afford, academically, every facility for the acquirement of knowledge, but that it should also be a useful part of the state government and in such close touch with the people of the State that all problems of every character may be carried to it for solution.

We may be justly proud of the academic prominence of the University of California. It has attained an eminence that entitles it to-day to be ranked among the great institutions of our Nation. In enrollment it is the second college in the land, being exceeded in the number enrolled by Columbia alone. Its situation is ideal, the standard of its work equal to any, and I feel that too great praise cannot be accorded to those who have brought it to its present high academic efficiency.

I wish it, however, to serve the other purpose as well; to be in touch with the agricultural and horticultural and viticultural interests of the State; to be the Mecca of every man who wishes to know how best to treat or till the soil; to be as useful to our people who have been without academic advantages as it is to those who seek academic advantages. It should be possible upon any technical subject, governmental or otherwise, for us at once to turn to the University and there find collated all the information upon that particular subject. It should contain experts of such standing that those who wish knowledge or instruction in any particular avocation may turn there with the certainty of finding what is sought. It should be in such close and intimate touch with our soil that it should teach those who are upon the soil the best methods of treating the soil, what would be the most prolific and productive and what of greatest advantage.

We endeavored in some small measure to attain this end by the agricultural college at Davis, and recently as dean of the agricultural department a gentleman of national reputation was appointed. We wish the agricultural department of the State University to be really a department of agriculture, to be a college of farming, and to lend that aid, assistance, encouragement and enlightenment which may bring the best results.

This department of the University is of quite as vital importance as any other department, and we are striving now to bring it to the highest degree of progress and efficiency. Increased appropriations are asked for this department, and these increased appropriations, in the main, I heartily commend. It is unnecessary to dwell upon the source of our greatest wealth—our soil—to point out to you the extraordinary importance of our horticultural, viticultural, and agricultural interests. And just as in the proportion that these are important to us, in just that proportion should the agricultural department, in dealing with them, be to our University.

The University should be the investigating arm of the government of the State. Problems constantly are arising which require for their solution immediate action and information, and which can not be solved with the rapidity and facility desired because we can turn to no place in the State for appropriate information. In the last two years we have embarked upon different and new economic policies, some of which have been attempted in other localities and some of which are not new in foreign nations. In these matters it would have been of inestimable service to the government could we have turned to some particular agency and obtained at once the requisite data. It is just this purpose that the University should serve.

Beyond this, the University should afford the best training for citizenship in the right direction. The fundamental ideas of humanity, of decency in government, of the necessity for keeping government responsive alone to the people, and of absolute opposition and hostility ever to the cajolery and bribery of public officials, should be instilled into our future citizens who soon in turn must take up the burden and perpetuate this nation.

The University has done a great work. It has before it even a greater future. With your aid, it should and will become the leader, academically, in applying scientifically to daily pursuits whatever is of use and advantage, and in the free discussion and thought so essential to a government such as ours.

STATE HARBOR COMMISSION.

In no part of the government of the State did the old system make itself so manifest as at the harbor front at San Francisco, and, as illustrative of the conditions formerly existing there, I quote from a recent report of the Harbor Board:

"Nowhere in the administrative branch of the state government was the malign influence of that dominating corporation more conspicuously illustrated than in the condition and management of the San Francisco harbor. For over forty years, with infrequent intervals, not long enough to effect much of a reform, the Southern Pacific practically owned and operated the water front, and used it as a private piece of business property for the advancement of its own political and business interests.

"The evils of such a monopoly could not be set out in the limits at our command, though few things could be of more vital interest to the material advancement of the people of the State than a full knowledge and appreciation of the blighting effect of the control of the harbor and commerce of San Francisco Bay, which is the greatest single asset owned or possessed by the State of California, by a gigantic railroad system, which had a direct interest in the cramping and dwarfing of harbor development."

The present Harbor Commission, adopting the policy which has been that of the State during the past two years, has managed and operated the harbor of San Francisco without regard to special interests, but for all the people, and for the entire State of California. The harbor of San Francisco is self-supporting. The Harbor Commission, and the work done under it, represent not only shippers in the city of San Francisco and vicinity, but represent the entire State, and particularly the great valleys of the State, which bring into the city of San Francisco, and over the wharves that are owned by the State of California, a tonnage annually of millions of dollars.

The present Board of Harbor Commissioners admittedly is the most efficient that has ever administered the affairs of the harbor. Its work has been undertaken upon a greater scale than ever before, because it is making the effort in two years to provide for the opening of the Panama Canal, and the contingencies that will then confront it. This work should have been in contemplation many years in the past, and should not have been left until the last moment for its completion. The work upon the piers and wharves and seawalls in San Francisco at the present time is of the most modern scientific type, and a greater amount of that work is progressing than ever before. The poor type of construction of the past, and the work of destructive parasites, have rendered necessary repairs to a greater portion of the piers heretofore constructed. In another part of this message, the incident was referred to that the rates charged to tenants upon the State's property, prior to the administration of the present Harbor Board, were really fixed by the Southern Pacific Company, the chief tenant of the State. When the present Harbor Board assumed control it believed that the rentals paid were insufficient, but in order to determine justly what these rentals should be, it appointed a commission of three well known real estate men of San Francisco to value the properties, and from the values to fix fair rentals. This commission reported, the report was adopted. The result was an increase in rentals from the transportation companies amounting to $137,500 per annum. At the same time, charges against shippers were reduced ten per cent. Naturally those whose rentals were increased, and those who have dealt in the past with this wondrous asset of the State for private gain, do not look with favor upon a management of the harbor for all the people of all the State.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.

The National Guard has been during the past two years vastly improved. The Guard now consists of 4,188 officers and men trained and disciplined. During the past two years the personnel of the Guard has been increased by 50 officers and 727 men. Target ranges have been constructed and equipped for over 45 additional organizations, giving small arms ranges for the entire Guard using the rifle and revolver. Ten camps of instruction and joint exercises and maneuvers with the Regular Army have been held for officers and men. Officers have been sent to Fort Riley, Kansas, and Sparta, Wisconsin, three times to technical service schools of instruction, and other officers have been sent to the Mexican border with the Regular Army and to the Government School of Musketry at Monterey. Regular Army officers have been detailed with the land forces as instructors and have conducted, and are still conducting, schools of instruction. An officer has been detailed as instructor for the Naval Militia and the recent maneuvers of the militia in conjunction with the Regular Army called forth the highest encomiums from the officials of the Federal army.

STATE PRINTING OFFICE.

The revolution in the methods of the State Printing Office has been of such recent date that doubtless all are familiar with changed conditions there. The Superintendent of State Printing has finally demonstrated that a printing office in behalf of the State may be conducted with the same economy and efficiency as a private institution of like character. For so many years the management of this office has been marked with extravagances, and sometimes even worse, that the belief became general that the State could not successfully manage and operate its printing plant. The error of this is now shown. The decrease in cost of materials, because of fair competitive bidding, the installation of a modern cost-finding system and the increased efficiency have reduced the cost of text-books to the pupils of the State 42 per cent.

FISH AND GAME COMMISSION.

The Fish and Game Commission are deserving of credit for their activity and because they have interested vast numbers of citizens of the State who have, in the past, been indifferent, in the preservation of fish and game. The Commission have conducted scientific researches under various professors that it is hoped will be of lasting benefit. The hatchery work made the record in its existence during 1912. Reference is made to the biennial report of the Commission.

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT.

The stupendous work of the Engineering Department is little understood. When it is considered that the appropriations for construction run into the millions, and that this construction is under the management of the Engineering Department, some small idea of the Department's work may be had. The work is not confined to mere construction of buildings, but to roads, to river work and flood control problems, irrigation districts, supervision of dams, surveys, etc. The work of the Department was found to be, when the present State Engineer assumed his office, far in arrears, but by constant activity and energetic endeavor on the part of the present official, the Department is now promptly attending to the work entrusted to it.

The Department has grown so rapidly that the quarters formerly assigned to it in the Capitol are wholly inadequate. Appropriate and sufficient offices should be provided.

SUPERINTENDENT OF CAPITOL BUILDING AND GROUNDS.

The old method by which Capitol Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, the Secretary of State, and the State Treasurer, through various employees, an equal number being appointed by each, endeavored to maintain the capitol building and grounds, was thought to put a premium on inefficiency. Your predecessors, therefore, were asked to enact the law which is now in effect, providing for a superintendent of the capitol and grounds who should himself select the employees to do the necessary work and who should alone be responsible for the condition of the building and the surrounding land. The wisdom of this course has been amply shown in the improved service in the building and the immensely improved condition of the beautiful park that surrounds our capitol. The present Superintendent has proven himself in every respect qualified; and the new departure by which his office was created and the old commission abolished, like all of the measures designed for efficiency, has amply justified itself.

STATE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

It has been assumed that this Legislature would deal with the formation of the State Board of Medical Examiners and probably remodel the present law. Because of that assumption I have not thus far attempted any changes in the Board itself. I should have done so, but I desired to await your action, and if in your wisdom you do not see fit to act, I shall, in the matter of appointments which it is my province to make, undertake the remodeling of the Board.

In this connection there is one suggestion that has been frequently made. Our State peculiarly attracts those who have acquired competencies in other states and among many who come to us, after a life of successful effort, are practicing physicians. It has come under my observation that some of these physicians have successfully practiced their profession for many years in neighboring states, and yet, though they are gentlemen of repute, when they enter this State, in order to practice, they are compelled to pass entrance examinations. These examinations it is represented to me are like the ordinary entrance examinations that are propounded to students. The average lawyer who has successfully practiced his profession for twenty years, would have great difficulty in passing the entrance examinations to the bar, and I take it that the position of physicians is not dissimilar. It seems wholly unjust that a successful practitioner in another state, who is of good repute and standing, but who desires to come to us because of the greater advantages, climatically and otherwise, offered by California, shall be precluded from practicing his profession, except upon passing the medical examinations propounded to students within our State. The injustice should in some fashion be remedied.

REFORMATORY FOR FIRST OFFENDERS.

Under the act of the Legislature passed in 1911, a commission was appointed to obtain a site for a reformatory for first offenders. This commission has obtained and purchased for the State a tract of land in Napa County, and in the purchase unquestionably the State has been most fortunate. The commission desires the work commenced upon the reformatory at the earliest possible moment. The citizens of the Napa Valley, however, have been most strongly protesting against the location of this institution in their midst, and I feel it my duty to transmit to you this protest. I notify you of the fact of the purchase of the tract, and of the expenditure of the appropriation made in 1911 for that purpose. Of course, to construct the reformatory the requisite additional appropriation must be made.

STATE HORTICULTURAL COMMISSION.

There is nothing of greater importance than our horticultural interests. It has recently been stated that in our citrus industries alone $175,000,000 are invested and its annual production is around $40,000,000. A vast territory is still available for its expansion and its possibilities are unlimited. The enormous value of our horticultural interests cannot be overestimated, and the problems in connection with them are serious and require an unrelaxing vigilance. Great power in the State has been conferred upon the Horticultural Commissioner in the matter of quarantines and the like, and this power has been exercised during the past year by the present Commissioner whenever he deemed it essential. The ravages of any of the pests that now scientifically are known, if admitted within our borders, might take from us this wonderful industry of which we are so proud, and which is fundamentally one of the chief sources of our wealth. The Horticultural Commissioner has been unremitting in his activity and for this department, one of the most important in the State, I ask the consideration that its importance demands.

There are other departments of the state government concerning which much might be written. It is impossible within the limits of any one message to treat adequately all the branches of the State's government, or to present all the suggestions that occur concerning legislation. From time to time I shall communicate with you upon specific subjects, in the hope that I may aid your labors and that there may be with us that useful coöperation so essential for real achievement. It is my fervent wish that we may all go forward with the work that is ours and do that work with the single purpose of performing a duty and executing with fidelity the trust that has been reposed in us.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON,
Governor.

APPENDIX.

PARDONS.

JESUSA JOHNSON, pardoned February 25, 1911. Convicted in the Police Court of the city of Los Angeles of the crime of petit larceny and on December 24, 1910, sentenced to one hundred and fifty (150) days in the city jail at Los Angeles. Upon investigation, it appeared that the health of this woman was seriously affected by confinement and that she had a family of young children in grave need of her care. The pardon was therefore granted.

EDWARD STRAYER, pardoned August 3, 1911. Convicted in the Police Court of the city of Los Angeles of criminal conspiracy and on the 5th day of January sentenced to a term of one hundred and eighty (180) days in the city jail at Los Angeles. Letters were received by me from the judge who sentenced Strayer, the prosecuting attorney, and the sheriff of Los Angeles County, and upon their recommendation he was pardoned.

JOHN J. LYNCH, pardoned August 25, 1911. Committed from the city and county of San Francisco on the 22d day of October, 1909, having been convicted of grand larceny and sentenced to a term of nine (9) years in the state prison at Folsom. After his conviction Lynch gave material aid to the district attorney in the prosecution of Charles E. Rankin, who was jointly charged with Lynch of the said crime of grand larceny. Lynch fully revealed to the court at the trial of Rankin all of the facts relating to the transaction out of which the charge against him grew, and as well, in so far as he was able, made restitution to the Ocean Shore Railway Company, the injured party in said transaction. Upon the recommendation of the district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, and of J. Downey Harvey, president, and Burk Corbet, secretary of said company, pardon was granted.

FRED CHRISTIE, pardoned August 28, 1911. Convicted of the crime of forgery and committed from the county of Colusa in June, 1908, for a term of seven (7) years at San Quentin. He served three years of his sentence, had never before been convicted of an offense, and his prison record was exemplary. Upon the recommendation of Andrew Furuseth, who testified to his prior good character, a pardon was granted.

J. W. WEIZ, pardoned August 28, 1911. Convicted in the Police Court of the city of Los Angeles of the crime of misdemeanor, to wit: violating section 311 of the Penal Code, and on the 10th day of July, 1911, sentenced to a term of one hundred (100) days in the city jail at Los Angeles. Weiz had borne a good reputation in the city of Los Angeles, where he had resided for a number of years, and numerous petitions and letters sent to this office made it apparent that the sentence was imposed under a misapprehension of the facts of his case. Upon the petition and recommendations of Hon. George Alexander, mayor of the city of Los Angeles, the president of the city council, the prosecuting attorney, and many other reputable citizens, the pardon was granted.

FRANK DAWSON, pardoned August 29, 1911. Committed from the county of Placer in August, 1909, having been convicted of grand larceny and sentenced to a term of seven (7) years at Folsom State Prison. Dawson's prison record was good and he had never been in any trouble before. His pardon was recommended by the Hon. C. N. Post, Judge of the Superior Court, who imposed the sentence upon him, Charles N. Tuttle, district attorney, who prosecuted him, and the sheriff of Placer County, and upon their recommendations the pardon was granted.

PATRICK FAHEY, pardoned September 5, 1911. Committed from the county of Contra Costa in October, 1905, having been convicted of the crime of manslaughter and sentenced to a term of ten (10) years at Folsom State Prison. Fahey was paroled May 9, 1911, by the State Board of Prison Directors, and subsequent thereto his health became impaired and his sight failed. He desired to leave the State of California to go to the residence of his sister in the Dominion of Canada, and upon the recommendation of the district attorney of the county of Contra Costa, and that he might receive the proper care and attention which his condition demanded, his pardon was granted.

CHARLES CALVIN HOGLE, pardoned November 27, 1911. Committed from the county of Monterey in June, 1905, having been convicted of the crime of burglary and sentenced to a term of ten (10) years at San Quentin State Prison. Hogle was paroled on the 1st day of August, 1911, and thereafter conducted himself in an exemplary manner, observing in all particulars the terms and conditions of his parole. His pardon was recommended by citizens who had watched his conduct and as he had already served the major portion of his sentence a pardon was granted.

J. H. CARPENTER, pardoned December 7, 1911. Convicted on the 25th day of April, 1911, in the Justice's Court of township No. 5, county of Merced, of misdemeanor and sentenced to a term of six (6) months in the county jail. It was admitted in this case that the sentence was excessive and the Judge of the Superior Court of the county of Merced, in passing upon the appeal taken in said case, recommended that Hogan be pardoned prior to the execution of said judgment. The district attorney who prosecuted Hogan stated that it was his intention to obtain a parole for him after he had served ten days of said sentence. Hogan served the said ten days, and in view of the agreement of all of the parties concerned that the law had been fully vindicated, a pardon was granted.

ALFRED A. LE BEUF, pardoned December 22, 1911. Committed from the county of Alameda in June, 1909, having been convicted of the crime of embezzlement and sentenced to a term of ten (10) years at San Quentin State Prison. JAMES F. BUSHNELL, pardoned December 22, 1911. Committed in August, 1909, from the county of Los Angeles, having been convicted of embezzlement and sentenced to a term of ten (10) years at San Quentin State Prison. Bushnell was complained against by the E. K. Wood Lumber Company. He had borne a good reputation up to the time of this trouble, and the officials of the company agreed that if he were pardoned they would take him back again into their employment. With Alfred A. Le Beuf, who was simultaneously pardoned, Bushnell rendered services to the State of California by which it was enabled to save a considerable sum of money and which put a stop to certain illegal and dishonest practices. Moore was nineteen years of age at the time of his conviction and was recommended to the Judge of the Superior Court for probation. Complete restitution was made to those who suffered loss by his crime. His prison record was good and his pardon was recommended by Phillip M. Carey, assistant district attorney of the county of Alameda, who conducted the prosecution against him, by the Hon. J. Day, who as district attorney prosecuted him, and by Hon. E. W. Squier, present district attorney of the county of Santa Barbara. Upon their recommendations, a pardon was granted.

JOHN O'NEIL, pardoned March 19, 1912. Committed in December, 1896, from the county of Sacramento, having been convicted of the crime of burglary and sentenced to a term of thirty (30) years at San Quentin State Prison. O'Neil was a fourth term and had served nearly thirteen years of his present term when his parole was obtained from the State Board of Prison Directors through the efforts of Leon Mordaunt, a deputy parole officer of the city of Los Angeles. From September 1, 1909, after his release upon parole, O'Neil had been steadily employed by the Southern California Edison Company. He abandoned all his criminal associates and earned the approbation of his employers and the respect and friendship of his fellow-workmen. Contrary to all expectations he made good and was recommended for pardon by the State Board of Prison Directors, by Hon. E. S. Wachhorst, district attorney of the county of Sacramento, by Hon. W. H. Beatty, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and by Hon. F. M. Angellotti, Hon. M. C. Sloss, Hon. Henry A. Melvin, and Hon. Cabaniss, Judge of the Superior Court, who presided at his trial and imposed upon him the said sentence, by Hon. Charles N. Fickert, district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, James F. Brennan, assistant district attorney, who prosecuted Liddy, Hon. Thos. F. Graham and Hon. E. P. Mogan, Judges of the Superior Court of the city and county of San Francisco, by Hon. H. I. Mulerevy, county clerk, by Hon. John I. Nolan, Walter Macarthur, and many other citizens. Liddy was more than fifty years of age, a first offender, and had up to this time borne an excellent reputation. His term was near its expiration and a pardon was therefore granted.

AXEL GREEN, pardoned June 8, 1912. Committed in July, 1908, from the city and county of San Francisco, having pleaded guilty to three charges of grand larceny, upon which he received sentences of two (2) years each, the said sentences to run consecutively. Brown, Judge of the Superior Court, who imposed the sentence upon him, by Philip M. Carey, assistant district attorney, who prosecuted him, by Hon. William H. Donahue, district attorney, and by Hon. Charles L. Neumiller, a member of the Board of Prison Directors. Upon these recommendations he was pardoned.

M. J. GILKEY, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on June 25, 1912. Committed in August, 1911, from the county of Los Angeles, having been convicted of the violation of section 288 of the Penal Code and sentenced to a term of ten (10) years in San Quentin State Prison. Gilkey was at the time of his pardon and for several months prior thereto had been seriously ill. On June 20, 1912, Dr. H. Newton Kierulff, resident physician at San Quentin, reported as follows: "I have the honor to report that Gilkey's condition is very serious and that he may die at any time." In view of this fact and because of the recommendations of Warden Hoyle and Hon. James W. Bartlett, Judge of the Superior Court of the county of Trinity, who presided at the trial of said Gilkey, a pardon was granted.

E. E. DUNCANSON, pardoned August 22, 1912. Committed in June, 1909, from the county of Los Angeles, having been convicted of the crime of rape and sentenced to life imprisonment at San Quentin State Prison. Duncanson was convicted mainly upon the evidence of the prosecutrix, who was his twelve-year-old stepdaughter. At the trial she testified to several acts on the part of Duncanson. Subsequently, she went to live with relatives in the State of Kentucky, and in December, 1909, she retracted the story told by her at the trial. Later she denied the truth of her second story. At the instance of the district attorney of the county of Los Angeles, his deputy, who conducted the prosecution, was detailed to go to Kentucky and interview the young girl, and upon his return he reported that he "had a grave and serious doubt that Mr. Duncanson ever committed the acts with which he was charged and should, if called upon now to do so, certainly give him the benefit of this doubt." After an examination of the transcript of the testimony taken in the case, Hon. Benjamin F. Bledsoe, Judge of the Superior Court of the county of San Bernardino, advised me that there was some doubt in his mind as to the guilt of Duncanson. From the transcript, and the most serious and careful consideration of the case, I was not convinced of Duncanson's innocence, but the matter seemed doubtful, and finally, after long deliberation, I preferred to give him the benefit of the doubt and granted the pardon.

CHARLES BUNCH, pardoned August 23, 1912. Committed in February, 1912, from the county of San Joaquin, having pleaded guilty to the charge of passing a fictitious check and having been sentenced to a term of three (3) years at San Quentin State Prison. Bunch at the time of the commission of his offense was but sixteen years of age, although he informed the judge who sentenced him that he was nineteen years old. He was a wayward son of parents of good standing in the State of Washington, and upon their promise to take him home, a pardon was granted, conditionally that immediately upon his release he return to his parents in the State of Washington. This condition was carried out.

PAUL A. VINCILIONE, pardoned August 23, 1912. Committed from the county of Marin in April, 1911, having been convicted of the crime of bribery and sentenced to a term of eighteen (18) months at Folsom State Prison. He served a year of the term and was thereupon paroled by the Board of Prison Directors. His term expired July 6, 1912. At the time of his conviction he was an attorney-at-law, and because of the conviction his name was stricken from the rolls of the courts of this State. He has six children, the oldest of whom is eleven years, and in order that he might not be handicapped in his efforts to reestablish himself in his profession, a pardon was granted.

JOE BLACK, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on September 14, 1912. Convicted on the 23d day of July, 1912, in the Police Court of the city of Los Angeles of the crime of assault, and sentenced to a term of one hundred and eighty (180) days in the city jail at Los Angeles. A pardon was granted in this case because it appeared that further confinement would result in permanent injury and because of the recommendations of Hon. Guy Eddie, prosecuting attorney, and Hon. W. L. Williams, police judge.

JOHN NELSON, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 1, 1912. Committed in the year 1908 from the county of Merced, having been convicted of the crime of burglary and sentenced to a term of four (4) years at Folsom State Prison. Nelson was paroled on the 15th day of August, 1910, and his term expired on the 16th day of January, 1911. He was a first termor, his prison record was good, and his conduct on parole exemplary. For the purpose of restoring to him all his civil and political rights and privileges, a pardon was granted.

HENRY HAGEMISTER, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 1, 1912. Committed in October, 1908, from the county of San Joaquin, having been convicted of the crime of arson and sentenced to a term of fifteen (15) years at San Quentin State Prison. At the time of his conviction Hagemister was nineteen years of age. He was paroled on the 2d day of January, 1910, and immediately returned to the scene of his crime and was there given employment, with which he remained until the latter part of 1911, when he was permitted by the Board of Prison Directors to go to the city of Detroit to his parents. He was continuously employed subsequent to his parole and demonstrated his ability to become a useful citizen. His pardon was recommended by the district attorney of San Joaquin county, who prosecuted him, and the present district attorney of said county, and as well by C. L. Van Buskirk, against whose property the crime was committed. Many other citizens of said county recommended a pardon and because of these things a pardon was granted.

EDWARD COLE, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 1, 1912. Committed in April, 1912, from the county of San Joaquin, having been sentenced to a term of three (3) years at San Quentin State Prison. Cole was eighteen years of age and had never before been in trouble. His offense consisted of the theft of a suit of clothes and the sum of $1.50 in money. After his incarceration, the resident physician at San Quentin reported him a sufferer from chronic heart disease, and in a critical condition. Upon recommendation of the warden, and a showing that provisions had been made to return him to his parents in the State of Illinois, a pardon was granted.

H. A. GEORGE, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 1, 1912. Committed in April, 1912, from the county of Siskiyou, having been convicted of the crime of issuing a fictitious check and sentenced to a term of eighteen (18) months at San Quentin State Prison. In a disturbance at the prison on the 9th day of June, 1912, in which George had no part, he received a bullet wound through the hip. The wound failed properly to heal and an operation was necessary and other surgical treatment which were not available at the state prison. In addition to this, he was recommended for pardon by the district attorney for the county of Siskiyou, who urged that his was a case rather for probation than imprisonment. In view of his injury and because of such recommendation, a pardon was granted.

GILBERT M. YOUNG, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 17, 1912. Committed in 1906 from the county of Monterey, having pleaded guilty to the crime of robbery and having been sentenced to a term of twenty (20) years at San Quentin State Prison. Young was paroled on the 1st day of October, 1909, and since that time had been steadily employed. His conduct was exemplary and he was recommended for pardon by Hon. B. V. Sargent, Judge of the Superior Court of Monterey County, by Hon. Fred A. Treat, district attorney who prosecuted him, by Hon. Frank R. Willis, Judge of the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, who had become intimately acquainted with him, by B. T. Brain, under-sheriff of the county of Los Angeles, and by D. L. Lorimer, deputy sheriff, to whom he had reported monthly during his parole period. Upon the showing made of his good conduct, and the recommendations, a pardon was granted.

FRED FROEHLINGER, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 17, 1912. Committed December, 1907, from the county of San Diego, having been convicted of the crime of statutory rape, and sentenced to a term of twenty (20) years at San Quentin State Prison. At the time of his conviction Froehlinger was nineteen years of age, and though it was indicated to him that if he would plead guilty to the charge probation would be given him, he always insisted that he was entirely innocent. Subsequently, the prosecutrix in the case retracted the story she had told at the time of the trial and her statement having been brought to the attention of the district attorney of the county of San Diego, an investigation was had before the grand jury of that county, the result of which indicated that Froehlinger was innocent of the crime. For this reason the pardon was granted.

GEORGE E. WOODSTOCK, pardoned by Acting Governor Wallace on October 30, 1912. Committed in April, 1912, from the county of Lassen, having been convicted of statutory rape, and sentenced to a term of ten (10) years at San Quentin State Prison. After the conviction of Woodstock, the testimony of the prosecutrix in his case was so badly discredited that a petition for his pardon was signed by the twelve jurors who rendered the verdict against him, and by practically the entire population of the county. In addition thereto, Hon. G. P. Johnson, the district attorney who prosecuted the case, wrote as follows: "After the trial of Emanuel Enos there has been some doubt in my mind as to the correctness of the verdict in the Woodstock case." Hon. C. E. McLaughlin and Hon. F. A. Kelly, both of whom were judges of the Superior Court of the county of Lassen and both of whom knew Woodstock many years, urged his pardon. From the showing made there was grave doubt of his guilt and a pardon was therefore granted.

ROBERT GARNER, pardoned December 3, 1912. Committed in 1902 from the city and county of San Francisco, having pleaded guilty to the charge of robbery on two counts, and having been sentenced upon the first count to a term of twenty (20) years, and upon the second to a term of one (1) year at San Quentin State Prison, the second term to commence at the termination of the first term. Garner desired to be paroled and the Board of Prison Directors was unable to act upon his application because of the fact of his conviction upon two charges of felony. In order that his application might be considered, a pardon for the crime upon which he was sentenced for one year's imprisonment was granted. This was done upon the recommendation of Hon. F. M. Angellotti, Hon. M. C. Sloss, Hon. Lucien Shaw, and Hon. Henry A. Melvin, Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of California, by Hon. Charles N. Pickert, district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, and by Hon. Carroll Cook, former Judge of the Superior Court of the said city and county of San Francisco, and the judge who imposed the said sentences upon Garner.

GEORGE L. RITMAN, pardoned December 3, 1912. Committed in August, 1912, from the county of Alameda, having pleaded guilty to the charge of knowingly receiving stolen property. Ritman was a first timer who had borne a most excellent reputation for honesty and integrity. After his incarceration he became mentally unbalanced, and upon the recommendation of several hundred of the residents of Alameda County, of Dr. H. Newton Kierulff, resident physician at San Quentin, of Hon. Wm. H. Donahue, district attorney for the county of Alameda, and of Hon. John F. Ellison, Judge of the Superior Court of said county, who sentenced Ritman, he was pardoned.

PAT MULLALLY, pardoned December 16, 1912. Committed in 1911 from the county of Colusa, having been convicted of the crime of grand larceny and sentenced to a term of three (3) years in the state prison at San Quentin. He was a first term and was paroled by the Board of Prison Directors, and after his release conducted himself as a good citizen should. His pardon was recommended by Hon. H. M. Albery, Judge of the Superior Court of Colusa County, and by Seth Millington, district attorney of said county. Because of his good conduct and upon these recommendations, a pardon was granted.

CHARLES DONALD LOWRIE, pardoned January 2, 1913. Committed in October, 1905, from the county of Alameda, having been convicted of the crime of burglary in the first degree and sentenced to a term of fifteen (15) years in the state prison at San Quentin. He was a second term, but after serving nearly six years of his sentence he was paroled because of his good conduct by the State Board of Prison Directors. After his parole Lowrie was constantly employed and his conduct was exemplary. For this reason, the State Board of Prison Directors recommended to the Supreme Court that his pardon be recommended by them, and thereafter such recommendation was received by me, signed by Hon. F. M. Angellotti, Hon. F. M. Henshaw, Hon. Henry A. Melvin, Associate Justices, and by Chief Justice Beatty. A pardon was therefore granted.

COMMUTATIONS.

J. F. SCARBROUGH was convicted in May, 1910, in the Superior Court of the county of Fresno of the crime of forgery and sentenced to a term of two (2) years at San Quentin Prison. Scarborough's physical condition after his incarceration became so precarious that it was reported to the Board of Prison Directors by the resident physician at San Quentin that he could not recover his health. His conduct was such that on the 11th day of March, 1911, the Board of Prison Directors recommended that his sentence be commuted so that he might be released at once, and in view of this recommendation his sentence was, on the 15th day of March, 1911, commuted upon the condition that the commutation should become void upon his subsequent conviction of any felony and that in addition to any sentence which might hereafter be imposed upon him by reason of such conviction, he should serve the remainder of his commuted term.

PETER MAPLE was convicted in March, 1910, in the Superior Court of the county of Humboldt of the crime of robbery and sentenced to a term of four (4) years in San Quentin Prison. Maple developed tubercular trouble at San Quentin and three operations were performed upon him by the resident physician, all of which were unsuccessful. Learning of his condition, it was recommended by Hon. Clifton H. Connick, Judge of the Superior Court of Humboldt County, before whom he was tried, Hon. Otto W. Cregor, district attorney of said county, who prosecuted him, Mrs. Alice M. Peebles, field matron U. S. Indian Service, and Messrs. Mahon & Mahon, attorneys-at-law, that his sentence be commuted, and on the 28th day of March, 1911, a commutation was granted to such time as would entitle him to immediate release upon the condition that commutation should become void upon a subsequent conviction for any felony, and that in addition to the sentence imposed upon him by reason of such conviction he serve the remainder of his commuted term.

LOUIE AUGUSTINE was convicted in the Superior Court of the county of Lake, of the crime of murder in the first degree and thereafter he was sentenced to be hanged on the 16th day of September, 1910. He had been reprieved from time to time by former Governor Gillett, until the 20th day of January, 1911, and on the 16th day of January, 1911, and on three subsequent dates, he was reprieved by me in order that I might properly investigate his application for commutation to life imprisonment. After a careful consideration of his case such commutation was granted on the 6th day of June, 1911. The crime of which Augustine was convicted was the killing of the sheriff of Lake County, while he was in the discharge of his duty. The evidence shows that Augustine shot the sheriff about dusk just as the sheriff, who had been lying in wait for him, called out "Throw up your hands." Augustine is an Indian boy, eighteen years of age, without friends and without funds. His attorney was appointed by the court. The feeling in the county ran somewhat high against him. His case was never appealed and the question of premeditation and deliberation was never passed upon by the court of last resort. Because of this, and more especially because of his extreme youth, there never having been an execution in this State of one so young, the commutation was granted.

HORACE BENNETT was in the month of December, 1908, in the Superior Court of the county of Monterey, convicted of murder in the first degree and was thereafter sentenced to be hanged on the 9th day of February, 1912. A letter received by me from Hon. H. W. Henshaw, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, in relation to Bennett's application for commutation of sentence and concurred in by Hon. F. M. Angellotti, Hon. Lucien Shaw, Hon. M. C. Sloss, and Hon. Henry A. Melvin, and Hon. W. G. Lorigan, Associate Justices of said court, sets forth among other things the following: "My understanding is that the petition seeks to have the death sentence commuted to imprisonment for life. Such a commutation would, in my judgment, still inflict upon the defendant a full measure of punishment for his crime, and at the same time would be both a humane and just act of executive clemency. * * * And though, as the opinion shows, there was sufficient evidence to support the jurors' verdict of deliberation and premeditation, yet I was strongly impressed that deliberation and premeditation did not enter into the crime, but that the inspiring cause was a sudden and unreckoning anger induced by whisky. I think my associates as well as myself were surprised that the verdict should have been anything more than manslaughter. Certainly, therefore, a mitigation of punishment to life imprisonment would in my opinion, as I have said, be both just and humane." A careful examination of the testimony in the case confirmed these conclusions and on the 13th day of December, 1911, a commutation to life imprisonment was therefore granted.

JOHN BYRNE was convicted in the Superior Court of the city and county of San Francisco, of the crime of murder in the first degree, and was thereafter sentenced to be hanged on the 10th day of November, 1911. An application for a commutation of his sentence was made to me, and in order to investigate his case, a reprieve was granted until January 12, 1912. In the opinion of the Supreme Court, rendered in the matter of the appeal of Byrne, Justice Angelotti said: "A mere reading of the record in this case clearly leaves one in grave doubt on the question of the defendant's guilt." The Chief Justice and all of the Associate Justices of said court recommended that the sentence of Byrne be commuted to life imprisonment, and in addition thereto Hon. William P. Lawlor, Judge of the Superior Court of the city and county of San Francisco, before whom Byrne was tried, and who rendered the judgment and decree of death, also recommended a commutation of his sentence. Upon these recommendations, on the 10th day of January, 1912, a commutation to life imprisonment was granted.

WM. BURKE was convicted in the Superior Court of the county of San Diego of the crime of murder in the first degree, and was thereafter sentenced to be hanged on the 22d day of December, 1911. The crime of which Burke was convicted was the murder of his mistress at the conclusion of a long debauch. The facts which were presented upon the application of Burke for a commutation of his sentence indicated clearly that at the time of the commission of the crime his mental condition was far from normal. Lewis R. Kirby, district attorney of the county of San Diego, who prosecuted Burke, and H. S. Utley, present district attorney of said county, after a thorough investigation of the case, recommended a commutation. The foreman of the trial jury, and three other jurors, under oath, stated that if this fact had been brought to their attention, a recommendation for life imprisonment would have accompanied the verdict. A commutation was recommended by practically all of the county officers of the county of San Diego, and after a thorough investigation of the case, Acting Governor Wallace, on the 10th day of September, 1912, commuted the sentence of Burke to life imprisonment.

GEO. E. FIGUEROA was convicted in the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles of the crime of murder in the first degree, and was sentenced to be hanged on the 20th day of October, 1911. Figueroa was defended by an inexperienced attorney, and his defense was inadequately presented to the jury. In the civil action later brought by this attorney to recover compensation for his services in the trial of Figueroa, the trial court made a finding to the effect that the conduct of the case showed carelessness and indifference, and that Figueroa had not been properly represented or defended. Letters were presented from Judge Willis of Los Angeles County, who presided at the trial of Figueroa, and by Judge Crow of the Superior Court of the county of Santa Barbara, recommending a commutation of sentence, and it was the opinion of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court that a new trial should have been granted the defendant. Figueroa was reprieved on ten successive occasions in order that his case might be thoroughly investigated, and after such investigation, made by Acting Governor Wallace, he commuted the sentence of Figueroa on the 17th day of September, 1912, to imprisonment for life.

WILLIE LUIS. Convicted in the county of San Luis Obispo of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the first day of December, 1910. He was first reprieved by former Governor Gillett to the 3d day of February, 1911, and in order that a proper investigation of his case might be had, he was subsequently reprieved twenty times, to the 6th day of December, 1912. After a thorough investigation of his case, his application for commutation was denied, and he was executed on the day last mentioned.

MARK A. WILKINS. Convicted in the county of Alameda of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the 17th day of February, 1911. He was reprieved eleven times to the 12th day of January, 1912, in order that his case might be properly investigated, and was executed on the day last mentioned.

ALEX SZAFSCUR. Convicted in the city and county of San Francisco of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the 3d day of May, 1912. He was reprieved five times to the 22d of November, 1912, in order that his case might be properly investigated, and was executed on the day last mentioned.

EDWARD DELHANTE. Convicted in the county of Marin of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the 22d day of November, 1912. He was reprieved upon the request of the warden of Folsom State Prison to the 6th day of December, 1912, in order that an investigation as to his sanity might be made. An examination of Delhante was conducted by a board of reputable physicians who reported Delhante sane, and he was executed on the date last mentioned.

FRANK BAUWERARTS. Convicted in the county of Riverside of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the 16th day of August, 1912. He was reprieved to September 13, 1912, for the reason that an appeal to the Supreme Court had been taken in his case, but no notice thereof served on the warden at San Quentin. Such notice was subsequently served and the appeal is now pending.

MANUEL BOMBELA. Convicted in the county of Orange of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the 17th day of October, 1912. He was reprieved three times to the 10th day of January, 1913, at the request of the Mexican consul general, who is securing documents and affidavits to be presented upon his application for commutation.

CHARLES CARSON. Convicted in the county of Sacramento of the crime of assault with a deadly weapon with malice aforethought, the defendant being a prisoner undergoing a life sentence in the state prison. He was sentenced to be hanged April 20, 1906, and pending the determination of the constitutionality of the statute under which he was convicted, he was by my predecessor reprieved from time to time, and fourteen reprieves have been granted during my term until the 14th day of February, 1913. Carson has developed symptoms of insanity and the last reprieve granted him was for the purpose of having a proper determination of the question of his sanity or insanity.

FRANCISCO QUIJADA. Convicted in the county of Sacramento of the crime of assault with a deadly weapon with malice aforethought, the defendant being a prisoner undergoing a life sentence in the state prison. His case was similar to that of Charles Carson, and he was reprieved to the 6th day of October, 1911, prior to which date he was killed by a fellow convict.

MEMORIAL IN OPPOSITION TO A SUNDAY CLOSING LAW IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

To the Honorable the Senators and Assemblymen of the State Legislature of California, convened at the City of Sacramento, January 6, 1913.

GENTLEMEN: Among the propositions defeated at the last regular session of the Legislature was a Sunday closing bill, specially applying to the conduct of barber-shops in California. Later, the advocates of Sunday sacredness proposed to invoke the initiative, to secure the adoption of a general Sunday closing law in this State, providing heavy penalties for the non-observance of the day.

You are aware of the fact that this effort to enforce a religious custom by civil law failed completely, only 8,714 signatures having been secured by the original canvass and only 4,999 more by supplemental petition. As the original and the supplemental petitions altogether contained only 13,713 signatures, or less than one half the required 8 per cent of the vote for Governor, at the last State election, the issue did not come up at the November election for a vote.

When it is considered that a protest against the enactment of a Sunday law, bearing the signatures of 68,559 male voters of this State, was ready for presentation to the Legislature two years ago, and that notwithstanding the enfranchisement of women since that time a meagre showing of only 13,713 signatures of both men and women voters was made in favor of a Sunday law, in the campaign just ended, it is apparent that the citizens of California are almost unanimously opposed to such discrimination of days.

We desire to suggest in this memorial that the rights of all citizens are involved in this controversy. There are wide differences of religious conviction regarding the sanctity of days. The Jews, with the Seventh Day Adventists, the Seventh Day Baptists and others, maintain that the Sabbath ordained at the beginning of the world has never been changed by divine authority, and that all are subject to this requirement of God to keep holy the seventh day. While others, without any scriptural authority, have chosen to ignore the Sabbath of divine appointment, and have united for the exaltation of Sunday as the weekly day of rest, enforced by civil law, there are still others who esteem all days alike common.

These differences of conviction can not be regulated by civil law. The State is equally bound to defend the rights of all citizens, whatever their faith or persuasion, and Section 4, Article 1, of the State Constitution, distinctly declares that "The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, WITHOUT DISCRIMINATION OR PREFERENCE, shall forever be guaranteed in this State." To arbitrarily require that all should abide by the conclusions of any class of religionists would be despotic. It was never designed by the founders of the government that such a union of Church and State should prevail in America. Congress is expressly enjoined, by the First Amendment of the National Constitution, from making any law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, and the Fourteenth Amendment unequivocally declares that "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privilege or immunities of citizens of the United States."

All these just provisions of the basic laws of State and Nation are founded on inalienable rights of the individual, which can not be ignored. They stand as insuperable barriers to the enactment of a Sunday law; for the observance of Sunday is undeniably a religious custom. Such laws are an expression of intolerance, a menace to the religious liberty of dissenters, and a ready excuse for persecution when placed upon the statutes. Despite the pretense that such laws are demanded in the interest of labor, they have their origin in religious superstition and fanaticism.

We trust and believe that you will not fail to support the existing guaranties of absolute freedom in religious things, established by the State for the protection of the entire community. We look to you as the champions and defenders of liberty, and we expect your faithful adherence to the principles which actuated our forefathers in erecting these strong bulwarks against bigotry and persecution, such as characterized the administration of human affairs during the dark ages. As America has stood for freedom in days past, so let California continue to stand in defense of civil and religious liberty and for the equality of all citizens under the law.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., January 7, 1913.

To the State Legislature now in session in this city.

GENTLEMEN: We submit herewith a series of resolutions, formally adopted by the Northern California-Nevada Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, at the Third Annual Session of that body, held at Sacramento, June 9th last, which memorial we respectfully present to your honorable body at this time, as it affects a matter that vitally concerns the liberties of all citizens of California, whose freedom you are bound to defend:

WHEREAS, God in His wisdom created man a free moral agent, not subject to his fellows in religious things, and

WHEREAS, The denial of inalienable rights in other lands led our forefathers to establish in America a free republic in which the blessings of liberty might be enjoyed, and

WHEREAS, Special safeguards were erected as fundamental principles of the United States Constitution and of the Constitution of the State of California, whereby the free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, might be forever guaranteed to citizens of this Commonwealth, therefore be it

(a) Resolved, That we, the representatives of the Seventh-Day Adventists Churches in the Northern California-Nevada Conference now plead for the maintenance of the principles established by Almighty God and recognized by human government, whereby absolute freedom of conscience and entire liberty of religious observance may be enjoyed in this State.

(b) Resolved, That inasmuch as Congress is prohibited from the making or enforcement of any law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, and inasmuch as the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution expressly declares that no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, we therefore urge that California refrain from the enactment of any Sunday law, or other statute whereby the compulsory observance of any weekly day of rest might be attempted by the representatives of the State.

(c) Resolved, That as the United States Constitution expressly declares that the Judges in every state shall be bound by that instrument, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding, we therefore are constrained to regard as unconstitutional and as subversive of inherent rights all laws in restraint of religious practice and especially such statutes relating to Sunday observance as exist in other States, or may be proposed in California, by recourse to the initiative or otherwise.

(d) Resolved, That we do hereby express our unalterable conviction that civil and religious liberty ought to be maintained throughout the republic, and that the Church and the State ought forever to be kept separate in the discharge of their respective functions and duties.

C. L. TAGGART, President.
VEROH MACPHERSON, Secretary.

Each House to Transmit Papers.

5. Each House shall transmit to the other papers on which any bill or resolution shall be founded.

Joint and Concurrent Resolutions.

6. Joint resolutions are those which relate to matters connected with the Federal Government. All other resolutions relating to matters to be treated by both Houses of the Legislature are concurrent resolutions.

Joint Resolutions Treated as Bills.

7. All joint resolutions shall be treated in all respects as bills; except that all joint resolutions shall be read but one time in each House.

Amendments to Amended Bills Must be Attached.

8. Whenever a bill or resolution which shall have been passed in one House shall be amended in the other it shall immediately be reprinted as amended by the House making such amendment or amendments. Such amendment or amendments shall be attached to the bill or resolution so amended, and indorsed "adopted," and such amendment or amendments, if concurred in by the House in which such bill or resolution originated, shall be indorsed "concurred in," and such indorsement shall be signed by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Senate, or the Clerk or Assistant Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be.

Bills Read and Referred to Committee.

9. If they refuse to recede, the presiding officer shall appoint a committee of three (3) on conference and the Secretary or Clerk shall immediately notify the other House of the action taken and request the appointment of a like committee. Two of the members comprising such committee from each House, shall be selected from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difficulty has arisen, and the other member from each House of such committee shall be selected from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote. The first Senator named on the conference committee shall act as chairman of the committee from the Senate, and the first Assemblyman named on such committee shall act as chairman of the committee from the House, and the chairmen thus selected shall arrange the time and place of all meetings and prepare or direct the preparation of reports. The committee on conference shall report to both the Senate and Assembly.

Committee on Conference.

15. In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one House and dissented from in the other, if either House shall request a conference and appoint a committee to confer, the other House shall appoint a like committee; and such committee shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by the respective chairmen of committees.

When Conference Committee Report is in Order.

17. The presentation of the report of a Committee on Conference or Free Conference shall always be in order, except when the Journal is being read or a question of order or a motion to adjourn is pending, or while the Senate or Assembly is dividing, or during roll call, and, when received, the question of proceeding to the consideration of the report, if raised, shall be immediately passed upon, and shall be determined without debate.

Messages Must be Announced by the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms.

18. When a message shall be sent from either House it shall be announced at the door by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and shall be respectfully communicated to the presiding officer by the person to whom it may be sent.

Secretary, Clerk, etc., to Carry Messages.

19. Messages shall be sent by the Secretary, Clerk, or by such person as a sense of propriety of each House may determine to be proper.

Notices to be in Writing Under Proper Signatures.

20. Notice of the action of either House to the other shall be in writing, and under the signature of the Secretary or Clerk of the House from which such notice is to be conveyed.

Enrolled Bills to Receive Signature of Proper Officers.

21. After a bill shall have passed both Houses, it shall be duly enrolled and carefully compared by the Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk and Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the Assembly, or of the Senate, as the bill may have originated, and shall first receive the signature of the presiding officer and Clerk or Secretary of the House in which it emanated, before it shall be presented to the Governor of the State.

Enrolling Committee to Compare.

22. When bills are enrolled they shall be reexamined by the Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the House in which they originated, who shall compare the enrollment with the engrossed bill as passed in the two Houses, and, correcting any errors that may be discovered in the enrolled bill, make their report forthwith to the House in which the bill originated, stating by whom such bill was examined.

President and Speaker to Sign Bills.

23. After the examination and report, each bill shall be signed in the respective Houses, first by the Speaker of the Assembly, then by the President of the Senate.

Enrolling Committee to Present Bills to Governor.

24. After a bill shall have been thus signed in each House, it shall be presented by the Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the House in which it originated to the Governor of the State for his approval (it being first indorsed on the back of the bill by the Secretary or Clerk, as the case may be, certifying in which House the bill originated). The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall be carefully entered on the Journal of the House in which the bill originated.

History of Bills, etc.

25. There shall be printed on Monday of each week by both the Senate and Assembly during the session preceding the constitutional recess, a history of all bills, joint and concurrent resolution and constitutional amendments which shall show the action taken by the House up to the day preceding the publication of such history. A regular form shall be prescribed and no other form shall be used. Immediately following the adjournment for the constitutional recess the history shall be compiled and printed to date of recess. During the remainder of the session the history shall be compiled and printed daily.

Secretary and Clerk to Keep Register.

26. The Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the Assembly shall keep a register, in which shall be recorded every action taken by the Senate and Assembly on every bill, concurrent or joint resolution, or constitutional amendment.

Secretary and Clerk Shall Indorse Bills.

27. The Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the Assembly shall indorse on every original bill a statement of any action taken by the Senate and Assembly.

Urgency Provisions in Bills.

28. Upon the third reading of a bill containing an urgency section and immediately before taking the vote on the final passage of the bill, the presiding officer shall direct that the urgency section be reread and put to a vote. The question shall be thus stated, "Shall the urgency section remain a part of the bill?" and if two thirds of all the members elected to the House in which the vote is being taken vote in the affirmative the bill shall then be put to a final vote. Companion Bills.

31. If upon comparison by the committee on Revision and Printing it be found that two bills, one of which has been introduced in the Senate and the other in the Assembly, are in all material respects the same in substance and words, such bills, unless otherwise ordered by the committee, shall be considered companion bills and printed jointly as of both Houses. If first introduced in the Senate, the bill shall be printed with the appropriate Senate heading at the top, giving number of bill, name of author, date of introduction and committee reference. Following this shall be a corresponding Assembly heading, after which shall follow the title of the act, the enacting clause and text of the bill. If the bill is first introduced in the Assembly, the position of the Senate and Assembly headings shall be reversed.

Numbering Lines of Bills.

32. The lines of all printed bills shall be numbered by page and not by sections, and amendments shall be identified by reference to title, page and line only.

MR. SPEAKER: On page 3, column 1, of the San Francisco Chronicle of today, there appeared under heavy headlines "Bourbons Plan to Make State Pay the Fiddler," a statement which I refute.

At a meeting held by the Democratic minority a few nights ago, a conclusion was reached that each member of the minority contribute one dollar for the purpose of employing a press agent, and I walked up and placed my "hog dollar" on the table, a dollar I earned before I was sworn in at the Speaker's desk as Assemblyman of the fortieth session of the California Legislature. After it became known that through the kindness of the majority each member should receive the same patronage, I with four others pooled my extra dollar and employed a stenographer which left four dollars for clerk hire. Such statements as to filching the treasury of California out of one cent are absolutely false.

By Mr. Johnston:

To the Assembly of the State Legislature of California.

GENTLEMEN: In the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, State of California.

MONDAY, January 6, 1913.

The Board met at 10 o'clock a.m.

Present—Hon. J. H. Trythall, Chairman; Supervisors C. J. Rihn, J. P. Casey, Vincent Hook and W. J. Buchanan; J. H. Wells, Clerk.

In the Matter of Construction and Maintenance of California State Building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, to wit:

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County recognizing the necessity of co-operation in presenting to the world the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco in 1915, an exhibit that will be an honor to our State and our county; and.

WHEREAS, The representatives of the counties of this State, in meeting assembled, have declared in favor of a State appropriation for the construction and maintenance of a California State Building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition wherein each and every county of California may have space for an exhibit and headquarters; and

WHEREAS, The funds of Contra Costa County, which may be lawfully raised for Exposition purposes, will not be sufficient to enable this county to join with the other counties of the State in paying the cost of the erection of a suitable State building at such Exposition; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County in regular meeting assembled this 6th day of January, 1913, believing it would be impossible to take from the funds levied by this county and other counties of the State for Exposition purposes, sufficient money to erect an adequate State building where California and the counties thereof may act as the host of the world, therefore, we strongly urge and favor an appropriation by the State of California out of the funds of the state treasury, in the sum of one million dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of a California building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition; and be it further

Resolved, That we call upon our representatives in the State Legislature to give their strong and hearty support to the bill which will be introduced at the next Legislature looking to the appropriation of a sum sufficient for the construction and maintenance of the California State Building, and that the Clerk of this Board be instructed to immediately mail a copy of this resolution to his Excellency Hiram W. Johnson, Governor of the State of California, and to Hon. James C. Owens, Senator of this District, and Hon. T. D. Johnston, Assemblyman from this District, and to O. H. Miller, Box 775, Sacramento, California, Secretary of the Counties Executive Committee.

By Mr. Finnegan:

HOBART MILLS, CAL., January 19, 1913.

Assemblyman Finnegan, Sacramento, Cal.

DEAR SIR: Enclosed you will find a clipping from newspaper which represents the views of a great many of the constituents in this district and we hope you will take such action in regards to game laws which will permit us to eat some game once in a while. Would you please show this and clipping to your colleague, the Senator from this county.

Yours truly,

W. O. BAIN.

LET WILD DUCKS BE SOLD.

(From the Sacramento Union.)

There are many deer in California, but the Californian cannot buy venison. There are great numbers of quail, but in the markets are no quail. There are multitudes of doves, but unless a citizen be a sportsman or have a sportsman friend, he may have forgotten how the flesh of dove tastes. In a State wherein game abounds the average resident can secure no game except by grace of a friend.

However, there is an exception to this rule: The man who is a sportsman and can afford to go hunting may shoot his wild game in season and enjoy its flavor, while his neighbor continues to eat cow, sheep or hog. For the sportsman this is a most pleasing exception, and indeed, it has pleased him so much that it was he who brought this condition of affairs to pass. It was his fine Italian hand that wrote in the statutes of his State the laws that made game unattainable by the common people.

In so doing, he overlooked one bet; he left to the ordinary, plodding citizen an opportunity to purchase and eat wild duck. From the organized sportsmen's point of view this was a grievous error. Why should the mob eat wild duck, when the tendency to such a proceeding would be to lessen the sportsman's probability of shooting a legal number for himself?

Unbearable situation! Ordinary people eating wild duck? Not on your life! And so, if the great Fish and Game Protective Association has its way, the coming session of the Legislature will enact a law making wild duck unsaleable and removing from the popular bill of fare this last remnant of wild game. Then the sportsmen boys will have a good time while we wops are eating our corned beef or liver.

Such a law as this should die several hours before it is born. That the great mass of the people of a State abounding in wild game never, save by happy chance, can taste it except in one form is outrageous, and to remove even this one form would be outrage added to outrage. To do this while a favored class may surfeit itself on such game is iniquity piled upon double outrage.

It is in the name of the people who are thus grossly discriminated against that we protest. Many of them are as fond of game as the most dauntless sportsman who ever sighted a gun or perchance cast a fly. The fact that they do not shoot game—perhaps because they cannot afford to do so—is no sufficient reason for depriving them of the privilege of eating it if they have money with which to buy. In its final analysis the proposed law amounts to vicious class legislation. Instead of enacting it, the laws preventing the sale of venison, etc., in season should be repealed.

MEMORIAL OF PROTEST AGAINST THE ENACTMENT OF A SUNDAY LAW IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

To the Honorable Senators and Assemblymen of the California Legislature of the year 1913.

GENTLEMEN: Because an effort is being made to secure, through your honorable body, the passage of a Sunday rest law, we deem it our duty in behalf of liberty and equal rights for all to protest against the enactment of any law, which can be used to enforce any religious doctrine, or practice, upon the people of this State.

Whatever may be the intent of designating Sunday as a day of rest, to compel its observance by law would be the enforcement of a religious dogma, by civil authority, and a practical union of church and state, which in its very nature is essentially destructive of religious liberty.

In behalf of those desiring legal protection for a weekly rest day ample provision is made in statutes of '93, page 54, section 1 reads: "Every person employed in any occupation of labor shall be entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven," etc. By this law every person has legal liberty to choose any day of the week for a day of rest, without being compelled to observe any.

The people of this State are unfavorable to a Sunday law as shown by the fact that less than two per cent of the voters signed the petition to bring the question to a vote, through the initiative, at the last election held.

For liberty and equal rights for all we continue to labor and pray.

In behalf of the Southern California Conference of Seventh Day Adventists.

F. M. BURG, President.
FRANK LANE, Secretary.

Motion carried.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

The following message from the Governor was taken up and read:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, January 13, 1913.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

I have just received from the State Board of Equalization the report of that Board's investigation of and comparison of rates of taxation now paid by the withdrawn, public service corporations of the State, with the rate of taxation paid by property owners whose property is legally assessed. I transmit to you briefly in this message the conclusions of the State Board of Equalization, that you may immediately have before you the facts and may at once commence your deliberations upon the subject of the revenue of the State.

The Board finds the average tax rate in the State of California for all property except that of the withdrawn public service corporations is $1.1386 upon each one hundred dollars of actual value. This means that the ordinary taxpayer in the State pays this rate.

The average rates of taxes paid by the several classes of the withdrawn public service corporations, as determined upon the basis of a stock and bond valuation, in accordance with the new tax scheme are:

1. For railroads and street railways $0.9092 upon $100 of actual value of property.

2. For gas and electric companies $0.75.

3. For telegraph and telephone companies $0.9060.

4. For car companies (Pullman Company only) $0.8813.

5. For express companies (Wells Fargo & Co. only) $1.5413.

The situation, therefore, is obvious. Except in the single instance of the express company, which probably is not paying any greater sum in taxes than it ought, the ordinary taxpayer is paying proportionately twenty per cent more than the public service corporations.

As in my initial message, again I call to your attention the fact that the revenue for this year provided by the new method of taxation will be insufficient to meet the expenses of the government of the State. It is essential that the additional revenue required be provided for during the first portion of your session, that is, during the next thirty days. I ask, therefore, that during this first part of your session you take up the subject of the revenue of the State and increase the rates of taxation of the withdrawn corporations to such a sum as shall compel them to pay their just proportion of taxes.

Respectfully submitted.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON, Governor.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

On motion of Mr. Walsh, Mr. McArthur was granted leave of absence until Thursday, January 16, 1913.

4. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed one House is rejected by the other, notice thereof shall be given immediately to the House in which the same shall have passed.

Each House to Transmit Papers.

5. Each House shall transmit to the other papers on which any bill or resolution shall be founded.

Joint and Concurrent Resolutions.

6. Joint resolutions are those which relate to matters connected with the Federal Government. All other resolutions relating to matters to be treated by both Houses of the Legislature are concurrent resolutions.

Joint Resolutions Treated as Bills.

7. All joint resolutions shall be treated in all respects as bills; except that all joint resolutions shall be read but one time in each House.

Amendments to Amended Bills Must Be Attached.

8. Whenever a bill or resolution which shall have been passed in one House shall be amended in the other it shall immediately be reprinted as amended by the House making such amendment or amendments. Such amendment or amendments shall be attached to the bill or resolution so amended, and indorsed "adopted," and such amendment or amendments, if concurred in by the House in which such bill or resolution originated, shall be indorsed "concurred in," and such indorsement shall be signed by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Senate, or the Clerk or Assistant Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be.

Bills Read and Referred to Committee.

9. When a Senate bill has been received by the Assembly, or an Assembly bill by the Senate, with a message announcing that the same has passed the Senate or Assembly such bill shall be read the first time by the Secretary or Clerk and referred to a standing committee, unless otherwise ordered by the House.

Special File.

10. Ten (10) days after the close of the recess provided for in Section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution, the Senate and Assembly shall adopt and provide a special file upon which shall be placed: In the Senate, only Assembly bills that have passed the Assembly; and in the Assembly, only Senate bills that have passed the Senate. Such special file shall be taken up at two o'clock p.m. of each day, and be considered at least one hour and a half after being so taken up. This rule shall not be suspended in either House except by a three fourths vote of such House.

After a Bill Has Been Passed by the Senate or Assembly.

11. When a bill (if it be a Senate bill) has been received from the Senate by the Assembly, after its passage, or (if it be an Assembly bill) has been received from the Assembly by the Senate after its passage, it shall be taken up by the Senate or Assembly, as the case may be, under the regular order of business ("Senate messages" or "Assembly messages"), read the first time, unless otherwise ordered by the House, and shall then be assigned to the proper committee, unless otherwise ordered, who shall act upon the same as soon as practicable, and report the same back to the Senate or Assembly forthwith, and the chairman of such committee is charged with the observance of this rule: provided, that the Senate or Assembly may, at any time, order such bill reported back from any committee by a majority vote.

To Concur or Refuse to Concur in Amendments.

12. In case the Senate amend and pass an Assembly bill, or the Assembly amend and pass a Senate bill, the Senate (if it be a Senate bill) or the Assembly (if it be an Assembly bill) must either "concur" or "refuse to concur" in the amendments.

When Amendments are Concurred In.

13. If the Senate concur (if it be a Senate bill), or the Assembly concur (if it be an Assembly bill), the Secretary or Clerk shall notify the House making the amendments, and the bill shall be ordered to enrollment.

When Senate or Assembly Refuse to Concur.

14. If the Senate refuse to concur (if it be a Senate bill), or the Assembly refuse to concur (if it be an Assembly bill), the Secretary or Clerk shall notify the House making the amendments of such refusal and ask that they recede from their amendments. If they refuse to recede, the presiding officer shall appoint a committee of three (3) on conference and the Secretary or Clerk shall immediately notify the other House of the action taken and request the appointment of a like committee. Two of the members comprising such committee from each House shall be selected from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difference has arisen, and the other member from each House of such committee shall be selected from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote. The first Senator named on the conference committee shall act as chairman of the committee from the Senate, and the first Assemblyman named on such committee shall act as chairman of the committee from the House, and the chairmen thus selected shall arrange the time and place of all meetings and prepare or direct the preparation of reports. The committee on conference shall report to both the Senate and Assembly.

15. In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one House and dissented from in the other, if either House shall request a conference and appoint a committee to confer, the other House shall appoint a like committee; and each committee shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by the respective chairmen of committees.

Committee on Free Conference.

16. If the conference fail to agree or either House refuse to adopt the report of the committee, a Committee on Free Conference shall then be appointed, which shall consist of three members from each House to be constituted and appointed in the same manner as a committee on conference. The committee on free conference are hereby directed to include in their report any amendments which they may adopt as a committee, and such amendments shall be attached to the bill.

The report of the Committee on Free Conference shall not be subject to amendment, and if either House refuse to adopt such report no further proceedings shall be had.

It shall require an affirmative vote of not less than four (4) of the members constituting the committee to agree upon a report.

When Conference Committee Report is in Order.

17. The presentation of the report of a Committee on Conference or Free Conference shall always be in order, except when the Journal is being read or a question of order or a motion to adjourn is pending, or while the Senate or Assembly is dividing, or during roll call, and, when received, the question of proceeding to the consideration of the report, if raised, shall be immediately passed upon, and shall be determined without debate.

Messages Must Be Announced by the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms.

18. When a message shall be sent from either House it shall be announced at the door by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and shall be respectfully communicated to the presiding officer by the person by whom it may be sent.

Secretary, Clerk, etc., to Carry Messages.

19. Messages shall be sent by the Secretary, Clerk, or by such person as a sense of propriety of each House may determine to be proper.

Notice to be in Writing Under Proper Signatures.

20. Notice of the action of either House to the other shall be in writing, and under the signature of the Secretary or Clerk of the House from which such notice is to be conveyed.

Enrolled Bills to Receive Signature of Proper Officers.

21. After a bill shall have passed both Houses, it shall be duly enrolled and carefully compared by the Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk and Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the Assembly, or of the Senate, as the bill may have originated, and shall first receive the signatures of the presiding officer and Clerk or Secretary of the House in which it emanated, before it shall be presented to the Governor of the State.

Enrolling Committee to Compare.

22. When bills are enrolled they shall be re-examined by the Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the House in which they originated, who shall compare the enrollment with the engrossed bill as passed in the two Houses, and, correcting any errors that may be discovered in the enrolled bill, make their report forthwith to the House in which the bill originated, stating by whom such bill was examined.

President and Speaker to Sign Bills.

23. After the examination and report, each bill shall be signed in the respective Houses, first by the Speaker of the Assembly, then by the President of the Senate.

Enrolling Committee to Present Bills to Governor.

24. After a bill shall have been thus signed in each House, it shall be presented by the Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the House in which it originated to the Governor of the State for his approval (it being first indorsed on the back of the bill by the Secretary or Clerk, as the case may be, certifying in which House the bill originated.) The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall be carefully entered on the Journal of the House in which the bill originated.

History of Bills, etc.

25. There shall be printed on Monday of each week by both the Senate and Assembly during the session preceding the constitutional recess, a history of all bills, joint and concurrent resolutions and constitutional amendments which shall show the action taken by the House up to the day preceding the publication of such history. A regular form shall be prescribed and no other form shall be used. Immediately following the adjournment for the constitutional recess the history shall be compiled and printed to date of recess. During the remainder of the session the history shall be compiled and printed daily.

Secretary and Clerk to Keep Register.

26. The Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the Assembly shall keep a register, in which shall be recorded every action taken by the Senate and Assembly on every bill, concurrent or joint resolution, or constitutional amendment.

Secretary and Clerk Shall Indorse Bills.

27. The Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the Assembly shall indorse on every original bill a statement of any action taken by the Senate and Assembly.

Urgency Provisions in Bills.

28. Upon the third reading of an act which is an urgency measure within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the State Constitution, the presiding officer shall direct that the section of said act setting forth the facts constituting the necessity for such urgency (which shall be known as the urgency section) be then read and put to vote. The question shall be thus stated:

"Shall this section setting forth the urgency features of this bill be passed?"

If upon such final vote two thirds of all the members elected to the House in which the vote is being taken shall not vote in the affirmative, no further action shall be taken on the bill; but, in case an identical bill without such emergency clause be again introduced into such House, such bill shall be placed on file without reference to any committee.

Indorsement of Bills.

29. Bills introduced into either House shall be indorsed with the day, hour and minute of introduction.

Committee on Revision and Printing.

30. Unless otherwise ordered by the House in which the bill was introduced, all bills before being printed shall be immediately sent to Committee on Revision and Printing for correction of errors. The committee shall have jurisdiction to correct any mere clerical error, such as in orthography, adding the enacting clause to a bill when such has been omitted, and all mistakes in numbering section and references thereto, and, by and with the written assent of the author filed with the committee, to correct errors in grammar, phraseology and to otherwise alter the text of the bill.

Companion Bills.

31. If upon comparison by the Committee on Revision and Printing it be found that two bills, one of which has been introduced in the Senate and the other in the Assembly are identical, such bills, unless otherwise ordered by the committee, shall be considered companion bills and printed jointly as of both Houses. If first introduced in the Senate, the bill shall be printed with the appropriate Senate heading at the top, giving number of bill, name of author, date of introduction and committee reference. Following this shall be a corresponding Assembly heading, after which shall follow the title of the act, the enacting clause and text of the bill. If the bill is first introduced in the Assembly, the position of the Senate and Assembly headings shall be reversed.

Numbering Lines of Bills.

32. The lines of all printed bills shall be numbered by page and not by sections, and amendments shall be identified by reference to title, page and line only.

Reports of Committee on Revision.

33. The Committee on Revision and Printing shall return to the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the Assembly all bills in the order in which they were sent to it, but shall not retain any bill for longer than three legislative days, unless otherwise ordered.

Joint Meeting of Committees.

34. Whenever any bill has been referred by the Senate to one of its committees, and the same or a like bill has been referred by the Assembly to one of its committees, the chairmen of the respective committees, when in their judgment the interests of legislation or the expedition of business will be better served thereby, shall arrange for a joint meeting of their committees for the consideration of such bill.

Bills, Resolutions, etc.

35. Wherever the word "bill" is used in these rules it shall include constitutional amendments, joint and concurrent resolutions.

Press Rules.

36. A person desiring recognition by the Senate or Assembly as a newspaper correspondent shall make application in writing to the President of the Senate or Speaker of the Assembly.

(a) The applicant shall state in writing the name of the newspaper or newspapers he represents and that he is not engaged, and will not become engaged as a lobbyist for any person, copartnership, corporation or interest, and that he is not and will not become the agent or representative of any person, copartnership, organization or corporation in advocating or attempting to defeat any measure pending in either branch of the Legislature, that he is not employed in any executive, administrative or legislative department of the state government and will not become so employed while accepting the privileges of a press representative.

(b) It shall be the duty of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly to assign one or more rooms for the exclusive use of correspondents during the legislative session, which room shall be known as the press room. The press room shall be under the control of the Superintendent of Capitol Building and Grounds; provided, that all rules and regulations shall be approved by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the Assembly.

Adjournment.

37. Adjournment for the constitutional recess and adjournment sine die shall be made only by concurrent resolution.

READING OF THE JOURNAL.

During the reading of the Journal, on motion of Mr. Hayes, its further reading was dispensed with.

PETITION.

The following petition was presented and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Bowman:

We, the undersigned, citizens of the county of Monterey, State of California, respectfully recommend that Section 636 of the Penal Code of this State be so amended, or that a new section be added to said Penal Code, so as to provide that "Every person who shall cast, extend, set, use or have in his possession any 'lompara' net, 'paranzella' net, or 'bean trawl' net, for the purpose of catching fish, shellfish, shrimps or crabs, in any of the waters of this State, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Briefly, we will state that our reason for making this recommendation is that it is a well-known fact that to permit the use of any of the above-mentioned nets within the waters of this State, results in the destruction of millions upon millions, and tons upon tons of valuable small and immature food fish, crabs and other shellfish.

Therefore, we believe that unless the use of the above-mentioned nets is prohibited and their possession in any of the waters of this State made unlawful, that great and irreparable injury will in the near future result to the commercial fish interests and the food fish supply of this State.

(Signed) F. F. DARLING (and others).

RESOLUTION.

The following resolution was offered:

By Committee on Attachés and Employees:

By Mr. Wall:

To the Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly:

The citizens' committee of the city of Stockton herewith extend a cordial invitation to the membership of the Senate and Assembly, to visit Stockton next Sunday morning, January 19, 1913.

A special train will leave the Traction Company depot at the corner of Eighth and K streets, Sacramento, at nine o'clock Sunday morning, arriving in Stockton at ten forty-five.

There the party will be met with automobiles and taken on a tour of the residential portion of the city, to the Stockton State Hospital, where Dr. Fred Clark, the superintendent, has agreed to take the members through the institution and see every department and the inmates. From there a visit will be made to the Agriculture Park grounds, thence through the manufacturing district to the water front and warehouse section of the city. Luncheon will be had at Hotel Stockton about two o'clock p.m. The train on its return trip will very likely leave Stockton before four o'clock; the exact hour will be announced later on.

Let it be understood that the members will be guests of the city and will be furnished free transportation on the trip, and you are earnestly requested to leave your money and jewelry at home, as you will not have any need for the same.

A careful roll call of each house will be necessary to determine as soon as possible how many members can arrange to take the trip.

In the Assembly the members will be requested to report to Mr. Wall and in the Senate to Senator Caminetti.

W. C. WALL.

By Mr. Stuckenbruck:

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY TABLE GRAPE GROWERS' PROTECTIVE LEAGUE.

WHEREAS. It is understood that an effort will be made at the present session of the Legislature to enact legislation making the compensation feature of the Roseberry law compulsory, therefore Resolved, By this board of directors of the San Joaquin County Grape Growers' Protective League, representative of the horticultural interests of San Joaquin County, that any insurance law which operates to place the entire burden of accident insurance upon employers (as does the Roseberry law) is based upon false economic principles, and will operate to place an unjust burden upon the agricultural interests.

Farmers have no means of adding expense incident to such laws to the selling price of products, as do manufacturers, consequently the entire cost of accident insurance, if paid by employers, would ultimately be borne by depreciation of land.

Resolved, That our representatives in the Legislature are hereby requested to oppose all insurance bills which include farmers in the class of employers liable to the payment of accident insurance.

Resolved, That the legislative committee of this body be instructed to take this subject up with representatives and the Governor.

(The above is a true copy.)

ROBT. G. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

FRESNO, Cal., December 12, 1912.

Be it Resolved, That since the State Industrial Accident Board has given notice of an intention to endeavor to secure legislation at the next session of the Legislature, which will make the compensation provisions of the Roseberry law compulsory on the employers of labor, whereby farmers will be compelled to carry heavy insurance to avoid bankruptcy under contingencies occasioned by such legislation; and that the Roseberry law and kindred legislation are based on the mistaken theory that all employers of labor can add the cost to the selling price of their products, thereby assessing the tax especially against the business of the country; and, which from the nature of things bears an opposite economic relation to the business and manufacturing interests, being compelled to sell in world's markets without regard to the cost of production, a fact which will cause the larger part of cost of compensation liability to be absorbed by depreciating land values; and that such legislation unnecessarily and unjustly disturbs the relations existing between farmers and farm laborers, neither of whom have agitated in favor of such laws; that it is the sense of this State Fruit Growers' Convention that accident compensation laws to be just, should operate to place the burdens of the same on society in general; hence employees should bear a just share of the liability; and that we hereby petition the Legislature to omit farmers from the class of employers that are to be brought under compulsory compensation, and that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to present this request to the Legislature of California at its next session.

I, E. O. Essig, Secretary of the California State Fruit Growers' Association, do hereby certify that the above is an exact and true copy of the resolution on employers' liability legislation as applied to orchard and field help, duly passed and adopted by the California State Fruit Growers' Association at its forty-second convention, held in Fresno, California, December 12, 1912.

(Signed) E. O. ESSIG,
Secretary State Fruit Growers' Association.

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Johnston:

To the State Legislature of California, convened at Sacramento in the Fortieth Session.

ESTEEMED SENATORS AND HONORED GENTLEMEN: We submit, with this memorial, the joint protest of 68,559 male voters of California, whose individual signatures attest their united opposition to the enactment of a Sunday closing law, or any other form of religious legislation, in the State of California.

While the signatures were appended to the accompanying protest, in the expectation that it would be presented to the Legislature of 1911, it was not formally brought to the notice of the legislators at that time. In order to comply with the intention of this great body of your constituents, to make their protest a matter of permanent record, in the archives of the State, we now submit to your honorable body the accompanying petition.

That the disposition of the voters of this State has not changed, during the last two years, was abundantly manifested by the failure of the proposition to invoke the initiative last fall, by means of which the advocates of Sunday sacredness hoped to secure a law, by direct vote of the people, whereby the State should become obligated to enforce the observance of Sunday as a day of rest, notwithstanding differences of moral conviction among citizens as to which day should be observed as the Sabbath, or whether all days should be regarded alike.

Only 8,714 signatures of men and women voters were obtained by the original canvass in favor of a Sunday law, and only 4,999 more were secured by supplemental petition. A meagre total of 13,713 male and female voters of the State having thus expressed a desire for civil enforcement of a sectarian practice, undeniably related to religious custom and belief, it would seem that the voters of California are almost unanimously disposed to leave the individual free from interference in religious things. As contrasted with the magnificent protest, herewith presented to your honorable body, such a weak appeal for a union of Church and State is unworthy of consideration.

But apart from any question of majorities is that of inalienable right. Our own State Constitution declares: "The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be guaranteed in this State." The observance of any day as a period of rest is due wholly to religious conviction, and citizens differ among themselves in practice and belief. The State cannot regulate these things. They are essentially matters of religious belief, and must be left to the individual consciences of citizens, whose moral convictions are not subject to human restraint.

We trust that Senate Bill No. 207 and Assembly Bill, No. 241, companion measures introduced today in the Legislature, will be defeated. They are opposed to constitutional guaranties, based on natural rights, which are and should be inalienable. With full confidence in your disposition to maintain these fundamental principles of justice, on which civil and religious liberty depends, we are

Respectfully,

PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS

By E. E. ANDROSS, President.

Attest: J. J. IRELAND, Secretary.
And sixty-eight thousand others.

By Mr. Finnegan:

To the Honorable Hiram W. Johnson, Governor, and to Officers and Members of the Legislature of the State of California, Greeting.

GENTLEMEN: The undersigned, residents, citizens and taxpayers of the State of California, do hereby most respectfully represent as follows:

That the number of Japanese people in the State of California is rapidly increasing; that these Orientals are fast monopolizing several of the leading industries of California, and particularly the industry of fruit-growing; that they are buying up fruit ranches and real estate in general, and boast that they intend to control this industry; that the buildings they erect are mere shacks which are detrimental to progressive California and a disgrace to any community; that they are displacing white labor and substituting cheap labor of their own race; that morally they are inimical to the best welfare of our State; that white people can not decently live, even in the most frugal manner, and successfully compete with Orientals by reason of their very undesirable and cheap mode and manner of living; that they in no way contribute to the upbuilding of the State, but on the contrary are detrimental to its growth and development; that they have no respect whatever for the provisions of a contract.

And, therefore, we know they are not good citizens and believe that the best interests of the white people of the State of California demand that some action be taken to prohibit aliens from acquiring title to real estate in California, and to limit the number of years for the life of a lease, and that such action be taken without delay.

And, therefore, we urge and petition that you endeavor to bring about the enactment of a law or laws that will prohibit aliens (more especially Japanese) from acquiring title to real estate in the State of California, and limiting the life of leases. And your petitioners will ever pray.

(Signed) F. M. QUINN (and others).

By Mr. Alexander:

We, the undersigned, residents of Monterey County, hereby petition you, as our representative in the State Legislature, to use your best endeavors to prevent any new game legislation that will change the opening and closing dates for doves, quail and deer in this county, as we believe that no improvements can be made in the present law protecting said game.

(Signed) W. E. MARTIN (and others).

By Mr. Polsley:

WHEREAS, The State of California, through its engineering department, has recently completed a stretch of highway in Humboldt and Trinity counties, said State, intended to connect the north Pacific coast section with the upper Sacramento Valley; and

WHEREAS, The county of Tehama is greatly interested with neighboring counties in the beneficial results which may come from a proper use of said highway; and

WHEREAS, There is a further stretch of road, connecting at the easterly terminus of said State highway at Peanut, in Trinity County, which demands attention from the State so that the benefits to be derived from the State highway mentioned may be enjoyed as intended, the same covering a distance of about twelve miles in Trinity County, and ten miles in Shasta County, to connect with continuing public roads in Shasta and Tehama counties, one leading easterly toward the city of Redding, in Shasta County, the other southeasterly toward the city of Red Bluff, in Tehama County. The approximate cost for the proper improvement of said road will be greater than the counties of Trinity and Shasta can bear; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of Tehama County declare that if the stretch of road last mentioned, continuing easterly and southeasterly from Peanut, in Trinity County, to Beegum Creek, on the boundary line between Tehama and Shasta counties, is constructed by the State of California for the said distance of twenty-two miles, or thereabouts, the county of Tehama hereby agrees, and the Board of Supervisors of said county do hereby pledge themselves, that the said county of Tehama will improve, construct and maintain a suitable road and highway from the northerly line of Tehama County, at said Beegum Creek, to Red Bluff, a distance of about forty miles, to properly accommodate public travel between the counties of Humboldt, Trinity and Shasta with Tehama and the upper Sacramento Valley, and between the city of Eureka, on Humboldt Bay, and the city of Red Bluff, in the Sacramento Valley. And said county of Tehama further pledges itself, through its said Board of Supervisors, to keep up and maintain said road, and the bridges placed thereon, in good condition for the accommodation of public travel by the citizens of the State of California, at the cost and expense of the said county of Tehama; and

WHEREAS, The stretch of road last mentioned, between said points of Peanut and Beegum Creek, having been originally laid out and constructed by the people of Red Bluff and Tehama County, and since maintained in large part by said people, and now having become an important public thoroughfare, to an extent that its further maintenance and improvement will cost more than can be had by private subscriptions, it becomes necessary to request the Legislature of the State of California, by and through our honorable representatives thereof, to give the assistance desired, to be enjoyed not only by the traveling public whose homes and interests are contiguous to the said highway, but by the people of the entire State at large; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of the county of Tehama do hereby request our representatives in the Senate and Assembly to use their best endeavors to have a sufficient sum appropriated at this session of the Legislature by the State of California, to survey, construct and complete the said stretch of road between Peanut, in Trinity County, and where the present traveled road crosses Beegum Creek, as above mentioned. And be it further

Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded by the clerk of this board to Hon. William Kehoe, the representative in the Senate for this district, and the Hon. Harry Polsley, the representative in the Assembly for this Assembly district, and that the Hon. Harry Polsley confer with the Senator for this district and urge upon him the necessity for the construction of said road and highway, and request him to assist in obtaining the required appropriation for the construction of said highway.

The motion to adopt the resolution was duly seconded by Supervisor Asa G. Peake, and carried by the unanimous vote of the board.

COUNTY OF TEHAMA, } ss.

I, H. G. Kuhn, County Clerk and Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the county of Tehama, State of California, do hereby certify that I have compared the foregoing copy of a resolution "In the matter of an appropriation to construct a highway from Red Bluff, via Beegum, to connect with the state highway at Peanut," adopted by the Board of Supervisors of said county and State on the 8th day of January, 1913, and that the same is a true and correct copy of the original record on file in my office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said board this 8th day of January, A. D. 1913.

H. G. KUHN,
County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Tehama County, State of California.

By Mr. Sutherland:

To the State Legislature in session at Sacramento.

GENTLEMEN: Believing—

1. In the separation of church and state;
2. That the Legislature is prohibited by the Constitution from enacting any law enforcing the observance of any religious institution, or looking toward a union of church and State, or of religion and civil government;
3. That any such legislation is opposed to the best interest of both church and State; and

4. That the first step in this direction is a dangerous step, and should be opposed by every lover of liberty, the several churches composing this Central California Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination have formally adopted the following series of resolutions, for presentation to your honorable body:

WHEREAS, Sunday is a religious institution, and all legislation in behalf of its observance is religious legislation; and

WHEREAS, Religious legislation by civil government is contrary to the principles enunciated by Jesus Christ, and is also subversive of the fundamental principles upon which the American government was founded: be it therefore

Resolved, That we continue to use our influence and our energies to prevent religious legislation, and to perpetuate among all men the blessings of civil and religious liberty.

Resolved, That we hereby express our profound belief in the Christian religion as set forth in the sacred scriptures; and that it is the divine mission of the church to proclaim this gospel to all the world.

Resolved, That we recognize civil government to be of divine appointment, ordained of God to rule in all things civil, and that it is the duty of all men to render loyal obedience to civil government in the exercise of its rightful authority.

Resolved, That we hereby affirm our belief that religion and civil government occupy different realms, and that the church and State should be kept forever separate, in accordance with the teaching of the divine author of Christianity in the words: "Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's and unto God the things that are God's," and as expressed by the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which declares: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

In harmony with the resolutions herewith presented to your consideration, we desire further to remind you that our own State Constitution expressly declares:

"The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be guaranteed in this State."

Moreover, the Constitution of the United States declares: "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States." and it is inconceivable that the Legislature of any State should be permitted to enact laws in restraint of religious conviction when Congress itself is prohibited from so doing.

We therefore respectfully ask your honorable body to observe these barriers to religious legislation, that the blessings of civil and religious liberty, guaranteed by State and nation, may continue to be enjoyed by the citizens of California.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS.

By Mr. Slater:

The following resolution was adopted by the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the executive committee held on Tuesday, January 7, 1913:

WHEREAS, We deem it essential that the State of California should have a State Fair of such character as would permit the full representation of our great resources and possibilities; and

WHEREAS, The creation and maintenance of such an institution would involve a thorough equipment, both as to grounds and buildings as well as permanent exhibits, of our State, which would require a complete financing; and

WHEREAS, The State Fair of California is now unable to meet these requirements, owing to lack of funds and facilities; and

WHEREAS, The present condition will not permit the full representation of our State's opportunities; be it therefore

Resolved, That this Chamber of Commerce does sincerely approve of the appeal made by the State Agricultural Society for funds, and that we heartily indorse and enthusiastically support the movement begun to secure, either by appropriation from the State Legislature or by bond issue, such sum of money as the State Board determines would be necessary to provide an adequate home and adequate facilities for the State Fair; and be it further

Resolved, That we will direct our best efforts to have our people unanimously favor whatever measure will be determined necessary to provide for this fund.

THOMAS MACLAY, President.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Speaker made the following announcement:

I wish, at this time, to amplify my suggestion of an arrangement by which your committees may meet without conflict. The main reasons for such arrangement would seem to be two in number:

First—All Assemblymen of previous sessions will recall the fact that it has not been unusual in the past to have two or three important committee engagements at the same time, and that it has been very usual to see committee meetings called and adjourned for want of quorum, owing to conflicting engagements of their members. In this way, I believe, many days' time was lost, and many bills were passed out by a bare quorum of committee members.

Second—At this session we shall be grievously hampered by a scarcity of committee rooms. Another department of the State's government, has, undoubtedly through necessity, been assigned some of our rooms; so that now we are actually in the position of having, outside of the Committee on Judiciary and Ways and Means, only four rooms for forty committees. Your Speaker has taken this matter up with the Lieutenant Governor, with a view to an adjustment by which the Senate may share this burden with the Assembly; but at all events some systematic and orderly arrangement of committee meetings must be had, in order to provide meeting places for the various committees.

Accordingly, in the assignment of committees for this session an attempt has been made to so assign the members of the Assembly to various groups, that each group shall contain at least half the members of the Assembly, who may thus meet in their various committees at the same time with entire absence of conflict.

For instance, Group 1 contains the Committees of Agriculture, Banking, Civil Service, Claims, and Constitutional Amendments. No member of the Assembly belongs to more than one of these five committees, and if their chairmen agree upon some afternoon each week on which they shall meet, each committee may have a full attendance without conflict, providing the chairmen in the other groups will consent to a similar arrangement for their various committees.

This is offered merely as a suggestion to the committee chairmen, which they are at liberty to accept or reject as they see fit. If they accept it, I am confident that our committee work will result in a great saving of time and a maximum of efficiency.

To the end of deciding upon the wisdom of this proposal I would ask that each group of committees get together, today if possible, and appoint one of their number as a representative to meet similar representatives from other groups, and to make arrangements for a tentative schedule of committee meetings, if it be decided advisable to try out this plan.

The committee groups are as follows:

Group 1—Agriculture, Banking, Civil Service, Claims, and Constitutional Amendments.

Group 2—Building and Loan Associations, Commerce and Navigation, Conservation, Contested Elections, and Corporations.

Group 3—Education, Hospitals, Oil Industries, and Prisons and Reformatories.

Group 4—Elections, Fish and Game, Public Health and Quarantine, and State Grounds and Parks.

Group 5—County Government, Drainage, Swamp and Overflowed Lands, Mines and Mining, and Municipal Corporations.

Group 6—Judiciary, and Ways and Means.

Group 7—Irrigation, Medical and Dental Laws, Military Affairs, and Public Morals.

Group 8—Insurance, Libraries, Public Charities and Corrections, and Revenue and Taxation.

Group 9—Roads and Highways, Live Stock and Dairies, Universities, and Labor and Capital.

Group 10—Mileage, Revision of Criminal Procedure, Normal Schools, Federal Relations, and Manufactures.

By Mr. Johnstone:

SAN DIMAS, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CAL.,
January 15, 1913.

To the Speaker of the Assembly of the State of California.

HONORABLE SIR: We, the undersigned, have been appointed a committee by the San Dimas Board of Trade, comprising over two hundred members, most of whom are citrus fruit growers in the districts of San Dimas, La Verne, and Charter Oak, to write you urging immediate action in the placing of state funds on deposit locally for the purpose of alleviating the depression and financial shortage occasioned by the loss of the greater portion of the citrus crop by frost. It is the unanimous hope of this organization, and of every citrus grower in this community, that no technicality will be allowed to stand in the way of immediate and prompt action in so depositing state funds for use in the suffering districts.

We beg to call your attention to the fact that the intrinsic value of the groves in this community has suffered in no way, and that as security they are still available.

W. B. AMES,
GEORGE R. WELLER,
JOHN C. WALKER.

WHEREAS, There is no provision of the law whereby the State has any control over the use of such impounded waters in the interests of flood control and navigation; therefore, be it

Resolved, That our representatives from this district, in the State Legislature, be requested to use their best endeavors to obtain the adoption of such laws at this session of the Legislature as will place the approval of all plans and the general supervision of construction and maintenance of all dams in the streams of this State, under the Department of State Engineering and that some other department of the State government be given the power and charged with the duty of arranging as to what maximum height the water in such reservoirs be kept during the winter months, in the interest of flood control and as to what minimum discharge of water from such reservoirs be permitted in the summer months, in the interest of navigation.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

The following reports of standing committees were received and read:

ON REVISION AND PRINTING.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, January 16, 1913.

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on Revision and Printing, to whom was sent Assembly Bills Nos. 1 to 385, inclusive; and Assembly Joint Resolutions Nos. 1 to 4, inclusive; and Assembly Constitutional Amendments Nos. 1 to 6, inclusive; and Assembly Concurrent Resolutions Nos. 1 to 4, inclusive—respectfully report that we have examined the same and returned them all to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly with the exception of Assembly Bills Nos. 203, 290, 362, and 382.

CLARK, Chairman.

ON CONTINGENT EXPENSES AND ACCOUNTS.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, January 16, 1913.

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on Contingent Expenses and Accounts, to whom was referred the following resolutions, have had the same under consideration and beg leave to report the same back and recommend that they be adopted, and the State Controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants on the Contingent Fund of the Assembly and the State Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same or charge same to the departments, or funds, or to the parties named in said resolutions and in the amounts so designated.

Resolved, That the Superintendent of State Buildings and Grounds, Mr. Radcliff, be instructed to put in ventilators in the top windows of the Assembly Chamber, or electric fans.

Also:

Resolved, That six (6) new typewriter desks be purchased for the use of the Assembly stenographers, a filing cabinet for the Committee on Revision and Printing, and a lavatory for one of the Assembly Committee rooms, said purchases to be made by and under the direction of the chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expenses. Said typewriter desks, filing cabinet, and lavatory shall be purchased from the appropriation made by the Legislature of 1909, Statutes of California, Chapter 6, for the purchase of furniture and furnishing of the Senate and Assembly chambers and committee rooms, upon the approval in writing of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly.

1. The purchase of the six new typewriter desks, and that they be of the so-called "sanitary" pattern, quartered white oak and with glides instead of casters. Several concerns have submitted bids for same, and your committee has selected the Underwood Company's desk as the best of those submitted, at $25 per desk; other bids submitted were $24.75, and $25.65 for similar desks.

2. The purchase of the filing cabinet for the Committee on Printing and Revision of Bills, as per bid obtained for same by Superintendent of Buildings Radcliff, from the Yawman-Erbe Company, for $61, including card file boards and everything complete.

3. A temporary stand with basin and bowl for immediate use of Committee on Revision and Printing (Room No. 134) instead of a fixed lavatory with the accompanying uncertainty of time and cost involved in connection with the proper plumbing thereof, and that the expense of above enumerated items come out of the appropriation of the Legislature of 1909, Statutes of California, Chapter 6, for "Furniture and Furnishing," as set forth in the Clark resolution.

We would suggest that hereafter all supplies, etc., required by the Assembly, or Sergeant-at-Arms thereof, be obtained through the usual requisition orders made out by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly on Superintendent of Buildings, thus avoiding confusion and delays, and that the Sergeant-at-Arms be permitted to obtain such few other and necessary articles, of small value and immediate need, that said Superintendent of Buildings does not happen to have in stock, or that cannot be obtained quickly enough to fill the demands or needs of the occasion, through the ordinary methods of receiving bids for the same.

FARWELL, Chairman.

The above report ordered printed in the Journal.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

A proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States has been received by this department and is hereby transmitted to you for your ratification or rejection. The amendment is in the form of a joint resolution and is as follows:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled (two thirds of each House concurring therein). That in lieu of the first paragraph of section three of Article I of the Constitution of the United States, and in lieu of so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to the filling of vacancies, the following be proposed as an amendment

The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislatures.

"When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies; provided, that the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Messrs. Polsley and Finnegan rose to a question of personal privilege, and spoke as follows:

By Mr. Polsley:

Mr. Smith stated something that might be construed as if some of the Democrats were nagging the Committee on Printing and opposing the work of the session. I want to say that there was no intention to reflect on the committee. We were referring to the rules that have delayed the work of this House for a week. We have nearly half of the session gone and we have hardly begun work. Referring to the action of the Democrats, I am glad to say that the Democrats show a disposition to try to save the State of California money, and the members' time in legislation; and I can say that many of the Republican and Progressive members are with us.

By Mr. Finnegan:

MR. SPEAKER: I rise to a matter of personal privilege, as a member of the Democratic party just accused of bifurcation by Mr. Smith. I refute such accusation, and say that Mr. Smith has only to study the recent history of his own party to bear me out, and to learn that it is the Republican party which has suffered bifurcation to its own destruction.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE—(OUT OF ORDER).

The following report of standing committee was received and read:

ON CONTINGENT EXPENSES.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, January 17, 1913.

MR. SPEAKER: Concerning the resolution offered by Mr. Richardson, of San Francisco, that "the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds be instructed to put in ventilation in the top windows of the Assembly Chamber," we recommend for approval and adoption as follows:

Firstly—That inasmuch as this proposed method of natural ventilation will in no manner interfere with the present inefficiency of our uncertain method of heating and ventilating the Capitol Building; that the bid of Book Bros., of Sacramento, for $48 for remodeling four of the upper sash of the Assembly into side-pivoted transoms, two of which will be on either side of the Assembly Chamber, be accepted, and that this amount be charged to the State Engineering Department and not to the Contingent Expense Fund of the Assembly, as such matters come under their jurisdiction.

Secondly—We recommend that while the present system of heating and ventilation of the Capitol Building, installed as it was, under a former regime, was, as has been said, a crime against the State, on account of the many principles of sanitary laws that it violates, that the State Engineering Department be herewith requested to make a thorough investigation and overhauling of the system, especially the ventilation part thereof, and report at the last portion of this session their findings and the estimate for putting the system in proper condition.

It is the opinion of your committee that the rough, unfinished manner in which the exhaust flues for vitiated air were constructed, or rather were not constructed, is one of the immediate causes of the almost constant state of vitiated atmosphere in the Assembly Chamber. The fresh air question was serious enough at the previous session and the lapse of two years doesn't seem to have brought forth any improvements.

It seems strange that some of the thousands wasted annually, in one way or another, could not find their way into relieving the unsanitary condition of the building.

Thirdly—We recommend that the State Superintendent of Grounds, Mr. Radcliff, be instructed to hereafter place in the hands of the engineer of the building the full and complete charge of the heating and ventilation plant and that he, only, be empowered to run both the fan system for supplying the fresh air and also the fan system which is to exhaust the vitiated air, thus saving any further "chuckle-headed" confusion as to who runs one set of fans or who runs the other set, and that hereafter the fresh air is to be heated over the steam coils prepared for that purpose before coming to the chamber, and the temperature maintained at not to exceed 70 degrees Fahrenheit.

Yours respectfully,

FARWELL, Chairman.

Proposed Charter Amendment No. 1.

That the charter be amended by adding thereto a new article to be known as Article No. 22 and to read as follows:

ARTICLE 22.

SECTION 1. At the general city election in April, 1913, there shall be elected five commissioners, who shall take office at noon on the first Monday in May after their election. The commissioners first elected shall so classify themselves by lot that two shall hold office for four years and three for two years, and until their respective successors are elected and qualify. Their respective successors shall hold office for four years and until their successors are elected and qualify. Said officers shall be nominated and elected at large. If any vacancy occurs in any such office, the remaining commissioners shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy during the balance of the unexpired term.

SEC. 2. Each commissioner shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly, shall have an office at the city hall, and shall devote his time to the city's business.

SEC. 3. The city shall be governed by a commission consisting of five commissioners elected as herein provided, each of whom shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before the commission. Three commissioners shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of three commissioners shall be necessary (and shall be sufficient) to adopt any ordinance, resolution or motion, or pass any measure unless a greater number is specifically required. Whenever more than a majority vote of the city council is required to adopt any measure, then an affirmative vote of four of the commission shall be necessary to adopt such measure. Upon every vote the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded. Every ordinance or resolution adopted by the commission must be signed by the chairman (whom the commission shall select), or by three commissioners.

SEC. 4. The commission shall have and possess all legislative and judicial power had, vested in or possessed by the mayor, city council, board of commissioners, board of water commissioners, board of health and board of library trustees; also said commission and said commissioners shall have and possess and shall exercise all executive and administrative powers, functions and duties, had, vested in, possessed or exercised by, the mayor, city council, board of commissioners, board of water commissioners, board of health, and board of library trustees. Said commission and said commissioners shall be the successors of the officers, bodies and boards respectively herein in this section specified. The commission shall apportion and assign the executive and administrative powers, functions and duties of the city among five departments, shall determine the powers and duties to be exercised and performed by said departments, and shall assign a commissioner to be the head of each such department. The performance of administrative or executive acts may be delegated to the departments so created.

SEC. 5. The commission shall have the power of appointment and removal of all officers and employees of the city (except members of the board of education), and may fix the qualifications, compensation, powers and duties of officers and employees. Until different provision is made, the offices provided for in this charter (except those offices and boards hereinbefore specified, the powers and duties of which are vested in the commission and which are superseded hereby) shall continue, but the commission may at any time abolish or consolidate such offices or change the compensation, qualifications, powers and duties of the incumbents thereof and provide for other offices, boards and employees.

SEC. 6. This article shall be liberally construed to carry out the purposes hereof, and there shall be no presumption that it is not intended to change or supersede other provisions of the charter at variance or inconsistent herewith. Nothing contained in this article, however, shall affect the department of education provided for in Article XVI. So far as this article is inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of Article III, Sections 1, 4, 6, 7 and 11 of Article V, and Sections 1, 2, 3, 3½, 4, 5, and 6 of Article VIII, they shall be deemed to have been superseded hereby, to the extent of such inconsistency, but the specific reference to said sections shall not be deemed to be exclusive. This article shall go into effect for all election purposes on the day of its ratification by the Legislature, and for all other purposes on the first Monday in May, 1913, upon the qualification of the commissioners first elected hereunder.

That Section 1 of Article II be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The elective officers of the city shall be:

Five commissioners and a

Board of education, consisting of five members.

The appointive officers of the city shall be:

City treasurer, who shall be ex officio tax and license collector.

City clerk.

City attorney.

Judge of the police court.

City auditor, who shall be ex officio city assessor.

Superintendent of streets and such other officers as are now or may hereafter be provided for, all subject, however, to the provisions of Article XXII.

This section shall go into effect at once for the purpose of determining the officers to be elected at the general municipal election in April, 1913, and for all purposes upon the election and qualification of the commissioners provided for in Article XXII. With the exception of the officers, boards and bodies succeeded by the commission, the present officers of the city shall continue until the commission shall make different provision.

That Section 7 of Article VIII be amended to read as follows:

SEC. 7. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be, "The commission of the city of Pasadena ordains as follows:"

This section shall go into effect upon the election and qualification of the commissioners provided for in Article XXII.

That the charter be amended by adding thereto a new article, to be known as Article XXIII and to read as follows:

REFERENDUM.

SECTION 1. The commission may submit to a referendary vote of the qualified electors of the city at any general or special election any proposed ordinance that the commission itself might adopt. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on such proposed ordinance vote in favor of the same, it shall be deemed to be adopted and shall take effect upon the declaration of the result of such election by the commission, and it shall have the same force and effect as an ordinance adopted under the provisions of this article relating to the referendum.

SEC. 2. No general penal ordinance passed by the commission in the exercise of the police power vested in the city, and no ordinance granting any franchise shall go into effect until the expiration of thirty days from its publication, except an ordinance required for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety which shall contain a specific statement showing its urgency, and which is passed by a unanimous vote of the commission, and except ordinances fixing the rates to be charged by public utilities. No grant of any franchise, however, shall ever be construed as an emergency measure but all grants of franchises shall be subject to a referendary vote as hereinafter provided. All other ordinances shall go into effect upon their publication or at such time as may be provided therein, and shall not be subject to the referendum.

SEC. 3. At any time within the thirty days mentioned in the preceding section a petition addressed to the commission and signed by the qualified electors of said city equal in number to at least fifteen per cent of the number of votes cast at the last general municipal election, may be filed with the city clerk demanding the submission of any such ordinance passed by the commission to a vote of the qualified electors of such city. Any such petition shall be known as a referendary petition and shall contain the ordinance in full, the submission of which to a vote is hereby demanded. Such petition as to form and verification shall be governed by the provisions of Section 15 or Article VIII.

SEC. 4. Within ten days from the date of filing a referendary petition, the city clerk shall examine and ascertain whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of electors entitled to vote, and if necessary the commission shall allow him extra help for that purpose. He shall attach to said petition his certificate showing the result of such examination. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient, the clerk shall submit the same to the commission without delay.

SEC. 5. If the city clerk shall be unable to make a certificate to the sufficiency or insufficiency of any referendary petition within thirty days after the publication of the ordinance, the submission of which to a referendary vote is hereby demanded, such ordinance shall be suspended from taking effect within the expiration of said thirty days and until the date of the certificate of the city clerk to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof.

SEC. 6. If by certificate of the city clerk such petition is certified to be sufficient, such ordinance shall not go into effect until it shall be adopted by vote of the electors of the city, as hereinafter provided, but if by such certificate such petition is certified to be insufficient, such ordinance shall go into effect upon the date of such certificate; provided, however, that no such ordinance shall take effect until the expiration of the said thirty days.

SEC. 7. Upon the presentation to the commission by the city clerk of a referendary petition, the ordinance, the submission of which to a referendary vote is thereby demanded, must be either repealed by the commission without delay or submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the city for approval or rejection at the next general municipal election occurring subsequent to forty days from the date of the presentation of such referendary petition to the commission; provided, that if before such general election, and subsequent to said forty days, a special election shall be held for any other purpose, then such ordinance shall be so submitted at such special election, or in the discretion of the commission at any special election called for that purpose.

SEC. 8. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "Yes," his vote shall be counted in favor of the adoption of the ordinance, and if he shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "No," his vote shall be counted against the adoption of the same. The provisions of this section shall apply where an ordinance is submitted to a referendary election at the initiative of the commission, as provided in Section 1 of this article.

Any number of ordinances proposed by initiative petitions, or referred by referendary petition or upon the initiation of the commission, may be voted upon at the same election, either general or special; provided, that there shall not be held at any period of six months more than one election called for the purpose of submitting an ordinance or ordinances proposed by initiative petitions, but if an election be called for any other purpose within said period, said ordinance or ordinances may also be submitted thereat. If the provisions of two or more ordinances adopted at the same election by vote of the qualified electors of the city conflict, then the ordinance receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

SEC. 11. After an election based on a referendary petition, the sufficiency of such petition in any respect shall not be subject to judicial review or be otherwise questioned.

PETITION.

MARTINEZ, January 16, 1913.

T. D. Johnston, Assemblyman of Contra Costa County.

DEAR SIR: We have just read the bills that are intended to be put in at this session; also thought that yours was a very good one, but as the matter stands duck hunting is only for a few of the big sticks, as they have monopolized all the overflowed lands and the choice places by their gun clubs, and the ducks are baited so when anybody else wants to go out to shoot a few ducks for only themselves they are hunted like grayhounds on all sides by fellows that they have watching to try to arrest them if they can catch them with a foot on their reserves, which ought to be everybody's privilege that is a citizen of the United States. So, therefore, I'll favor that clause of Assemblyman Polsley of Red Bluff, which wants to knock out these gun clubs hunting on private land to which others are not allowed to have same privilege. So we, the undersigned, would beg your assistance to work on the same lines with the man Polsley that all the people that cares to hunt may have the same chance.

Respectfully yours.

S. HANSDORF (and others).

That, at the hour of four o'clock and thirty minutes of the twenty-first day of January, nineteen hundred thirteen, pursuant to previous notice, your committee met in room 92 of the State Capitol at Sacramento, and upon roll call a full committee answered present. The chairman then announced that the matter of the contest of the election of W. A. Roberts as member of the Assembly of the State of California from the Sixty-first Assembly District was before the committee for its pleasure; and thereupon the proceedings had in retaking depositions and the sworn statement of the county clerk of the county of Los Angeles and also a copy of the "Statement of Grounds of Contest of Election of W. Every such decision from the Chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House, but no discussion of a question of order shall be allowed, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Chair.

SPEAKER TO DECIDE WHO IS ENTITLED TO THE FLOOR.

38. When two or more members shall rise at once, the Speaker shall name the member who is first to speak.

ORDER IN SPEAKING TO QUESTIONS.

39. Every member, when he speaks, shall, standing in his place, address "Mr. Speaker," and when he has finished he shall sit down. No member shall speak more than twice during the consideration of any one question, of whatever nature, on the same day and at the same stage of proceedings, without leave being granted, except the author of a bill or resolution, or mover of a question, who shall have the right to close the debate. No member shall be allowed to speak more than fifteen minutes upon any question except by leave of the House, and except further, the author shall be allowed fifteen minutes to open and fifteen minutes to close.

CALLED TO ORDER FOR OFFENSIVE WORDS IN DEBATE.

40. If any member be called to order for offensive words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall report the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table; and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to censure of the House, for language used in debate, if any member has spoken or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them shall have been taken.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

41. Any member may rise to explain a matter personal to himself, with leave of the Chair, but shall not discuss a question in such explanation.

MOTIONS TO BE STATED BY SPEAKER, AND IF DESIRED SHALL BE REDUCED TO WRITING, OR MAY BE WITHDRAWN.

42. No motion shall be debated until the same be seconded and distinctly announced by the Speaker; and it shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the Speaker, or any member, and be read by the Clerk, before the same shall be debated. A motion may be withdrawn, by leave of the House, at any time before amendment or decision.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

43. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except during roll call. The Clerk shall enter on the Journal the name of any member moving an adjournment, also the hour at which the motion was made and adjournment taken.

When a motion is made and seconded to adjourn, it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any member to state any fact to the House relating to the condition of the business of the House which would seem to render it improper to adjourn at that time. Such statement, however, shall not be debatable, and such statement or statements shall not, in any case occupy more than two minutes.

Concurrent resolutions for adjournment sine die shall in all cases, whether originating in the House or coming from the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. That committee shall report upon any such concurrent resolution not later than the next legislative day, and with regard to the status of the general appropriation bill and tax levy.

PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS DURING DEBATE.

44. When a question is under debate, or before the House, no motion shall be received but: To adjourn; to lay on the table; for the previous question; to postpone to a day certain; to commit or amend; to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named, but the first three shall be decided without debate; and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day and at the same stage of the proceedings. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have preference over a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection. A dilatory motion shall not be considered intervening business within the meaning of parliamentary usage.

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

45. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" And its effect, when sustained by a majority of the members present, shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a vote on the question or questions before it.

QUESTIONS OF ORDER AFTER PREVIOUS QUESTION IS ORDERED.

46. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion or previous question, shall be decided (whether on appeal or otherwise) without debate; provided, that after the previous question shall have been ordered, ten minutes shall be allowed for explanation of the matters covered by the previous question, of which five minutes shall be given to the member moving the previous question, and five minutes to those opposed thereto.

PREVIOUS QUESTION DEMANDED.

47. The previous question shall be put only when demanded by three members.

QUESTION INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.

48. When a question is postponed indefinitely, the same shall not again be introduced during the session.

DIVISION OF QUESTIONS.

49. Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither a motion to add to nor a motion to strike out and insert.

SUBSTITUTE.

50. A substitute shall be deemed and held to be an amendment, and be treated in all respects as such.

SUBJECTS DIFFERENT FROM THE ONE UNDER CONSIDERATION.

51. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment.

PRINTING OF BILLS.

52. One thousand copies of all bills and as many additional copies as the House shall order, shall be printed. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall be required to certify to the receipt by the House of all such printed matter, and the quantity thereof.

53. A proposition to print an extra number of any document or other matter shall lie on the table one day for consideration, unless otherwise ordered by consent of the House.

PRINTING OF MAPS.

54. Maps accompanying documents shall not be printed under the general order to print, without the special direction of the House.

FILLING BLANKS.

55. In filling up blanks the least sum and shortest time shall be put first.

PRIORITY OF BUSINESS.

56. All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

READING OF PAPERS.

57. When the reading of a paper is called for, except petitions, and the same is objected to by a member, such reading shall be determined by a vote of the House, without debate.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION.

58. On the day succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill or resolution has been taken, said vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member; provided, notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given on the day on which such final vote was taken, by a member voting with the majority; and it shall not be in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the day on which such final vote was taken. Said motion of reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn. No notice of reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session. No motion to reconsider shall be adopted, except upon a roll call, and it shall require forty-one votes to adopt the motion.

ELECTION BY HOUSE.

59. In all cases of election by the house, the vote shall be taken viva voce.

CALLING AYES AND NOES.

60. The ayes and noes shall be taken on the final passage of all bills, and when called for by three members on other questions, and every member within the bar of the House, when his name is called, shall (unless for special reasons he be excused) declare openly, and without debate, his vote. In taking the ayes and noes, and upon call of the House, the names of the members shall be taken alphabetically, and the Clerk shall enter on the Journal the names of those demanding the ayes and noes.

MEMBERS AT CLERK'S DESK.

61. No member or other person shall remain by the Clerk's table while the ayes and noes are being called, or while the votes are being counted.

62. No person shall vote on any question in the result of which he is personally interested or involved.

DIVISION AND COUNT OF HOUSE.

63. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no person without the bar shall be counted.

EXPLAINING OR CHANGING VOTE.

64. No member shall be allowed to explain his vote or discuss the question while the ayes and noes are being called, and no member shall be allowed to change his vote after the vote is announced by the chair.

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

65. Upon a call of the House the names of the members shall be called over by the Clerk, and the absentees noted, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called over. The door shall then be shut, and those for whom no excuse or insufficient excuses are made, may, by order of those present, be taken into custody, as they appear, or may be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms wherever found, or by special messenger, to be appointed for that purpose. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the members present may order a call of the House and compel the attendance of absentees in the manner above provided. No recess can be taken during a call of the House.

SUSPENDING AND CHANGING RULES.

66. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without a vote of two thirds of the members of the Assembly, and one day's notice being given of the motion therefor; provided, that the Committee on Rules may at any time, except during a roll call, report a temporary rule providing for the consideration of any bill on the files of the House belonging to either of the following classes:

1. Bills affecting the state government, its revenue, its various departments or commissions, or appropriations therefor.
2. Bills affecting county and township governments, or roads and highways.

4. Bills amending election or primary election laws.

It shall always be in order to call up for consideration such report. The same shall be subject to amendments by the House.

On the adoption of such temporary rule by the House by a two-thirds vote thereof, if the bill be on third reading, and by a majority vote of the members elected to the House, if otherwise, such bill shall thereupon be made the special order for the time fixed therein.

A rule of order may be suspended temporarily by a vote of two thirds of the members present, except that portion of Rule 6 relating to third reading of bills. A motion or resolution proposing to increase or diminish a standing committee shall not be adopted until the same has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

The Committee on Rules may also, at any time, report a temporary rule or regulation. When such temporary rule or regulation shall have been adopted by a two-thirds vote of the House it shall have the effect, for the time being, of a standing rule, and if such temporary rule shall be in conflict with a standing rule it shall supersede said standing rule for the time being, and shall be enforced by the Speaker.

MEMBERS ABSENTING THEMSELVES.

67. No member shall absent himself from attendance at a session of the House without the leave of the House, except in case of sickness; and if any member or officer of the House absent himself without leave, his per diem shall not be allowed him; but no member shall obtain leave of absence, or be excused, without a vote of two thirds of the House, or by unanimous consent.

The motion shall give the title of the bill, and shall be accompanied by the bill. The bill shall thereupon be referred to the Committee on Introduction of Bills.

That committee shall examine bills referred to it with particular reference to the question as to whether there is already any bill in either house of the same character which might be amended to effect the result sought, and generally as to the advisability of introducing the measure.

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented and ordered printed in the Journal.

By Mr. Scott:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 21, 1913.

To the Honorable, the Members of the Legislature of the State of California, Sacramento, Cal.

GENTLEMEN: The Richmond Federation of Improvement Clubs respectfully petitions your honorable body to provide for a thorough and complete investigation into the affairs of the Francisca Maternity Hospital and Babies' Aid, formerly known as the San Francisco Lying-in Hospital and Foundling Asylum.

A committee of the Federation has made an investigation into the affairs of this institution, in so far as it has had the power, but not having any official authority, the committee was unable to make its investigation complete.

Sufficient facts were developed to show that the institution is not complying with the terms under which it obtained the right to the use of the property, and that a title has been obtained under the McEnerney Act without authority, and which we believe should be set aside.

In the interests of simple justice this Federation prays that the right and title of the people be protected.

Respectfully submitted.

RICHMOND CENTRAL IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

R. H. NORTON, Secretary-Treasurer.

J. J. PRATT, President.

Also:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 22, 1913.

To the Honorable the Members of the Assembly of the State of California, Sacramento, California.

GENTLEMEN: The Richmond Central Improvement Club herewith petitions your honorable body to conduct a rigid investigation into the affairs of the San Francisco Lying-in Hospital and Foundling Asylum, now known as the Francisca Maternity Hospital and Babies' Aid.

The people who have charge of this institution are not using the premises for the purposes set forth in the original grant. They have secured a McEnerney title and recently tried to dispose of the property through a local real estate firm for the sum of $75,000, but the deal fell through because the prospective purchaser was not satisfied with the title offered.

In one of the buildings, what appears to be a lodging-house is being conducted, as a number of men lounge around the porches at various hours of the day.

There is no foundling asylum being conducted, but in a small shack, an institution known as the "Babies' Aid" is carried on, very young babies being kept there for a few days at a time, or until they can be placed in boarding homes.

It has been found impossible to get the streets around this property improved, although repeated efforts have been made.

The charitable features of this institution are apparently mythical, as anyone who has been treated there has had to pay regular prices, so far as we have been able to learn.

Trusting that your honorable body will grant this petition and give our citizens relief from these conditions, we remain

Respectfully yours,

RICHMOND FEDERATION OF IMPROVEMENT CLUBS.

R. H. NORTON, Secretary.

DANIEL V. DREW, President.

Also:

SAN FRANCISCO, January 22, 1913.

To the Honorable Legislature of the State of California, Sacramento, Cal.

GENTLEMEN: The Lincoln Park Improvement Club, composed of resident home owners who reside in the immediate vicinity of the Francisca Maternity Hospital and Babies' Aid, herewith petition your honorable body to appoint a committee to investigate the standing and condition of the above-named institution.

Our citizens in the neighborhood are suffering from the conditions under which this institution is conducted. It is not a charitable institution, but is conducted for private profit, yet it pays no rent or taxes, nor can it be made to improve the streets surrounding the block which it occupies.

Though this institution only occupies this property and enjoys its use through a deed of trust from the city and county of San Francisco, they have had undisputed possession so long a time that they seem to think that they are the rightful owners, and we fully believe that they are liable to obtain title to the property without right.

The original grant was for a specific purpose and for no other use whatsoever, and we believe that the terms of the original grant are not and have not been complied with, and therefore the institution should no longer enjoy the use and possession of this property, but that the property should revert to the city and county of San Francisco, the original and only rightful owner.

Praying that your honorable body will grant this petition for simple justice to our members, we are,

Most respectfully,

LINCOLN PARK IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

J. J. PRATT, Secretary.

HENRY J. KESSEL, President.

By Mr. Canepa:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 23, 1913.

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California:

In 1895 the Legislature of this State enacted a law at the request of the barbers to close all barber shops on Sunday, but the Supreme Court declared it unconstitutional on the ground that it did not apply to all lines of business which public necessity did not require should be kept in daily operation. We now petition your honorable body to pass the Kehoe-Benedict "Sunday Rest Bill," which the best attorneys assure us will meet the constitutional test. The barbers helped to draft this bill. The Barbers' Protective Union of California, the Master Barbers' Association, the California State Federation of Journeymen Barbers and the various barbers' local unions throughout the State are backing this bill. Sunday closing of all barber shops in the State is what we want, what we claim to be our natural and American right, what the barbers of nearly all the states of the Union are now enjoying, and what we shall keep fighting for till it is ours. A law which only provides for one day of rest in seven means that many shops will be open every day and a shift of our men and women must be at their chairs on Sunday after a long Saturday. For the promotion of the social life, the home life, and the religious life of the men and women engaged in our craft, we urge and beseech you to pass the Sunday rest bill without amendment.

The above petition was endorsed by the undersigned union.

Attest: JOURNEY BARBERS' INTERNATIONAL UNION (Local 148).

ROE H. BAKER, Secretary.

By Mr. Hinkle:

To the Members of the Assembly:

We, the undersigned voters of California, residents of the city of San Diego, respectfully request your honorable body to enact a law prohibiting the manufacture, importation, transportation, distribution, buying, selling, giving or using of cigarettes, or cigarette wrapping paper, in this State, and we pray for heavy penalties in order to secure the law's enforcement.

H. K. HUFFMAN (and others).

Resolved, That the Assembly humbly recognizes its dependence upon Almighty God for strength and wisdom to conduct its business properly, and for the best interest of the people of this great State. That we recognize the propriety and importance of humbly invoking divine aid upon all our deliberations and to this end have placed upon the list of the officers of this Assembly the name of the Rev. RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY NAPA GRANGE, JANUARY 7, 1913.

WHEREAS, The trend of events has rendered it very difficult to enforce criminal law, be it

Resolved by Napa Grange No. 307, Patrons of Husbandry in regular meeting assembled:

1. That we endorse the action of the California Bar Association and the Commonwealth Club of California in their efforts to secure simpler methods of procedure in the trial of criminal cases (a) as to the selection of jurors; (b) as to the number of jurors required to render a verdict; (c) as to the weight to be given the testimony of accomplices; (d) as to instructions to jurors.

2. That we believe the powers of grand juries should be so enlarged that (a) they be empowered to initiate needed legislation; (b) they be empowered to order a recall election against incompetent or unworthy officials; (c) they be empowered to initiate action under Section 772 of the Penal Code of California for the summary removal from office of officials guilty under that section.

3. That copies of these resolutions be sent to the Governor of the State and the Representatives of Napa County in the State Legislature requesting their co-operation in making them effective.

4. That copies be sent to each of the granges in the State with the request that immediate steps be taken to pass similar resolutions, calling a special session if necessary in order that action be taken by the 20th instant, and copies of these resolutions be sent at once to the Governor of the State and their representatives in the State Legislature by the various granges.

5. That copies of these resolutions be given to the local and San Francisco press.

[SEAL]

NELLIE W. HUNT, Secretary Napa Grange.

By Mr. Clark:

OAKLAND, CAL., January 22, 1913.

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California:

In 1895 the Legislature of this state enacted a law at the request of the barbers to close all barber shops on Sunday, but the Supreme Court declared it unconstitutional on the ground that it did not apply to all lines of business which public necessity did not require should be kept in daily operation. We now petition your honorable body to pass the Kehoe-Benedict Sunday Rest Bill, which the best attorneys assure us will meet the constitutional test. The barbers helped to draft this bill. The Barbers' Protective Union of California, the Master Barbers' Association, the California State Federation of Journeymen Barbers and the various barbers' local unions throughout the State are backing this bill. Sunday closing of all barber shops in the State is what we want, what we claim to be our natural and American right, what the barbers of nearly all the states of the Union are now enjoying, and what we shall keep fighting for till it is ours. A law which only provides for one day of rest in seven means that many shops will be open every day and a shift of our men and women must be at their chairs on Sunday after a long Saturday. For the promotion of the social life, the home life, and the religious life of the men and women engaged in our craft, we urge and beseech you to pass the Sunday Rest bill without amendment.

The above petition was endorsed by the undersigned union.

Attest: F. B. PERRY.

GEO. K. SMITH,

[SEAL] Secretary, Local No. 134. President, Local No. 134, Barbers' Union.

If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the Chair, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if it be not sustained, then he shall be permitted to go on. Every such decision from the Chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House, but no discussion of a question of order shall be allowed, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Chair.

40. If any member be called to order for offensive words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall report the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table; and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to censure of the House, for language used in debate, if any member has spoken or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them shall have been taken.

Such statement, however, shall not be debatable, and such statement or statements shall not, in any case occupy more than two minutes.

Concurrent resolutions for adjournment sine die shall in all cases, whether originating in the House or coming from the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. 49. Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither a motion to add to nor a motion to strike out and insert.

SUBJECTS DIFFERENT FROM THE ONE UNDER CONSIDERATION.

51. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment.

58. On the day succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill or resolution has been taken, said vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member; provided, a notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given on the day on which such final vote was taken, by a member voting with the majority; and it shall not be in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the day on which such final vote was taken. Said motion of reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn. No notice of reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session. No motion to reconsider shall be adopted, except upon a roll call, and it shall require forty-one votes to adopt the motion.

The door shall then be shut, and those for whom no excuse or insufficient excuses are made, may, by order of those present, be taken into custody, as they appear, or may be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms wherever found, or by special messenger to be appointed for that purpose. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the members present may order a call of the House and compel the attendance of absentees in the manner above provided. No recess can be taken during a call of the House.

SUSPENDING AND CHANGING RULES.

66. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without a vote of two thirds of the members of the Assembly, and one day's notice being given of the motion therefor; provided, that the Committee on Rules may at any time, except during a roll call, report a temporary rule providing for the consideration of any bill on the files of the House belonging to either of the following classes:

A rule of order may be suspended temporarily by a vote of two thirds of the members present, except that portion of Rule 6 relating to third reading of bills. A motion or resolution proposing to increase or diminish a standing committee shall not be adopted until the same has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

The Committee on Rules may also, at any time, report a temporary rule or regulation. When such temporary rule or regulation shall have been adopted by a two-thirds vote of the House it shall have the effect, for the time being, of a standing rule, and if such temporary rule shall be in conflict with a standing rule it shall supersede said standing rule for the time being, and shall be enforced by the Speaker.

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION OF HANFORD.

HANFORD, CAL., January 18, 1913.

Hon. J. W. Guiberson, Assemblyman, Sacramento, Cal.

DEAR SIR: At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Merchants' Association of this city held January 16th, a resolution was adopted instructing the president and secretary to address a communication to you protesting against the proposed legislation limiting the hours of women and girls in the handling of green fruits in the canneries and cutting sheds to eight hours per day.

In the opinion of this board such a law at this time would work a great hardship on the women and girls it is proposed to protect and will be against the best interests of the fruit growers of this State; therefore we urge you to resist the passage of such a measure with all the powers at your command.

Thanking you in advance for your efforts in this behalf we are,

Yours respectfully,

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION OF HANFORD.

S. C. KIMBALL, President.

F. E. NEWTON, Secretary.

By Mr. Scott:

PARK-RICHMOND IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 23, 1913.

To the Members of the Assembly of the State of California.

GENTLEMEN: The Park-Richmond Improvement Club urges that the measure now before you looking toward an investigation of the affairs of the Franciscan Maternity Hospital and Babies' Aid (doing business in the Richmond district in this city and county) be given favorable consideration.

Rumor is current that this institution is not being conducted upon lines similar to that of other like institutions, and moreover, it has been reported that a judgment under the so-called McEnerney Act was obtained by said society, quieting the title in fee against the city of San Francisco; the conveyance from the city of San Francisco some years ago to the San Francisco Lying-in Hospital, included only a conditional estate, and was not an absolute grant.

We appeal to you to see that the interests of the city are protected, and believe that an investigation will do no harm.

Yours truly,

PARK-RICHMOND IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

S. W. MOLKENBUHN, President.

GEO. R. MEYERDERKS, Secretary.

By Mr. Walsh:

SAN FRANCISCO, January 23, 1913.

To the Senate and Assembly of the California Legislature:

This is to certify that the Grocery Clerks' Union, No. 648, of San Francisco, has endorsed the Sunday rest bill, introduced by Senator Kehoe and Assemblyman Benedict, and we urge its passage without amendment.

Our organization has been appealing to the churches to assist us in getting Sunday rest for all the grocery clerks of San Francisco, but we realize it can only be accomplished by a state law.

Many of our clerks claim the right to attend church on Sunday in this land of religious liberty, but whether they attend church or not, we believe that six days a week of business is an American, humane and modern way of conducting any mercantile business.

A bill now pending before you to provide for one day of rest in seven, fails to protect this highest right of American citizens.

The enactment of that bill into a law would leave the grocery store of the State open for seven days of the week.

Many nonunion stores kept by Greeks and others devoid of the American spirit are open on Sundays.

Within a few months, when the Panama canal opens, multitudes of foreigners will flood our city and open their seven-day stores on every street, and our American customs and our American Sabbath as a day of public rest will be overthrown without this protection which you alone can give.

We appeal to you for our American right to Sunday rest.

(Signed):

GROCERY CLERKS' UNION NO. 648.

W. R. CAMMACK, President.

A. H. BIERMAN, Secretary.

By Mr. Griffin:

Resolved by the Board of Supervisors of Madera County, That in the opinion of said board Section 4273 of the Political Code and Subdivision 2 thereof should be amended by striking therefrom and eliminating therefrom the last clause of said Subdivision 2, which is as follows: "and fifteen cents for each meal for feeding prisoners confined in the county jail;" it appearing to the board that under present conditions the sum of fifteen cents is insufficient to meet the cost of each meal of prison fare delivered at the jail; and it further appearing to this board that Section 4290 of the Political Code provides: "The board of supervisors shall allow the sheriff his necessary expenses for pursuing criminals, or transacting any criminal business, and for boarding prisoners in the county jail; provided, that the board of supervisors shall fix a reasonable price at which such prisoners shall be boarded if not otherwise provided for in this title."

With the elimination of the limitation of fifteen cents per meal, provided for in Section 4273, the existing law quoted above and contained in Section 4290 appears to us to be all that is necessary and proper in the matter.

Resolved, further, That the clerk of this board be and he is hereby instructed to forward by mail to Hon. John B. Curtin, State Senator from this district, and to Hon. J. J. Griffin, Assemblyman from this district, certified copies of this resolution.

Passed and adopted by the board of supervisors of Madera County this 8th day of January, 1913.

By Mr. Finnegan:

Resolution relative to the appointment of a committee to investigate the high cost of living, the actions of trusts and the cause of monopolies and maintenance of high prices in the State of California.

WHEREAS, The cost of living has for many years been gradually on the increase, augmenting more rapidly than the incomes of the people, especially those forced to labor daily for the support of themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, In the State of California trusts and monopolies, under various names and systems, have been formed for the purpose of controlling the product and increasing the price of supplies of all kinds, including food, clothing, building material and other commodities with the result that it is becoming daily more difficult for those of limited or small means to enjoy the comforts and necessities of life; and

WHEREAS, It appears that this increased cost of articles of all kinds is largely artificial and due to the unlawful and unjust manipulation of those controlling the markets of the State, and those who by unlawful agreements and combinations are depressing the price of produce to the farmers, orchardists, and stockmen, even going to the extent of destroying great quantities of foodstuffs and staples in order that said artificial high price may the more easily be maintained; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a special committee of five Assemblymen be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly to investigate the conditions which permit of such inequalities in the cost of production and the price of products to the consumer in the State of California, and also to inquire into the status of combinations and agreements and monopolies operating against the laws of the State, and to recommend to the Legislature at its next regular or special session such statutes as may tend to ameliorate the present conditions; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, to issue subpoenas whenever necessary and to enforce attendance, and to employ for that purpose and the purpose of the aforesaid investigation such clerical and other help as may be necessary; and there is hereby appropriated out of the contingent fund of the Assembly such sum or sums as may be necessary to defray the traveling and contingent expenses connected with said investigation.

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Rules.

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2.

Relative to requesting the United States Congress to authorize and direct the postal savings system to loan its funds to school districts.

WHEREAS, Under the Act of Congress now in force, which establishes a postal savings system throughout the United States, there is no authority by which the board of trustees of said postal savings system is permitted to loan the funds of said system to the various school districts throughout the nation; and

WHEREAS, It appears that, if such authority existed, the school districts of this State, and every state would be able thereby to obtain money directly from the funds of said postal savings system with more facility and at lower rates of interest; and

WHEREAS, It appears that, by their ability to borrow money more easily and under better conditions, the school districts of this State and of every state will receive great benefits of economy, saving and financial prosperity which will consequently afford the rising generation of our nation better education and development: be it, therefore,

Resolved, That the Senate and Assembly of the State of California hereby join in requesting the Congress of the United States to amend the Act establishing the postal savings system in such manner as will authorize and direct the board of trustees of said postal savings system to loan the funds of said system directly to the various school districts of the nation, and that our representatives in the Senate and the House of Representatives of Congress do their utmost to further such legislation as will effect the above result; and be it further

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 3.

Relative to the establishment of a postal telegraph system.

WHEREAS, The establishment of a postal telegraph system would be a profitable and economic extension of our postal business; and

WHEREAS, Because of the more extensive organization maintained by the postal service, and the freedom from taxation and other charges to which a private corporation is subject, the Federal Government undoubtedly will be able to afford greater telegraphic facilities at lower rates to the people than the companies now conducting this business; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate and Assembly of the State of California hereby join in requesting the Congress of the United States to enact appropriate legislation providing for the establishment of a postal telegraph system to be operated in conjunction with the mail service; be it further

Resolved, That our representatives in the Senate and House of Representatives at Washington be instructed to do their utmost to forward such legislation; and be it further

WHEREAS, Under the provisions of Section 2 of the said law, the State must have provided by law for a system of forest fire protection; and the Federal expenditure in any state must not exceed in any Federal fiscal year the amount appropriated by the State for the same purpose; and

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. McDonald (by request) :

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., January 25, 1913.

To the Honorable Legislature of California:

The undersigned bakers' union petitions the Legislature to pass the Kehoe-Benedict Sunday rest law, which a representative from our union assisted to draft. It was in 1880 that your body enacted a Sunday closing law applying only to bake shops. But the Supreme Court declared it unconstitutional because it was not general in its application, not applying to all unnecessary Sunday business and labor. The bill now before you has been favorably passed upon by some of the best constitutional lawyers of the State. After 33 years without any State law to protect us from Sunday labor, the bakers of the State, who provide you the staff of life, again appeal to you for help. While the organized bakers among the German-Americans have been holding out for a six-day week, many of the Latin bakers know no rest day. As soon as the canal opens this class will rapidly increase, and the law of competition must be counteracted by the law of the State. We claim the right to sit down on Sunday with our families and neighbors and eat the bread and cake we bake for you on Saturday. And some of our craft would gladly partake of the bread of life in the house of worship if they could have a full Sabbath day off duty. We petition for the passage of our bill without amendment.

Signed in behalf of Bakers' Local Union, No. 24, representing the organized bakers of San Francisco City and County.

THEO. LINDQUIST, Secretary-Treasurer.

By Mr. Canepa:

To the Legislature of California:

This is to certify to you that the Butchers' Union Local No. 115 of San Francisco, have endorsed the Kehoe-Benedict Sunday rest bill. The butchers of this city will depend upon your honorable body to protect them in their American right to enjoy with their families and their friends the American Sunday rest day without having the nonunion shops stealing away their trade. Upon the opening of the Panama canal these un-American competitors will be greatly multiplied. You alone can protect our rights. The butchers of the metropolis of the State will not be satisfied with anything less than the Sunday closing of all shops belonging to our trade. This is the common law among the states of the Union, and it works no injustice to any one. "One day of rest in seven" will allow the shops to remain open every day of the week and some one will have to be on duty. We respectfully request the passage of the Sunday rest bill without amendment.

Respectfully yours,

J. J. KRETZMER, Corresponding Secretary.

P. S.—Kindly have the clerk read this communication and order it printed in the Daily Journal, and please mail us a copy of the Journal so that we can refer same to the membership of our union.

By Mr. Johnston:

RICHMOND, CAL., January 18, 1913.

To the Hon. T. D. Johnston, the State House, Sacramento, Cal.:

Be it resolved by Contra Costa County Building Trades Council in and for the city of Richmond, California, and in regular meeting assembled, that:

WHEREAS, The interests of labor and the demands of an enlightened civilization require the curbing of the power of judges in issuing injunctions in cases of industrial disputes; trial by jury in contempt cases arising from such dispute; the elimination of property qualifications for petty and grand jurors; the abolition of the poll tax system; a state employment bureau and the curbing of the activities of employment agents; state inspection of mines and scientific sanitation of all places of employment in the State; cash payments for wage, and the regulation of wage payments for seasonal labor; better protection of employees of public utility companies; an humane enlargement and a stricter enforcement of child labor laws; an expansion of the woman's eight hour law; a system of pensions for mothers; and a popular system of university extension work; and

WHEREAS, A pernicious attempt is being made to emasculate the present law, providing for the recall of elective officers, and also to defeat the measure requiring one day's rest in seven on the part of employees with the State; and

WHEREAS, The foundation of the republic lies in happy homes, and from the nature of the existing system of industry, the larger number of homes must be the homes of the working people; now, therefore, be it

Resolved. That we commend the above mentioned measures to your immediate and earnest attention: that we expect you, as the representative of this community in the Legislature of the State of California, to do all in your power to secure the passage of humane and progressive laws along the lines above suggested; and be it further

Resolved. That we especially condemn the attempt to emasculate and defeat the two measures last above mentioned; that we will watch with interest your course in regard to these measures, and that we hereby assure you of our interest in you and our good will toward you; and be it further

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be placed on file in our local union and a copy be sent by mail to the Honorable T. D. Johnston at Sacramento, Cal.

(Signed) W. W. THOMPSON, President.
J. O. DAHL, Secretary.

[SEAL]

By Mr. Stuckenbruck:

We, the undersigned citizens of California and residents of the county of San Joaquin, hereby respectfully petition and request the California Board of Fish and Game Commissioners and members of the committees of the great Fish and Game Protective Association of California that in the presenting of their recommendations to the State Legislature of changes desired in the fish and game laws of this state they recommend the repeal of Section 626, entitled "Wild Ducks; Shooting from Power Boat Prohibited."

Our reasons for desiring its repeal we believe to be good and sound, as follow:

The shooting grounds for ducks and aquatic fowl are, with scarce an exception, owned by private individuals or leased by gun clubs whose membership is restricted, and the rank and file of the common people are absolutely ineligible and not permitted to become members.

Any hunter knows that it is practically impossible to obtain a shot at these fowls in the rivers and streams without the use of a power boat.

Therefore, as long as Section 626 remains on the statute books the actual effect is to deprive nineteen out of twenty of the holders of hunting licenses from a possible opportunity to legally secure for himself, by his own efforts, a mess of ducks.

We firmly believe that your body intend to favor legislation which shall not savor of class legislation, but be fair to the larger majority.

Relying in that belief, we ask your influence in favor of the nineteen.

HENRY D. PELLE (and others).

By Mr. Guiberson:

HANFORD, CAL., January 24, 1913.

Hon. J. W. Guiberson, Assemblyman, Sacramento, Cal.

DEAR SIR: At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of Kings County, held on January 18th, which was attended by a large number of the representative farmers and other gentlemen, the subject of the bill now on the statute of this State known as the Employers' Liability Act and the proposed amendment whereby the farmers are to be exempt, was taken up and was discussed at considerable length. It was the unanimous opinion that the present bill and the proposed amendment were bad, working an unnecessary hardship on all classes, being both unfair and unjust.

A motion was made and unanimously passed that a committee of three be appointed to confer with as many of our citizens as possible and find out what the opinion of our people was in regard to the matter.

The undersigned were appointed and after interviewing a large number of our farmers and business men we are thoroughly satisfied that our farmers are not only opposed to this amendment, but they, as well as our business and manufacturing interests, believe that the present Employers' Liability Act should be repealed.

We believe that the best interests of the State at large would be better conserved by such repeal rather than by any amendment thereto, and we earnestly urge yourself and Senator E. O. Larkins to use your best efforts to that end.

Very respectfully,

B. L. BARNEY,
E. F. PICKERILL,
L. H. HITCHCOCK,
Committee.

Hon. W. S. Killingsworth, Assemblyman Tenth District.

DEAR SIR: We, the undersigned citizens and business men of Rio Vista, Cal., respectfully petition you to use your influence toward the introduction of a measure to open Cache Slough to the commercial fishermen. We believe that an injustice has been done the fishermen of our district by the closing of Cache Slough. The many steamers and launches plying to and fro on the Sacramento River has made fishing almost impossible at this point.

20. In case there is but one person to be elected to an office, the candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast for all the candidates for that office shall be declared elected; in case there are two or more persons to be elected to an office, as that of councilman, then those candidates equal in number to the number to be elected, who receive the highest number of votes for such an office shall be declared elected; provided, however, that no person shall be declared elected to any office at such first election unless the number of votes received by him shall be greater than one half the number of ballots cast at such election.

21. If at any election held as above provided there be any office to which the required number of persons was not elected, then as to such office the said first election shall be considered to have been a primary election for the nomination of candidates, and a second election shall be held to fill said office. Section 4. The provisions of the state law relating to the qualifications of electors, the manner of voting, the duties of election officers, the canvassing of returns, and all other particulars in respect to the management of elections, so far as they may be applicable, shall govern all municipal elections; provided, that the council shall meet as a canvassing board and duly canvass the election returns within seven days after any municipal election.

Section 10. In order to obtain a druggist's permit under this article the application shall be filed with the city clerk of said city, signed and duly verified by the applicant, setting forth: The particular place, including street and number, where such business is to be conducted, and that the applicant is a person of good moral character, and that he is a registered pharmacist, under the laws of this State, and is lawfully and in good faith engaged, or is about to become engaged personally in the business of a druggist in said city, as the proprietor or manager thereof, at the place designated in his petition, and that he will not violate or evade, nor allow any of his clerks, servants, agents or employees to violate or evade this article or any ordinance of said city relating to intoxicating liquors.

Said applicant shall accompany his application with a good and sufficient joint and several bond, to the city of Long Beach, in the penal sum of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, executed by himself as principal, and two sureties, with a justification of each surety attached thereto, that he is a resident and freeholder in said city, and worth the amount of said bond, over and above all his debts and liabilities in unincumbered real property situated within the county of Los Angeles, exclusive of property exempt from execution and forced sale; and said bond shall be conditioned that said applicant, and every one in his employ, will well and truly observe and obey this article and all ordinances now, or hereafter, in force in relation to intoxicating liquors in said city, during the time for which the said permit is granted; and on violation of any of the provisions of said bond the same shall thereby become forfeited and the amount thereof shall become due and payable to the city of Long Beach, and may be recovered in a civil action brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the said city of Long Beach against the persons liable thereon.

Section 11. Said city council shall, if satisfied with the sufficiency of the sureties on said bond, approve the same, and thereupon, unless said applicant or some person in his employ has been convicted of violating the charter, laws or ordinances of said city relating to intoxicating liquors, shall issue to said applicant, upon payment by him of a fee of $25.00 therefor to the city clerk, a druggist's permit, signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk under the seal of the said city of Long Beach, which permit shall authorize said registered pharmacist, or assistant pharmacist, under the laws of this State, to sell intoxicating liquors for bona fide medical purposes only, in accordance with this article, upon the written prescription of a physician, as in this article provided; and it shall be unlawful for the holder of any such druggist's permit to allow the drinking, on his premises, or upon any premises occupied or controlled by him, of any intoxicating liquors, or to permit any violation of this article in or upon any premises owned, occupied or controlled by him. And said permit shall continue in force for the period of one year from the date of its issuance, unless sooner cancelled or revoked in the manner herein provided.

Section 12. Whenever any person, either as owner, agent, employee or otherwise, shall have been convicted of violating any of the provisions of this article or any ordinance of the city of Long Beach, relating to intoxicating liquors, any druggist's permit held by the owner or proprietor or manager of any drug store where such violation was committed must thereupon be immediately revoked and canceled by said city council, and no other or further permit shall be issued to such owner or proprietor, or any other person by whom, or for any place where he may be employed.

Section 13. Whenever the father, mother, brother, sister, wife, husband or guardian or any relative of any person, shall notify any holder of a druggist's permit that such person, naming him, uses intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and shall forbid said druggist from selling, bartering or giving to such person any intoxicating liquors, it shall be unlawful for any such holder of a druggist's permit, after such notice, to let such person have any intoxicating liquors upon prescription, or otherwise.

Section 14. Every act in violation of this article shall separately, or for each day of its continuance, be deemed a separate offense, and any person who shall in any manner encourage, aid, abet or assist in the violation of this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and any clerk, servant, agent or person committing any act in violation of this article shall be deemed guilty as principal.

Section 15. Any violation of this article, or any of the provisions thereof, shall constitute a misdemeanor, and every person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this article shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars and not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail of the city of Long Beach for not more than six months, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court in which conviction is had.

Section 16. The council may, by ordinance, provide additional penalties not inconsistent with law for the violation of the provision of this article and may adopt such further restrictions as will make the said provisions effective, and shall have power to adopt ordinances further regulating, restraining and prohibiting the liquor traffic, not inconsistent with this article.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES.

The following explanation of votes were filed and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Schmitt:

MR. SPEAKER: I desire to have printed in the Journal the following explanation of my vote upon Assembly Bill No. 197:

I have voted in favor of Assembly Bill No. 197 for the reason that I presume it is necessary to provide more funds for the operation of the state government during the ensuing two fiscal years, although I do not believe that the percentages set forth in this bill are proper, or in accordance with the Constitution or the law.

The committees considering this measure claimed to attempt to equalize the rates as between the corporations, but in my judgment the rates provided in this bill do not equalize, but as a matter of fact accomplish a directly opposite result.

I may illustrate: The railroads and street railways and telephone and telegraph companies, according to the special report of the Board of Equalization, are paying ninety cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, the gas and electric companies seventy-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation and the express companies one dollar and fifty-four cents on the one hundred dollars valuation. In this bill the rate on railroads and street railways is increased by eighteen and three fourths per cent, the telephone and telegraph companies twenty per cent, while the rate on gas and electric companies is only increased fifteen per cent and the rate on express companies is left at its unequally high rate of one dollar and fifty-four cents without any reduction.

Furthermore, the rate on banks is not increased and the rate on insurance companies is raised by sixteen and two thirds per cent.

In view of these facts, I have reached the conclusion that instead of attempting equalization as between the various classes of corporations, the increases in the rates as set forth in this measure, have been estimated for the sole purpose of raising an extra amount of revenue from certain classes of corporations. In conclusion, an increase of the revenue is the only justifiable reason for these rates, and on that basis I vote for the bill.

MILTON L. SCHMITT,

Assemblyman Thirty-first District.

By Mr. Finnegan:

I voted for Assembly Bill No. 197 because, while I regard the raises on most of the corporations as too low, it is a step in the right direction.

RESOLUTION—(OUT OF ORDER).

The following resolution was offered:

By Mr. Johnston:

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be authorized to have printed for distribution, 500 copies of the report of the State Librarian, containing list of authorities on employers' liability, state insurance and workmen's compensation.

Resolution read, and on motion adopted.

PETITION.

The following petition relative to the Sunday rest law was presented, and ordered printed in the Journal.

By Mr. Kingsley:

LOS ANGELES, January 27, 1913.

To the Honorable Senators and Assemblymen of the California Legislature now in session in Sacramento.

GENTLEMEN: Because an attempt is being made to secure, through your honorable body, the passage of a Sunday rest law, we, the members of the Seventh-day Baptist Church of Los Angeles, Cal, deem it our privilege and duty, as liberty-loving citizens of this commonwealth, to send you this protest against the enactment of such a law, for the following reasons, namely:

1. We believe the Sunday rest law, that is proposed, to be in direct opposition to that portion of the Constitution of this State that declares that "The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be guaranteed in this State," and as directly opposed to the Constitution of the United States which says that "No state shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States."

2. We believe that to compel the observance of Sunday as a Sabbath by law would be the enforcement of a religious dogma by legislative authority, and a practical union of church and state, which would be a direct thrust at the principles of religious liberty, which were so carefully guarded by our forefathers in adopting the fundamental principles upon which they founded this government.

3. We believe such a religious class-law would be radically unjust, for by it one religious class would be favored with advantages to the great disadvantage and hardship of another religious class.

4. We believe that civil government was instituted to protect the rights of citizens of state and nation. The proposed law would violate the rights of free conscience and free worship of a large and law-abiding class of citizens of this State.

5. There is a large number of worthy and loyal citizens of this State who observe the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath and not the first day of the week commonly called Sunday. To them, such a law would work very grave hardships and great injustice.

We, therefore, with this protest, would respectfully request that your honorable bodies defeat the passage of the Sunday rest bill referred to.

GEO. W. HILLS, Pastor.

L. A. PLATTS, President Trustees.

By Mr. Nelson:

MEMORIAL IN OPPOSITION TO A SUNDAY CLOSING LAW IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.
To the Honorable Senators and Assemblymen of the State Legislature of California, convened at the City of Sacramento, January 6, 1913.

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, rabbis and clergymen, of the cities of San Francisco and Oakland and vicinity, wish hereby to endorse the memorial presented to your honorable body in opposition to a Sunday closing law in the State of California, which has already been placed before your honorable body, by representatives of the synagogues of Los Angeles, by the Pacific Religious Liberty Association, the Pacific Union Conference Seventh Day Adventists, the Christian Sabbath Keepers' Union, the Western League for the Preservation of Civil Liberty, as well as by various ministers of the Seventh Day Baptist churches of California.

We sincerely trust and believe that you will not fail to support the existing guarantees of absolute freedom in religious matters established by the State and the nation for the protection of the entire community. As America has stood for religious freedom in the past, so may the nation and constituent states continue to stand in defense of civil and religious liberty, and for the absolute equality of all citizens under the law.

Very respectfully submitted.

BERNARD M. KAPLAN,
Rabbi Bush Street Temple (and others).

By Mr. Slater:

SANTA ROSA, CAL., January 30, 1913.

The following resolution adopted by Tulare Grange was unanimously endorsed by Santa Rosa Grange, No. 17, Patrons of Husbandry, at a regular meeting held January 25, 1913:

Resolved. That the enactment and enforcement of a strict eight-hour labor day for women and children will work a serious hardship to a leading industry (fruit growing) of our State, the effect of which would be detrimental to all its interests, including growers, packers, canners and laborers themselves, especially women and children who find in fruit handling a profitable and pleasant source of employment.

As nearly all work in the fruit handling line is done either by piece or by the hour, any move to limit the hours of labor per day is a direct blow not only to the fruit industry, but to labor as well, and in many cases will result in reducing or wiping out what has been a profitable source of income to many families that depend upon the fruit industry to supply their wants.

Respectfully,

MRS. MARTHA L. GAMBLE,
Secretary Santa Rosa Grange, 920 College Ave.,
Santa Rosa, Cal.

By Mr. Strine:

To the Members of the Legislature of the State of California.

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, residents of the State of California, desire the enactment of a law adequately protecting abalones in the waters of this State.

Because of the fact that this shellfish is in immediate danger of extermination, because of the use of diving apparatus by abalone fishermen, we respectfully request that you enact a law prohibiting the use of such diving apparatus for the purpose of catching, etc., abalones, in the waters of the State of California. The attached amendment is, therefore, respectfully requested.

By Mr. Killingsworth:

VALLEJO, CAL., January 29, 1913.

To the HONORABLE BEN F. RUSH and W. S. KILLINGSWORTH, Legislative representatives, Sacramento, Cal.

SIRS: Acting in response to a motion unanimously passed by the New Era Club, a civic organization representing the women citizens of the city of Vallejo, we earnestly petition you, our representatives in the California Legislature now in session, to take such immediate action as shall be necessary to secure for the city of Vallejo, an assistant probation officer, a resident of this city, under a regular and sufficient salary, to the end that juvenile offenders may be more intelligently dealt with than is possible under the present arrangements. Under the present conditions erring boys and girls must be conveyed an inconvenient distance to the town of Fairfield and subjected to a degree of publicity which is not consistent with the best means of dealing with such offenders.

We invite your consideration to the fact that the population of the city of Vallejo exceeds the population of the remainder of Solano County, and to the unfortunate conditions also, and the awful and unusual influences that exist in a city situated as Vallejo is situated.

In behalf of the boys and girls who must live under these conditions and with the deepest concern for their future citizenship, we respectfully urge you to use your best efforts to carry out the intent of the foregoing petition.

MRS. GEO. WENIGER,
FLORENCE McKERNAN,
Committee.

We, the undersigned petitioners, desire to add our petition to the foregoing.

ADDIE M. LUCY (and others).

By Mr. Guiberson:

To the HONORABLE J. W. GUIBERSON, Assemblyman of the Fifty-fourth Assembly District, State of California:

WHEREAS, The harvesting and handling of perishable fruit in the orchards and cutting sheds takes place in the open;

WHEREAS, The handling and packing in the green fruit shipping establishments and canneries is done in sanitary, well ventilated buildings;

WHEREAS, The work in the cutting sheds and above mentioned factories almost entirely is piece work;

WHEREAS, The work is light and of no great strain on body or mind, as experience has taught us;

WHEREAS, Our conditions are not to be compared with those existing in sweat-shops and the like;

WHEREAS, The fruit season lasts only fifty days of the year and the rush of same hardly more than thirty of said fifty days;

WHEREAS, We desire to earn or need the money, this harvest and work offers us, to support or educate ourselves or others; therefore

We women of Kings County, State of California, who have worked or might desire to work in the cutting sheds, orchards, green fruit shipping establishments, canneries, etc., appeal to you to use all power at your command to oppose the passing of a bill prohibiting us to work in the above mentioned orchards or factories any longer than eight hours.

MRS. M. BASSETT (and others).

Resolved, That the Controller be and is hereby directed to draw his warrant upon the Contingent Expense Fund of the Assembly in favor of L. B. Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Contingent Expenses.

By Mr. McDonald:

WHEREAS, The Honorable I. A. Richardson, representing the Twenty-ninth District in the Assembly from San Francisco, is about to leave the ranks of bachelorhood and take unto himself a wife; and,

WHEREAS, It appears from common report that he will not return until after the recess of the bifurcated session; and,

WHEREAS, According to custom, and responding to the desires of his colleagues from San Francisco, the congratulations of this august body are due to this successful young man, and it is meet that this Assembly do send the Hon. I. A. Richardson on his way to the altar with the well wishes of the Assembly of the State of California ringing in his ears, so that he will be made brave, bold and strong for the ordeal through which he must go; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Assembly of the State of California respectfully extends to the Hon. I. A. Richardson the compliments of its members; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be printed in the Journal, and the Chief Clerk is hereby authorized to forward a copy to Mr. and Mrs. Richardson after Sunday night at their home in San Francisco.

Resolution read, and on motion adopted.

By Mr. Shartel:

WHEREAS, The waters of nearly all of the fishing streams of Modoc county are, and have been for many years, used for irrigation purposes; and

WHEREAS, At the time that these waters were appropriated for such purposes by the land owners of the county, the State of California granted them the right to use the waters of the various streams in the county without let or hindrance; and

WHEREAS, The crops that are produced by the use of the waters of such streams for irrigation purposes are far more valuable to any community than the fish in such streams; and

WHEREAS, The farmers that use the waters of the streams for irrigation purposes are not the people who are benefited by the fish or fishing; but, instead, their growing crops are damaged by fishermen who trespass thereon; and

WHEREAS, The majority of the people that fish are from the towns and villages and pay nothing for fishing privileges, and nothing toward maintaining the protection of the fish in the streams; but, on the other hand, damage the farmer's growing crops, which is the foundation of their own prosperity and well-being as well as that of the farmer, by trampling them down while fishing; and

WHEREAS, The game laws require the farmer to maintain, in the head of his ditches, a screen with so small a mesh that the floating debris lodging in the meshes thereof soon forms a solid dam across the intakes of his ditches, causing him a great annoyance and damage by damming off his irrigation water and drying up his crops; and

WHEREAS, The present law puts the expense of protecting the fish in the streams entirely upon the farmer, and the farmer does very little fishing; and allows the sportsmen and the town people to fish without any expense to themselves for maintaining the protection of the fish in the streams; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the law as it now stands is unjust, because it requires the farmer to do the protecting, and allows the sportsmen and the town people, who do the most of the fishing and get the most of the fish, to go free of any charge for maintaining and protecting the fish in the streams; and be it further

Resolved, That the law should be so changed as to require each and every fisherman to purchase a license for the privilege of fishing; and that the money collected in this way in a county be expended in such county by the county game warden for such county, in placing and maintaining such obstructions in the intakes of the irrigation ditches and in the fishing streams of such county as will protect the fish and not retard the flow of the water to the detriment of the man that irrigates, stopping it out of his ditches and turning it off his crops.

(Signed) E. F. AUBLE,
President Modoc County Fish and Game Protective Association.
THOS. BRILES,
Secretary Modoc County Fish and Game Protective Association.

Approved by the Executive Board of the Alturas Stock Association on this 23d day of January, 1913.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was filed and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Sutherland:

SACRAMENTO, January 31, 1913.

HON. W. A. SUTHERLAND, Assembly Chamber.

DEAR SIR: I am very much in favor of the inclusion in the Assembly Bill No. 197 the matter set forth in italics in section six.

In subdivision f of Section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution it is provided that the rates therein fixed shall "remain in force until changed by the Legislature, two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof." In determining whether or not the rates in that provision so fixed shall be changed the Legislature acts not as a legislative but as a taxing body. Before any taxing body decides and adopts the rates of taxes it is essential that such body investigate property values and the rates of taxation paid by property other than that to which the rates adopted by them are to be applied. This involves investigation and consideration and the resulting determination.

The language in the section referred to recites a compliance with these requirements by the Legislature. It is probably true that in the absence of this language the performance of these duties would be presumed. I think it far better that the bill contain a recital of such performance rather than to have the fact rest merely upon presumption.

During 1912 my office tried something over eighty cases in which all phases of the new method of taxation were involved, and the experience gained in those cases has convinced me that the provision referred to should be incorporated in the Act.

Respectfully yours,

U. S. WEBB, Attorney General.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES.

The following explanations of votes were filed and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Polsley:

MR. SPEAKER: I believe that the public service corporations mentioned had due notice, but that the rates fixed and determined herein are too low and not in proportion to the valuation of other property, as shown by the testimony presented to the committee. I, however, vote for the amendment because I believe that the public service corporations had due notice; and further, because I believe the rates herein fixed more nearly represent an equality of ratios as between the corporations and other property than the present rate.

By Mr. Mouser:

MR. SPEAKER: I desire to have printed in the Journal the following explanation of my vote upon Assembly Bill No. 197:

I have voted in favor of Assembly Bill No. 197 for the reason that it is necessary to provide more funds for the operation of the State government during the ensuing two fiscal years, but that I do not feel that the raises on some of the corporations set forth in this bill are high enough.

By Mr. Schmitt:

MR. SPEAKER: I opposed and voted against the concurrence in this amendment for the reason that in the statement of my vote on this bill when it was passed, and as printed in the Assembly Journal of January 28, at pages 34 and 35, I voted for the bill although I was then, and am now, convinced that the rates are not an attempt at equalization as between the various classes of corporations, but accomplish a directly opposite result.

This amendment merely adds a self-serving declaration to the effect that the rates are in proportion to the value of every and all other and different property, whereas the rates when figured out disclose an opposite state of facts to exist, viz: that there is now a wider difference in rates as between the various classes of corporations than heretofore existed.

By Mr. Bloodgood:

MR. SPEAKER: I desire to have printed in the Journal the following explanation of my vote on Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 197:

I voted for the amendment because I think that the Legislature did the best it could in the short time at its disposal to change the rates under Constitutional Amendment No. 1, in view of the fact, also, that under the Constitution as to the provisions for having the levy made before March 1, 1913, and that the Legislature did the best it could in making estimates upon the plan and upon the basis suggested by the Board of Equalization, and I reserve the right to study the question of rates more fully.

By Mr. Peairs:

MR. SPEAKER: In voting "Aye" to Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 197, I am supporting the report of the committee, believing that the conclusions reached are the best possible under the circumstances, and within the time at our disposal.

By Mr. Brown:

MR. SPEAKER: I voted to concur in the Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 197, known as the Revenue and Taxation Bill, although I am not satisfied as to the propriety of or necessity for the amendments, nor with the bill in its entirety. I recognize the importance of passing this bill before the constitutional recess; and as the constitutionality of the bill as amended in the Senate has been sustained by the Attorney General of the State, as was stated by the chairman of the Committee on Revenue and Taxation on the floor of the Assembly during the debate on the Senate amendments to the bill, notwithstanding I have personally grave doubt as to the constitutionality of some portions of the bill, and object to some of the rates contained in it, I voted to concur in the Senate amendments and the passage of the bill as an urgency measure.

LOS ANGELES, January, 28, 1913.

HON. C. C. YOUNG, Speaker of the Assembly of the State of California; Senators and Assemblymen of the State of California, in session assembled at Sacramento, California—Greetings:

At a meeting of the city council of the city of Los Angeles held January 28, 1913, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, The city of Vernon, a city of the sixth class, adjoining and contiguous to the city of Los Angeles, by permitting an almost unrestricted liquor traffic, prize-fighting practically without limitations, and by allowing the operation of low dives and moral pest holes has become a social and moral menace to the city of Los Angeles, and particularly to the youth of this community; and,

WHEREAS, It is possible to establish these miniature "Monte Carlos" on the outskirts of Los Angeles, or any large city, at any point by incorporating a city of the sixth class; and,

WHEREAS, Such communities are likely to become moral leeches which attach themselves to the larger city for the purpose of preying upon the weaker element of the larger community by permitting license, disorder, and unrestricted conduct which are prohibited in the larger community, and which are repugnant to a majority of the residents of the larger city; and,

WHEREAS, The establishment of such disorderly and parasitical communities tends to nullify and reduce to a minimum the force and effect of ordinances and police regulations of the larger city relative to liquor traffic, prize-fighting and the maintenance of disorderly establishments; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the city of Los Angeles prays relief from this situation by appeal to the State Legislature to adopt such laws as will compel cities of the sixth class located within a radius of two miles of any city operating under a freeholder's charter to conform to the police regulations and ordinances of said larger charter cities relative to the sale, and distribution of spirituous, malt, vinous, and other intoxicating liquors, to prize-fighting, conduct or maintenance of houses of prostitution or ill-fame and other matters pertaining to the immorality and disorderly conduct in such communities; and

Resolved, That an appeal is hereby made to the county grand jury and the board of supervisors of Los Angeles County to investigate conditions prevailing in said city of Vernon during the past year, and take whatever action may be in their power to abate the nuisance above referred to; and

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Governor of the State, the State Senate and Assembly and to all the representatives from Los Angeles in the State Senate and Assembly, to the county grand jury and to the board of supervisors of Los Angeles County.

Respectfully,

CHAS. L. WILDE, City Clerk.

At a meeting of the city council of the city of Los Angeles held January 28, 1913, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, The indiscriminate manner of drafting jurors often results in the obtaining of citizens of low intellect, possessing no experience or comprehension of the law; and,

WHEREAS, It appearing to the satisfaction of the council that beneficial results could be obtained by the inauguration of a trial term jury system; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the city council of the city of Los Angeles, That the State Legislature now convening be requested to procure an amendment to the present law for cities of the first and one half class providing for the establishment of a trial term jury system for the police courts of this city; and, be it further

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT,
BERKELEY, January 29, 1913.

MY DEAR MR. YOUNG: I should be glad if you would convey to members of the Assembly an invitation to visit the University of California individually or in groups at such time as might be found convenient to them during the thirty days intervening between the close of the present and the opening of the next session of the Legislature. There are many things at the university that would be of interest to the Assemblymen. I should be glad of the opportunity to receive such members as might come, and would do all in my power to make their visit interesting and beneficial.

Very faithfully yours,

BENJ. IDE WHEELER.

HON. C. C. YOUNG, Assembly Chamber, Sacramento, California.

Also:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY STATE HARBOR COMMISSIONERS,
SAN FRANCISCO, January 31, 1913.

To the Honorable the Assembly of the State of California, Sacramento, Cal.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to inform you that at a meeting of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners held yesterday, resolution, copy of which is herewith enclosed, was unanimously adopted.

In pursuance therewith, your honorable body is respectfully invited to attend the public exercises to be held on the date mentioned in said resolution, viz: Saturday, March 8, 1913.

WHEREAS, The belt railroad connection between the two divisions north and south of Market street is approaching completion; and

WHEREAS, The completion of the same will be of immense advantage to the shipping interests by substituting a single belt railway haul of freight cars around the city front, in place of the present expensive and dilatory method of shipping such cars by freight ferry boats from one division of the belt railroad to the other; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the completion of the belt railroad connection be duly celebrated by public exercises, to which shall be invited the Governor and the Legislature of the State of California, and the mayor and supervisors of San Francisco, and that the date of such exercises be fixed for Saturday, March 8, 1913.

Very respectfully,

LEO V. MERLE, Jr., Secretary.

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were filed and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Bohnett:

WHEREAS, There are only two systems of appointments in the public service, viz: the political system and the merit system, and

WHEREAS, The political system inevitably degenerates into the spoils system, and in any case is unfair to the individuals who have no pull; and

WHEREAS, The merit system gives a square deal: first, to the community, in that it furnishes the best available service and equality of opportunity to all applicants; second, to the heads of departments, in that it emancipates them from the army of job hunters and gives them time for their duties; third, to the employee, in that it delivers them from political obligations and opens to them a career through promotion: and

WHEREAS, The women, through the suffrage, share in the responsibilities of government, and should have equal consideration in public employment, which they would receive under the merit system; and

WHEREAS, The Federation of Women's Clubs has long had a standing committee for the purpose of securing the adoption of civil service principles; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Friday Morning Club declares itself in favor of the merit system and urges upon the Governor and the members of the Legislature the passage of a thorough-going civil service law.

DR. AMELIA L. GATES, Chairman Public Affairs.

MRS. DAN'L C. McCAN, President.

By Mr. Chandler:

To the Legislative bodies of California:

From the fruit growers, female workers in green fruits, and that part of the general public which is largely dependent, wholly or in part, directly or indirectly, upon the green fruit industry for its existence, of Fowler Township, Fresno County, California, against the passage of the proposed amendment to the eight-hour labor law so as to include within its scope the green fruit industry.

DORMA GRUMM (and others).

By Mr. Slater:

CLOVERDALE, CAL., January 27, 1913.

WHEREAS, The State of California is considering the advisability of enlarging the scope of the new eight-hour law so that women and girls cannot work over eight hours a day in harvesting any fruit crops; and

WHEREAS, Our principal crops in the vicinity, such as grapes, prunes and other perishable fruits, are harvested, dried or canned during the four summer months of the year, by all classes of people, who voluntarily work about twelve hours a day in the open air and not under sweat-shop conditions, which gives just an optional employment to all; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Cloverdale Chamber of Commerce recommend that our Legislature change this unjust law and take some action to regulate the hours of fruit laborers so that the same will be just and equitable to all parties concerned and give optional employment to all classes of people, which would certainly be better than letting our fruit rot, which would undoubtedly be the result under the present law and a great loss to this community; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Assemblyman Herbert W. Slater and Senator L. W. Juilliard, at Sacramento, requesting their assistance.

C. E. HUMBERT, President.

Attest: C. B. SHAW, Secretary.

Also:

CLOVERDALE, CAL., January 27, 1913.

WHEREAS, The present law regarding the employers' liability is considered unreasonable and unjust for our small farmers and country employers, as most labor performed in this vicinity is undertaken without risk and accident can hardly occur except through carelessness of the laborer; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Cloverdale Chamber of Commerce recommend that our Legislature make changes in our present state law that shall be just and equitable to all parties concerned; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to our Senator, L. W. Juilliard, and Assemblyman, Herbert W. Slater, at Sacramento, requesting their assistance.

C. E. HUMBERT, President.

Attest: C. B. SHAW, Secretary.

By Mr. Bohnett:

OAKLAND, CAL., January 27, 1913.

We, the undersigned, citizens of California, endorse and urge the enactment into law of the measure known as the Red Light Injunction and Abatement Act.

ALICE M. PAINE (and others).

By Mr. Brown:

WHEREAS, The board of supervisors of San Mateo County, recognizing the necessity of co-operation in presenting to the world at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco, in 1915, an exhibit that will be an honor to our State and our county; and

WHEREAS, The representatives of the counties of this State, in meeting assembled, have declared in favor of a state appropriation for the construction and maintenance of a California state building, at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, wherein each and every county of California may have space for an exhibit and headquarters; and

WHEREAS, The funds of San Mateo County, which may be lawfully raised for exposition purposes, will not be sufficient to enable this county to join with the other counties of the State in paying the cost of the erection of a suitable State building at such exposition; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the board of supervisors of San Mateo County, in regular meeting assembled this sixth day of January, 1913, believing it would be impossible to take from the funds levied by this county and other counties of the State for exposition purposes, sufficient money to erect an adequate State building where California and the counties thereof may act as the host of the world, therefore, we strongly urge and favor an appropriation, by the State of California, out of the funds of the state treasury, in the sum of one million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of a California building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition; and be it further

Resolved, That we call upon our representatives in the State Legislature to give their strong and hearty support to the bill which will be introduced at the next Legislature looking to the appropriation of a sum sufficient for the construction and maintenance of the California State building, and that the clerk of this board be instructed to immediately mail a copy of this resolution to his Excellency Honorable Hiram W. Johnson, Governor of the State of California, and to Hon. William R. Flint, Senator of this district, and Hon. Henry Ward Brown, Assemblyman from this district, and to O. H. Miller, Box 775, Sacramento, California, secretary of the counties executive committee.

ON RULES.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February, 3, 1913.

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on Rules, to whom was referred the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The cost of living has for many years been gradually on the increase, augmenting more rapidly than the incomes of the people, especially those forced to labor daily for the support of themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, In the State of California trusts and monopolies, under various names and systems, have been formed for the purpose of controlling the product and increasing the price of supplies of all kinds, including food, clothing, building material and other commodities, with the result that it is becoming daily more difficult for those of limited or small means to enjoy the comforts and necessities of life; and

WHEREAS, It appears that this increased cost of articles of all kinds is largely artificial, and due to the unlawful and unjust manipulation of those controlling the markets of the State, and those who by unlawful agreements and combinations are depressing the price of produce to the farmers, orchardists, and stockmen, even going to the extent of destroying great quantities of foodstuffs and staples in order that said artificial high price may the more easily be maintained; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a special committee of five Assemblymen be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly to investigate the conditions which permit of such inequalities in the cost of production and the price of products to the consumer in the State of California, and also to inquire into the status of combinations and agreements and monopolies operating against the laws of the State, and to recommend to the Legislature at its next regular or special session such statutes as may tend to ameliorate the present conditions; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, to issue subpoenas whenever necessary and to enforce attendance, and to employ for that purpose and the purpose of the aforesaid investigation such clerical and other help as may be necessary; and there is hereby appropriated out of the contingent fund of the Assembly such sum or sums as may be necessary to defray the traveling and contingent expenses connected with said investigation.

Have had the same under consideration, and respectfully report the same back, and recommend that it be not adopted.

Instructions to Voters: To vote, stamp or write a cross (X) opposite the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote. All marks otherwise made are forbidden. 14. All ballots printed shall be precisely of the same size, quality, tint of paper, kind of type, and color of ink, so that without the number it would be impossible to distinguish one ballot from another; and the names of all the candidates printed upon the ballot shall be in type of the same size and style. A column may be provided on the right hand side for charter amendments or other questions to be voted upon at the municipal elections, as provided for under the charter. The names of the candidates for each office shall be arranged by lot by city clerk, and nothing on the ballot shall be indicative of the source of the candidacy or of the support of any candidate.

19. The clerk shall cause to be printed sample ballots identical with the ballot to be used at the election and shall furnish copies of the same on application to registered voters at his office at least five days before the date fixed for such election, and shall mail one such ballot to each voter entitled to vote at such election, so that all of said sample ballots shall have been mailed at least three whole days before said election.

20. In case there is but one person to be elected to an office, the candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast for all the candidates for that office shall be declared elected; in case there are two or more persons to be elected to an office, as that of councilman, then those candidates equal in number to the number to be elected, who receive the highest number of votes for such an office shall be declared elected; provided, however, that no person shall be declared elected to any office at such first election unless the number of votes received by him shall be greater than one half the number of ballots cast at such election.

21. If at any election held as above provided there be any office to which the required number of persons was not elected, then as to such office the said first election shall be considered to have been a primary election for the nomination of candidates, and a second election shall be held to fill said office. The candidates not elected at such first election, equal in number to twice the number to be elected to any given office, or less if so there be, who receive the highest number of votes for the respective offices at such first election, shall be the only candidates at such second election; provided, that if there be any person who, under the provisions of this subdivision, would have been entitled to become a candidate for any office except for the fact that some other candidate received an equal number of votes therefor, then all such persons receiving such equal number of votes shall likewise become candidates for such office. The candidates equal in number to the persons to be elected who shall receive the highest number of votes at such second election shall be declared elected to such office.

22. The second election, if necessary to be held, shall be held three weeks after the first election.

23. All the provisions and conditions above set forth as to the conduct of an election, so far as they may be applicable, shall govern the second election, except that notice of election need be published twice only; and provided, also, that the same precincts and polling places shall, if possible, be used.

24. If a person elected fails to qualify, the office shall be filled as if there were a vacancy in such office, as hereinafter provided.

25. No informalities in conducting municipal elections shall invalidate the same, if they have been conducted fairly and in substantial conformity to the requirements of this charter.

Section 4. The provisions of the state law relating to the qualifications of electors, the manner of voting, the duties of election officers, the canvassing of returns, and all other particulars in respect to the management of elections, so far as they may be applicable, shall govern all municipal elections: provided, that the council shall meet as a canvassing board and duly canvass the election returns within seven days after any municipal election.

Section 5. All officers provided to be elected by this charter shall take office on the first Monday after the first day of January next after their election. In the case of a special election to fill a vacancy, the person elected shall, after qualifying, as herein provided, enter at once upon the discharge of the duties of the office to which he has been elected and shall serve for the remainder of the term and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Any failure, neglect or refusal on the part of any person holding such license to register the same with the clerk of said county as above directed for a period of six months after the issuance thereof shall ipso facto work a forfeiture of his license, and it shall not be restored except upon the payment to said board of twenty-five (25) dollars. REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The following report of the special committee on acoustics, made by U. Corbley Pool to W. F. McClure, State Engineer, was received, and ordered printed in the Journal:

REPORT ON ACOUSTICS.

MR. SPEAKER: Your Special Committee on Acoustics beg leave to submit the following as our report:

"SACRAMENTO, CAL., February 3, 1913.

MR. W. F. MCCLURE, State Engineer, State Capitol, Sacramento, Cal.

SIR: In accordance with your request and the resolution passed in the Assembly on Tuesday, January 28th, I have made a thorough investigation of the acoustic properties of the Assembly Chamber and herewith report my findings and estimated cost of correction.

In acoustics a number of elements must be considered—the most common are direct and indirect echo, reverberation and resounding, each requiring separate and distinct treatment.

The chief difficulty lies in the proportions of the room. I also find some reverberation which creates rarification of sound in certain sections of the room. Correction may be made by some alterations of the interior of the chamber, principally lowering the ceiling of room and making some changes in the gallery. The difficulties have been magnified by an erroneous attempt to correct the same through the use of felt and heavy carpets.

The present difficulty is greatly increased by the fact that the parties failing to hear well become uninterested and contribute to the already defective acoustics of the room by talking and rattling of papers.

My estimate of cost to correct the acoustic properties of the Assembly Chamber is $12,200.00, not including commission. I will undertake the work, if commissioned to do so, for $2,000 commission.

Respectfully,

J. CORBLEY POOL."

INMAN, Chairman.

By Mr. Guiberson:

WHEREAS, A bill has been introduced in the Senate of the United States by Honorable Francis G. Senate Joint Resolution No. 9 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 9,

Relative to the continuance by the United States of the government line of steamers from eastern seaports to Colon, in the "canal zone," and the extension thereof to Pacific seaports, on the western coast of the United States, on the completion of the Panama Canal.

WHEREAS, There is maintained and operated by the United States from eastern seaports of our country to Colon, in the "canal zone," a government line of steamers for the transportation of freight consisting of supplies for use in the construction of the Panama Canal, and of certain merchandise for the Pacific Coast States; the latter transshipped from Avon on the western end of the government railways across the Isthmus of Panama, to steamers operated by private corporations, plying between Avon and Pacific coast ports;

WHEREAS, On the completion of said canal, public interests and the necessities of those interested in western commerce, demand that the government-owned vessels now in the service on the Atlantic side, be not only continued in operation as now, but extended to Pacific seaports, on the western coast of the United States;

WHEREAS, The failure to so continue and extend such government service would reopen the struggle between the producers and shippers of California and sister states, on the one side, and the steamship companies acting in concert with the transcontinental railways on the other; and thus, to a great extent, restore the unfavorable conditions, that will, in the future, and as they were, in the past, be manipulated and controlled by transcontinental railways and their allies;

WHEREAS, The experience of our producers and shippers in the past and recently in connection with a steamship line not enjoying the favors of the transcontinental railway lines and their allies, doing business on the Pacific side of the canal, should warn those in authority and the people, to avoid a similar danger in the future; particularly when its repetition will greatly impair the benefits that should accrue to them and to the country at large, by the construction and operation of such canal under the auspices of the Government of the United States.

WHEREAS, The early completion of the Panama Canal should urge early action on the subject-matter of these resolutions; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California, respectfully urge the Congress of the United States, to enact such legislation as will continue, after the completion of the Panama Canal, such government line of steamers, and extend their service, with such additional steamers and facilities as may be necessary, to Pacific seaports, on the western coast of the United States; be it further

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives in Congress requested, to use all honorable means to secure the enactment of the aforesaid legislation; be it further

Resolved, That duly authenticated copies of these resolutions be transmitted by the Governor of the State of California to the President and the President-elect of the United States, and the presiding officers of the respective houses of the sixty-second and sixty-third sessions of Congress, and also to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress in said sessions of Congress.

WHEREAS, The women through the suffrage share in the responsibilities of government, and should have equal consideration in public employment, which they would receive under the merit system; and

WHEREAS, The Federation of Women's Clubs has long had a standing committee for the purpose of securing the adoption of civil service principles; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Friday Morning Club declares itself in favor of the merit system and urges upon the Governor and the members of the Legislature the passage of a thorough-going civil service law.

By Mr. Mouser:

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6, 1913.

To the Members of the Legislature of the State of California:

The San Francisco Labor Council, in regular session assembled Friday evening, February 28th, unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

"WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 905 has the indorsement of organized labor in its main features, and is the most comprehensive plan ever introduced into a State Legislature to cover the workmen's compensation problem, and in addition provides for a state insurance fund to enable employers to protect themselves against the cost of compensation, and a safety department which gives to the workers the hope of reducing the excessive number of deaths and personal injuries sustained in the industrial world; and

WHEREAS, It is known that the compensation schedule has been carefully worked out and will not prove detrimental to the industries of the State, and that insurance for the social need represented by thousands of injured men and women and their dependents is absolutely necessary and has not heretofore been provided; and

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding the urgent need of such legislation, a number of insurance companies doing business in this State have inaugurated a state-wide campaign of misrepresentation against said Senate Bill No. 905, their motives being obviously of a purely selfish nature; therefore, be it

Resolved by San Francisco Labor Council, in regular session assembled this 28th day of February, 1913. That we indorse Senate Bill No. 905 and urge labor throughout the State to express approval of the proposed measure; further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be submitted to Governor Hiram W. Johnson, each Senator and Assemblyman, and to every central labor body in the State, as well as the press."

Trusting you will give these resolutions your most earnest consideration, I remain,
Very truly yours.

JOHN A. O'CONNELL,

Secretary San Francisco Labor Council.

Also:

Resolved, That Roosevelt Camp No. 9, United Spanish War Veterans, Department of California, from considerations of true patriotism and of public interest, is, and all of its members are, keenly interested in each of the proposed legislative enactments hereafter referred to, and earnestly request the hearty support of all members of the Legislature, and particularly of the Senators and Assemblymen from the county of Los Angeles in securing, if possible, the amendments and the final passage of said bills as hereinafter suggested:

(1) That Senate Bill No. 1084, introduced by Senator Finn, be passed without amendment.

This bill is in aid of the National Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans to be held at San Francisco. Every consideration of loyal patriotism, of love of the history and institutions of our country, of gratitude for the defenders of the country's flag, and every consideration of public welfare and of local state interest, makes urgent appeal for the passage of this bill.

(2) That Senate Bill No. 413, introduced by Senator Curtin, be passed without amendment.

This bill amends the present law only by adding the following words: "And it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to perpetually thereafter suitably and properly maintain each of said graves." Surely no one will raise voice against such legislation which provides for so slight a public token of reverence and regard for our soldier dead.

(3) That Assembly Bill No. 483, introduced by Mr. Smith, be passed without amendment.

This bill is for the protection of "Old Glory" against insult by those enjoying its protection. Insult by foreign foe would bring military rebuke regardless of the cost in blood or treasure. Surely, it should be made at least a misdemeanor for a citizen or resident to insult the flag of our country. Human history shows that love for and reverence of the national emblem must be preserved in the lives of its citizens and instilled in the hearts of its young, or else the nation forfeits foreign respect and falls under alien domination.

(4) That Assembly Bill No. 51, introduced by Mr. Stuckenbruck, be amended so as to include within its benefits "every honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine who served in the Spanish-American war, or the Philippine insurrection in the California regiments; or in the navy quota from this State," and that, as so amended, the bill should pass. Be it also further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be properly authenticated under the seal of the camp and forwarded to the Senators and Assemblymen from Los Angeles County and to the chairman and members of the Committee on Judiciary and of the Committee on Military Affairs of both the Senate and the Assembly.

Also:

The Negro Federated Council, meeting in regular weekly session on Thursday, January 29, 1913, adopted the following resolution, offered by Attorney W. B. Coleman:

WHEREAS, Certain bills have been introduced in the Assembly and Senate of the Legislature of the State of California containing provision which, if enacted into law, will virtually exclude the children of the negro citizens from the public schools of this State; and

WHEREAS, Negroes, being native-born American citizens, are entitled to every, all, and equal opportunity of education, and the equal protection of law to which all other citizens are entitled, and are possessed with the same consciousness of right and wrong, of justice and injustice, as all other American citizens; and

WHEREAS, Negroes have no race representation in either of the said legislative bodies, and are at present without other means of redress; and

WHEREAS, Negroes demand for their possession and enjoyment equal opportunity of every kind and character that all other citizens possess and enjoy; and

WHEREAS, The said bills are fraught with dangerous consequences, and designed to retard the progress and advancement of negro citizenship of this State; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that the said certain bills contain international complications with which this resolution is not hereby concerned, by this body, acting for and on behalf of the negro citizens of the city of Los Angeles, county of Los Angeles and State of California: be it hereby earnestly and solemnly

Resolved, first, That it is the sense of this body, in public meeting, assembled, that the bill now before the Legislature known as Assembly Bill No. 467, and its companion in the Senate, Bill No. 468, and Assembly Bill 1539, in so far as it pertains to negroes, if enacted into law, is un-American, unprogressive, fraught with consequences inimical to the educational and just social advancement and progress of the children of every loyal, patriotic and law-abiding citizen of African descent in the State of California;

Resolved, second, That we urge the amendment of said bills so that upon final reading or passage, should they pass, the term "negro," and any and all synonymous words, terms or expressions, be expunged and eliminated therefrom. That no bill be passed and enacted into law creating conditions whereby inferior school facilities may be imposed upon the children of persons of African descent who are citizens of the United States and of the State of California;

Resolved, third, That as native-born American citizens, we demand every, all, and equal opportunity of education; we demand the equal protection of the law; we demand protection from the onslaught of designing persons whose highest ambition is to retard the progress and advance of humanity by oppressing the weaker elements of society and denying equal opportunity to those who most need encouragement;

Resolved, fourth, That the members of both houses from this, Los Angeles County, are hereby called upon to oppose and defeat said bill in so far as it pertains to negroes, and in so unfortunate an event as its passage, our progressive Governor is called upon to exercise the executive veto and prevent its becoming a law;

Resolved, fifth, That a petition in due and legal form be circulated for signatures of negro citizens and voters opposing the passage of said measure, as aforesaid, for transmission to the proper persons and committees at Sacramento.

(Approved): E. W. KINCHEN,
President Negro Federated Council.

MRS. GEO. M. WARNER,
Secretary Negro Federated Council.

By Mr. Slater:

SAN LORENZO, CAL., February 24, 1913.

To the Legislature of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned women of Alameda County, who have worked in the harvesting, cutting, packing, handling, and canning of fresh fruits and vegetables, believe it is our right and privilege to work more than eight hours a day if we so desire.

We find the work is not unpleasant, and it is remunerative, the work usually being conducted in the open air or in well ventilated buildings. The season of the various varieties is short, the product perishable, and the pay is good.

We feel it would be unjust to restrict us to a limit of eight hours a day, and we petition your honorable body to enact no laws that will restrict us from working more than eight hours a day if we so desire.

MRS. NELLIE NIELSON (and others).

By Mr. Richardson:

To the Honorable Senate and the Assembly of the State of California:

At a convention of delegates, representing thirty-five churches with a membership of twenty-five hundred, constituting the Fourth California Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, which meeting was held in Oakland, California, January 26, 1913, the following resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote in the affirmative:

WHEREAS, The enactment of any law for the compulsory cessation of labor on Sunday is religious in its character, in that it is designed to foster the religious observance of Sunday, and would be detrimental to the welfare and prosperity of the State, and an infringement of the natural rights of mankind; therefore,

Resolved, That we urge your honorable body to refrain from the enactment of any Sunday law, or other statute whereby the compulsory observance of any weekly day of rest might be attempted by the representatives of the State.

E. W. FARNSWORTH,
President California Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists.
CLAUDE CONARD,
Secretary California Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

The following explanation of vote was sent to the desk and ordered printed in the Journal:

I voted this morning for the re-reference of Assembly Bill No. 75 from the Committee on Labor and Capital to the Committee on Public Health and Quarantine for the reason that after getting opportunity to read the bill I had become convinced that it was essentially a health measure, and as such should have been referred to the health committee, as was done in the Senate with its companion bill.

I desire to make this statement in justice to Mr. McDonald, chairman of the Committee on Labor and Capital, since my vote for re-reference was prompted solely by a feeling that I had erred in my original reference of the bill, and not by any doubt as to the fairness of Mr. McDonald or his committee.
